Magic Clogging Shoes

By: Erin Sessions, 9 years old

Young Authors Project, 1992
Fourth Grade Ben Funk School
Decatur, Illinois

Once there was a little girl named Michelle. On her sixth birthday her grandmother gave her clogging lessons.

Her grandmother said, "Lessons start tomorrow, so be ready at 6:00 and I'll come and pick you up at 6:30."

"O.K." said Michelle, "and don't be late!"

When Monday finally came Michelle was so excited that she was about to burst! Then when 6:00 finally came she was ready! On their way to clogging lessons Audrey [grandmother] said, "Now when you get there don't be surprised when all the other people have different shoes."

"Why will they have different shoes?" asked Michelle.

"Well," said Grandma, "because they have been in clogging longer. And when you decide if you're going to stay in clogging for awhile, then I'll get you some shoes like they have."

"O.K." said Michelle.

Finally they got there. First Michelle asked Grandma what her teacher's name was?

Grandma said, "Her name is Patty Garner."

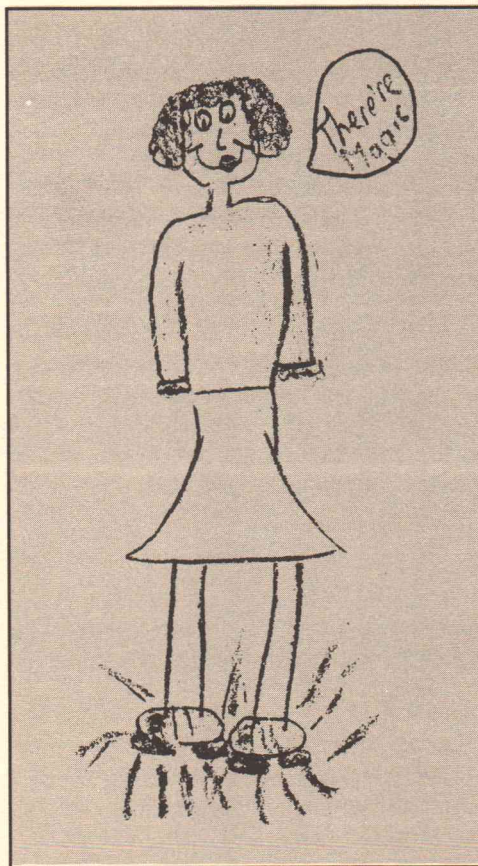

Patty said, "Ok, everybody, let's line up."

Grandma said, "Michelle go up in the front row and stand by the tall girl. Her name is Chrissy." So Michelle went and stood by Chrissy. Patty taught how to do a basic. That is the most used step in clogging.

After she taught a basic step and everybody got it down pat, she said, "You may take a break now."

So Michelle went over and sat down in a lawn chair. Then Grandma came life possible.

over and sat down by her and said, "Well, did you get it?"

"At first it was hard, but after I watched Chrissy for a while I got it."

Michelle was just sitting there and then Chrissy came up to her and said, "I've got some old clogging shoes at home and, if you want them, I'll bring them Thursday."

"UMMMMMMM, UMMMMMM. Let me ask my grandma."

"Grandma," Michelle said excitedly, "Chrissy asked me if I would like her old clogging shoes."

"Well," said Grandma.

"Oh, please," said Michelle. "it would make me feel a lot better instead of feeling like a dork!"

"OK," said Grandma. "You can have them."

"Oh, thank you" said Michelle.

So Michelle went back over and told Chrissy that she could have them.

"OK," said Chrissy, "I'll bring them Thursday."

After lessons Michelle said she was hungry. "OK," said Grandma, "we'll got to Hardee's and eat. What do you want?" asked Grandma.

Michelle said she wanted a Chicken Sandwich with Curly Fries and a small Dr. Pepper. After they ate their food Grandma took Michelle home.

When Michelle got home she said, "Guess what, Mom! I met this really nice girl named Chrissy and she's going to give me her old clogging shoes."

Two days had gone by and it was Thursday, Michelle couldn't wait until 6:30. She couldn't wait until she got her first pair of clogging shoes. Finally 6:30 came and Michelle was ready. As soon as Grandma pulled in the driveway Michelle said goodbye to Mom and Dad and she was out the door in a flash!

"Well," said Grandma, "what's the hurry?"

"Oh, I want my new clogging shoes!" When they got there Michelle jumped out of the car and ran into the hall. Chrissy was sitting down on a chair. Michelle went over to Chrissy and said, "Did you remember them?"

"Yes, they're right over there."

FRONT & CENTER EDITORIAL

It is with pardonable (I hope) pride that I present my eight grandchildren. This was supposed to have been a mid-winter annual event but with eight young'uns from three families it's not easy coordinating colds and flu, schedules, braces, and the photo studio!

The photo session was absolutely hilarious. Three Moms, Gramma, the photographer and these eight children in a rather small studio. The photographer was blowing bubbles and squeaking toys and two of us had a dusty velvet cloth over our heads playing peek-a-boo. One child was more interested in the floor, the other children and her nose. Another had absolutely made up his mind to pout. One was radiant and smiled at everything. One of the proofs caught all eight individually and separately looking in a different

Next year's photo session will surely be better. (Then again, maybe it'll be worse!) This one provided some delightful memories to chuckle about.

Trust me, if instructors and dancers experience "burnout," SO DO EDITORS!

Seems like once a month I'm ready to chuck the whole thing. The mail brings a mixed bag of smiles and tears. Two folks for whom I've always had great admiration, have lambasted me recently — one by letter, the other by phone. One indicated I was a parasite living off the works of others. The other stated that a particular national convention "made" The Double Toe Times. They are entitled to their opinions, just as I am to mine. I've always tried to be fair to everyone and I prepare the magazine with a great deal of concern and affection for all of you out there laughing and dancing and sharing. Since The Double Toe Times circulation continues to increase, you and I must be doing something right.

Here are some of the rays of sunshine which give me the incentive to go on:

David Nimmo, California: "The Double Toe Times is wonderful. Your admirable work in this true American folk dance is unmatched. You have brought together both coasts in a fun magazine which has an original home town feel."

Cameron Gamble, Louisiana: [Edited] "...your Double Toe Times... is vintage champagne... articles on clogging in general are excellent, such as the series (I hope) as written by Jeff Driggs... and so on, and your editorials in particular."

The following paragraph struck me as the perfect explanation of why I am so entranced by clogging and cloggers.

"Clogging is a paradox. It's a cultural tradition. It began from not one beginning, but many, and continues to serve a purpose; to draw people to their feet, dancing alone or with another, reveling for those few moments in the joy of being alive."

Crazy About Clogging Country America, by Jeanice Birch and Steve Cohen, February 1992.

Devil's Delight Workshop — Toledo, Ohio

By Dawn Malone

Held on April 25, 1992, our 6th Annual Devil's Delight was a very enjoyable day. Every year they get easier and easier to run. We weren't sure what kind of turn out we would have this year because we had to change locations, but we still had a great turn out of about 200 dancers. Next year we will be back at our regular location in Toledo. Every year we look forward to seeing all of our friends. Chip Woodall and Carolyn Kell are two of the nicest people we have come in contact with. Between the two of them we had a full day of great routines, fun and laughter. On Sunday, when it was time to get them to the airport, that wasn't a problem, but even though Carolyn had a later flight than Chip, she was able to see Chip off. His flight was delayed for about four hours. We did our best to keep him occupied, but he had his mind on getting home to Donna. He had a reason to be pre-occupied since they just found out that they are expecting a baby! We are so happy for them, and we give them our best wishes. Thanks to all of the dancers who support our workshop.

Jeff Driggs mentioned places where they do old-style clogging to live music. Would it be possible to publish some addresses where it would be all right for a traveler to drop in — and maybe join in the clogging?

Ethel Brown, Mt. Prospect, Illinois

I just wanted to share this picture with your readers. The cake was baked and decorated by one of our cloggers, Deb Shields.

It was a surprise for our kids' instructor after a class one evening.

I thought she did a real good job.

Thanks for publishing a great magazine. Keep up the good work.

Mickey Whaley, Diamond, Ohio:

I really enjoy your "Double Toe Times" magazine so much. The story on the front page of the Carramella Country Dance Club was an interesting story and we as a group are going to video tape our choreography songs and send them over.

Our first Fun-Dance in February we had 82 people. The second dance in March we had 101 and is growing. I hope to send you some pictures soon of what it's all about.

The Woman in the Glass

When you get what you want in your struggle for self
And the world makes you queen for a day,
Just go to a mirror and look at yourself,
And see what THAT woman has to say.

For it isn't your husband or family or friend
Whose judgment upon you must pass;
The woman whose verdict counts most in the end
Is the one staring back from the glass.

Some people may think you a straight-shootin' chum
And call you a person of place
But the woman in the glass says you're only a bum
If you can't look her straight in the face.

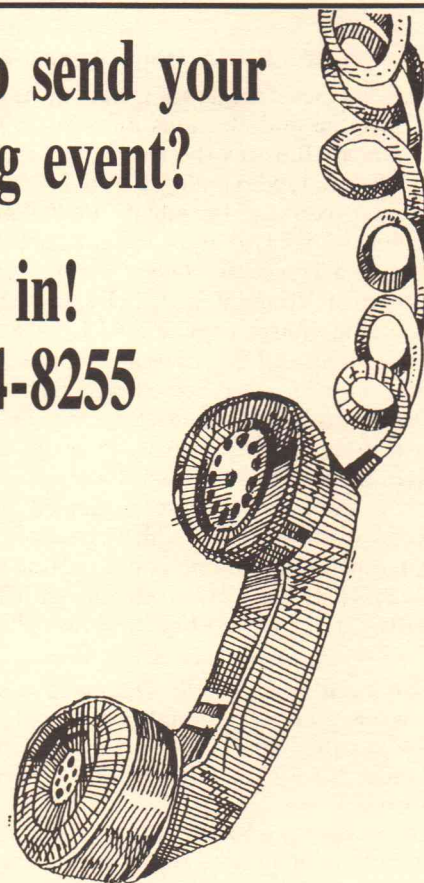

She's the woman to please, never mind all the rest
For she's with you clear up to the end,
And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
If the woman in the glass is your friend.

You may fool the whole world down the pathway of years
And get pats on the back as you pass,
But your final reward will be heartaches and tears
If you've cheated the woman in the glass.

Marv Sass, California City, California, writes:

"I'd like to share this with the rest of the clogging fraternity. I had choreographed a routine to the song by Ray Stevens, #1 With a Bullet album "A Little Blue-Haired Lady," and must have touched a button somewhere, anyway she wrote a poem.

The young lady who wrote this is only about 70 years young, and, needless to say, I was touched (I'm also over 60 years myself!).

NERECA Holds Annual Meeting

The Northeast Regional Clogging Association held its annual meeting and elections on May 2, 1992.

The host club was the Northern Light Cloggers of Strafford, Vermont, who put on a "Pot Luck" Chicken Bar-b-que.

New officers are: President - Beth Kendall, Vermont; Vice President - Dick Quinn, New York; Secretary - Keith Palmer, Maine; and Treasurer - Jackie Young, New Hampshire. Vicki Eastman of Vermont is NEREC NEWS Editor and Don Astley is in charge of The NEREC SONGBOOK soon to be printed. Special thanks went to former Vice President David Marrella and former Secretary, Laurie Palmer.

Dancing followed the meeting. Vicki Eastman found a clogging routine written in gym classes in the early 1920's with written music. After translating the numbered steps into today's terminology, everyone danced the routine to music played on the piano by Shirley Dolloff of Maine.

Anyone interested in this old routine send $1 to NEREC NEWS, RR 1, Box 128, Strafford, VT 05072, Attention: Vicki Eastman, to cover postage and xeroxing.

This month we are inaugurating an Association page. There are twenty state or regional clogging organizations and three national clogging associations in the United States. Canada and Australia each have their own newsletters (We will feature them too.)

Each association has a unique focus for their cloggers and instructors, but all subscribe to the "caring and sharing" mandate! We think you'll be surprised by the geographical coverage and the broad spectrum of activities.

In every state there are many who do not belong to an association, and there are quite a few states that do not yet have associations. It is hard to know how to represent their areas, but at a later date we'll try. Any input would be greatly appreciated. [Editor]

Georgia Clogging Leaders Association Spring Workshop By Gail Hardison and Caryn Robinson

The Georgia Clogging Leaders Association held its annual Spring Workshop on May 9, 1992 at the Woodmen of the World Lodge in Columbus, Georgia. The workshop was hosted by Sam Gill and the Tanglefoot Cloggers of Columbus, Georgia.

G.C.L.A. instructors taught several routines to country and rock music with levels ranging from easy to intermediate plus. More than 100 dancers from Georgia, Florida, Alabama, and South Carolina attended.

G.C.L.A. presented their 1991 "CATHY EBERSOLE AWARD" to Janice Lowe. Recipients from previous years (Claudia Collier '89 and Diane Wells '90) received plaques in addition their past recognition.

G.C.L.A. will host the clogging portion of the Georgia State Square Dancers Association Convention Sept. 18-20 in Macon, Georgia at the Macon Coliseum. (See Wells, GA Directory.)

A fall workshop will be held in Savannah, Georgia on November 14, 1992 hosted by Claudia Collier, C.C. Express, and the Home Cookin' Cloggers. (See Collier, GA Directory.)

During the day a strange concoction of routines was taught — GHOSTRIDERS were JUSTIFIED & ANCIENT while doing the OKLAHOMA SWING as someone shouted LOVE IS A WONDERFUL THING — but wait a minute they said — you know I CAN'T DANCE! Oh, but THAT'S WHAT I LIKE ABOUT YOU — And everyone knows you can get a RAWHIDE when OLD FLAMES HAVE NEW NAMES which could eventually lead to A DAY IN MY LIFE WITHOUT YOU — all, of course, taught by G.C.L.A. instructors.

Indian River Cloggers Inc. 6th Annual POW WOW '92

By Anita Wood
Merritt Island, Florida

425 cloggers from around Florida gathered in Merritt Island for the Indian River Clogger's 6th Pow Wow! Special recognition should go to the Clog Happy Cloggers from New Haven who brought 37 people.

Great routines were taught by instructors: Diana Allen, Tony Dillow, Kim Carson, Greg Dionne, Jan Bohly, Jamie Conn and Marion Taylor.

In the evening, the crowd cheered for their favorite instructor as they participated in the Pow Wow "Clogolympics." The presentation of the gold medal went to Greg Dionne, the silver medal to Jamie Conn, and the bronze to Marion Taylor.

For those country western dancing enthusiasts, we had great fun with Kurt Wysel who taught us some line and circle dances.

Carol Williams from Key Largo won $88. in the 50/50. All-in-all it was a fantastic day of dancing, food and friends. A big thank you to all that shared our day with us and made it such a hit!

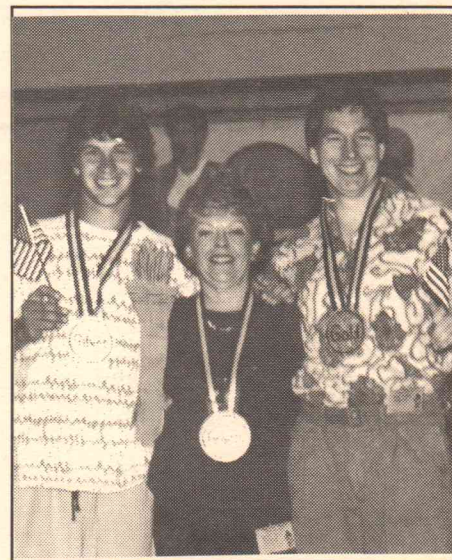

The person who brings us all together is Sandy Redfern, our Director. Her patience, understanding and guidance is the force behind the Indian River Cloggers. Thank you to the Indian River Cloggers for all their hard work which made this year's Pow Wow the best ever.

Country Time Toedown

By Tim Spivey
Live Oak, Florida

The Country Time Cloggers had competition from the rain and from the NCHC dance-offs in Daytona. But they still had a good turnout for their second annual "Toedown" in Live Oak, Florida.

At least 350 Georgia and Florida dancers made it to the Suwannee County Coliseum for the evening shindig, some arriving several hours early. Country Time director Ruth Oren MC'd the hoedown and mixed requests in with the different team exhibitions.

Ruth's other team, the North Florida Appalachian Cloggers, co-hosted the evening. Food, door prizes and a quilt raffle kept the sidelines busy.

For the Suwannee Stompers, this was their first time dancing in front of a crowd of fellow cloggers. Other groups included the Small Town Cloggers, Sassy Girls, Timberland, Kountry Kloggers, Cross Creek and the Suncoast Cloggers.

Two weekends later, Ruth got an unexpected surprise at the ACHF workshop in Maggie Valley. She took first place in the 50+ solo age group during the post-workshop competition (though she signed up for 60+).

After years of dancing, Ruth Oren has been trying to retire as an instructor and team director, and "just get in the back row and let someone else tell me what to do." But most of her team threatened to quit if she resigned as boss. So she's still teaching — three nights a week in two different towns.

So Michelle went over and got them and put them on. "They fit! They fit!"

"Well, did you tell Chrissy thank you?" asked Grandma.

"Oh thank you, Chrissy," said Michelle. "I love 'em."

"Well, get up there and get ready to start," said Grandma.

So Michelle went up and stood there.

"Hello," said Patty. Do you all remember how to do a basic?"

Everybody said, "Yes."

"Let me see you do a basic. Ready 1,2,3,4." Everybody did a basic really well.

Patty said, "Now I'm going to teach you how to do a triple. Patty said, "here's what a triple looks like." When Patty did a triple Michelle tried it and the first time she tried it she got it.

"Wow!" said Michelle. "These shoes must be magic!"

Grandma saw how well Michelle did and she was amazed! After Patty taught the rest of the class how to do a triple, she said, "everybody take a break."

When break started Patty went over to Michelle and said, "how did you learn it that fast?"

"Well," said Michelle, "ever since Chrissy gave me her old shoes, I've been a good dancer. They're magic, you know."

"Oh," said Patty. "Well, if you're as good as your grandma on July 24th, you can go to Mexico with us."

"Really?" asked Michelle.

"Yes, really."

"Oh, thank you so much!"

"You're welcome," said Patty.

When it was July 20th Michelle was so excited because she had worked very hard to get as good as Grandma, and she really did think that in 4 days she could be as good as Grandma! It was Thursday and Patty had said on Monday she would decide Thursday and tell her after lessons.

When they got to the hall Patty taught how to do a double basic. Then she said, "everybody take a break."

Then Patty came over to Michelle and said, "if your Mom, Dad, and Grandma will let you, you can go to Mexico."

"Oh thank you!" said Michelle. "I can't wait!"

That weekend Michelle started packing right away. "Michelle," Mom cried, "we have to go shopping."

"Why do we have to go shopping?"

"We have to buy you some new clogging shoes."

"Why do we have to get me some new clogging shoes?"

"Because the ones Chrissy gave you are all skummy looking and they're getting to be too little for you!"

"But, Mom, I can't get new clogging shoes. The old ones are magical and without them I won't be a good dancer anymore."

"Oh don't be ridiculous, Michelle," said Mom.

"But it's true!"

"OK we'll get some new shoes and if you don't clog any better in these shoes then you can clog in the magical ones."

"Oh thank you, Mom," said Michelle.

"Well, come on we want to get those shoes and see who's right."

When they got home with the new shoes, Mom said, "OK, Michelle, put on the shoes and do a basic and a triple."

"OK" said Michelle, and she tried to do a basic and she did it terrifically.

"Wow!" said Michelle. "You were right, Mom, these shoes aren't really magical. I'm just a good clogger."

Third Anniversary Northern Light Workshop Huge Success

By Kara Kendall
Strafford, Vermont

When the Northern Light Cloggers started holding our annual Anniversary Dance and Workshop in March, our first instructor was Chip Woodall, who said he would come if we promised snow. We did; it did; he did; and it has snowed every Anniversary Weekend since!

Even with our annual snow storm, our workshop and third anniversary celebration was a success. 400 cloggers from 37 clubs in the northeast, Canada and New Jersey attended.

The weekend began with a Welcome Dance, sponsored by our convention hotel, the Holiday Inn in White River Junction, Vermont, featuring our guest instructor, Naomi Fleetwood from Indiana.

The workshop began Saturday morning with Naomi Fleetwood in the main hall and wonderful Sallie Adkins in our basic hall while Sallie's husband Jack managed the Heritage Clogging Supply Shop, the very first clogging vendor to come to New England!

Alice Mellish, Canada, taught during the break for Naomi, Joyce Cullen, New York, started the basic hall for Sallie and Mike Marrella, New Hampshire, taught an advanced routine.

Saturday evening started with our traditional "Parade of Clubs," following a banquet at the Holiday Inn. Each club displayed their beautiful club banners.

Roger Young, instructor/director of the Foggy Mountain Cloggers was the recipient of the Northern Light Cloggers' annual award given each year to an individual who has been an excellent example of promoting clogging and an inspiration to the Northern Light Cloggers and clogging in the northeast. Roger Young is the "Grandfather of Vermont Clogging." Almost every clogging club in Vermont has had its roots go back to Roger Young.

Trophies were awarded to the Apple Blossom Cloggers of New York for traveling the furthest distance. There was a tie between the Canadian Rainbow Cloggers and the Yankee Doodle Cloggers of Massachusetts for club having the most dancers attending.

Exhibitions followed with the Northern

Kara Kendall

Kids from our team and The Renegade Cloggers of New Jersey skipped the party to go outside and build snowmen around the hotel. Great making new friends at a workshop.

The Northern Light Cloggers would like to thank our guest instructors, our sound engineer Mr. Harry Kilbride, Jack Adkins, all our guest dancers and guests who helped out in so many ways and special thanks to my mom, Beth Kendall, Vicki Eastman and all our Northern Light parents who make our dreams really happen.

She's in swing of things

76-year-old Gean Dentino's been teaching dance for 60 years.

The Journal Star
Peoria, Illinois

PEKIN — Maybe it's because Gean Dentino has been teaching dance for 60 years that her weight is less than her age. The 76-year-old tips the scales at a mere 74 pounds.

And yes, Gean is spelled with a G. "My name is the Italian Gina on my birth certificate, but my teachers called me Gean. They never changed the first letter."

Dentino leads Body Recall exercise classes at Miller Senior Center three mornings a week. On Thursdays, she puts senior dance students through their paces.

"All right now, let's try the butterfly position. There are six weight changes, hitch and strut." The box-dancing students follow her lead. When their feet get tangled up, she smiles and says, "Maybe we'd better go through that one again."

When Dentino was a little girl living in on Peoria's South Side (where Village Green now stands), her mother enrolled her and her sister, Rose, in Violette Holly's dancing school.

"Rose joined the Dorothy Byton Dancers and toured in vaudeville. They went all over, even to the Palace in New York," Dentino said. "Vaudeville died when movies came in, and Rose opened dance studios in Peoria and Pekin in 1932. I taught with her."

The Bradley University graduate also taught physical education and dance in Peoria School District 150 for 39 years, retiring in 1981 at age 65. After retiring, she substituted at Pekin Community High School for two years.

At age 76, Gean Dentino is one of the area's oldest dancing teachers. Here, she puts senior line dancers through their paces at Miller Senior Center in Pekin. Dentino says when she isn't teaching, she's learning new methods at national workshops and exhibitions.

"When I'm not teaching dancing, I'm getting ready to teach," she said.

"When I started at Roosevelt Junior High School in 1942 in physical education, the principal encouraged me to go to summer school and work on a major in the field. The first one I attended was at the University of California at Berkeley. I enjoyed it so much that I haven't missed summer sessions and workshops in physical education and dance ever since."

She attended the National Physical Education convention in Indianapolis and a clogging convention in Nashville in April. She taught line dancing at the Illinois Physical Education convention in Arlington Heights last November.

Every year, Dentino teaches at a women's sports workshop in Minnesota and leads line dancing and clogging at the Rocky Mountain Round-Up in Colorado.

Dentino became involved in modern square dancing and clogging in 1978. She is a member of two square dance clubs and leads round and line dances locally. She is a member of River Valley Cloggers and clogged at Silver Dollar City's Mountain Fo'ks Music Festival from 1986 to 1988.

Her list of honors includes the Quarter Century Club Award from the Illinois Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance for 25 years of teaching; Pekin YWCA Sports Achievement Award and Illinois Governor's Leadership Award in the area of senior health/physical fitness.

Dentino was named a Senior Olympic Celebrity by the Central Illinois Regional Senior Olympic Committee and attained emeritus membership in the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance.

How are her legs holding up through all those years of dancing?

"My legs are fine, but every five weeks I go to the chiroprapist so he can trim my calluses. There's a lot of pounding in dancing."

...neither heat, nor love bugs, nor hail storms, nor diaper rash, will keep us from our appointed rounds...

My daughter Katie McCullough has taken over the zipping, zoning, labeling and bagging of the Double Toe Times — no small job, believe me.

For the past few months, son-in-law Tony McCullough and 3½-year-old T.J. and 2-year-old Stephanie arrive here the evening before mailing day, to load the van. These little guys love dragging the bags from the living room to the garage door where Dad loads them.

Their reward? Big hugs and a purple Tootsie Pop!

Supreme Court rejects expanded music royalties

By Richard Carelli
Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court turned a deaf ear Monday to the music industry's pleas to get more money for the tunes you hear while shopping or watching cable TV.

The justices, without comment, rejected a pair of appeals by songwriters and music publishers seeking to expand their ability to collect royalties on their copyright.

In one case, the court let stand rulings that said retail stores don't violate federal copyright law by not paying to play radio broadcasts for the entertainment of customers.

In the other case, the court rejected arguments that said cable services and local cable operators should not get the same copyright-licensing breaks given for music played on radio and over-the-air television.

A copyright owner generally has the exclusive right to perform the copyright work publicly. But exceptions exist for certain performances, including playing a radio broadcast of the work "on a single receiving apparatus of a kind commonly used in a private home."

Playing a radio broadcast can become a copyright infringement, however, if a direct fee is charged or if the broadcast is "further transmitted to the public."

Broadcast Music Inc., a performing-rights organization that licenses the public performance of copyright musical compositions, sued two national retail chains over alleged copyright infringements.

One of the suits, filed in Chicago, alleged that Claire's Boutiques Inc. played BMI songs over loudspeakers in most of its stores. The suit said Claire's Boutiques had not obtained BMI's permission and had not paid a licensing fee.

A second suit, filed in St. Louis, raised the same allegations against Edison Brothers Stores Inc. Based in St. Louis, Edison Brothers owns a chain of about 2,500 retail clothing and shoe stores doing business as Chandlers, Jeans West, Fashion Conspiracy, J. Rig-gins, Bakers, the Wild Pair and others.

Federal trial judges threw out the suits, and the dismissals were upheld by federal appeals courts.

The appeal over music played on cable television was filed by the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), which also licenses public performances of the copyright music.

At issue was whether huge cable services such as Turner Broadcasting, the Disney Channel and MTV Networks and the thousands of local cable systems to which they supply programs must be given so-called blanket and per-program licenses to use copyright music.

CLOGGING ASSOCIATIONS

Missouri Clogging Council

Pat Hughes, Pres., 10/90-92
Route 2, Box 30A
Lockwood, MO 65682
(417) 232-4258

Founded 1982. Quarterly Publication: MCC News. Editor: Mary Miller, 3525 Howell Road, Oak Grove, MO 64075, (816) 229-1304.

MCC sponsors a spring and a fall workshop.

The Missouri Clogging Council, better known as the MCC, was officially organized in 1982.

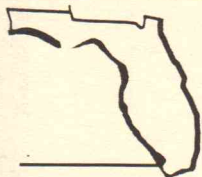

Its purpose is to provide communication between instructors and dancers in the state of Missouri.

Two workshops a year are held in spring and fall, each featuring a national instructor plus "Missouri's Own," along with seminars, critiques and exhibitions. They are held in different areas of the state to benefit as many dancers as possible.

The MCC sponsors a quarterly newsletter and discounts for members at the annual workshops. There are over 160 members in the Missouri Clogging Council. Membership and workshops are open to everyone in or out of state.

The election of Council officers is held every two years. An open business meeting is held at each workshop.

Missouri clogging has grown rapidly with three area competitions, and three major workshops, in addition to the MCC workshops. Missouri is a great place to visit and a fun place to clog!

The Florida Clogging Council

Sandy Redfern, Pres., 5/92-93
1312 Estridge Drive
Rockledge, FL 32955

F.C.C. sponsors the FCC State Convention in May and an Instructor's Clinic in January.

One of the oldest clogging associations in the nation, the F.C.C. has revised its by-laws over the years to meet the needs of today's clogging groups. All members may vote and/or hold office.

While the F.C.C. does not sponsor competitions, many members participate in competitions held throughout the State.

Instructors in Florida represent devotees of nearly every type of clogging from old-time square dance cloggers to modern line buck dancers. In addition to the two F.C.C. events are 20 or more workshops and competitions held in the state annually.

The New Mexico Clogging Assoc.

Chad Ricci, Pres., 1/92-93
NMCA P.O. Box 36785
Albuquerque, NM 87176

Founded 1985. Bi-monthly Publication: The New Mexico Clogger. Editor: Jerry Hornbuckle, NMCA P.O. Box 36785, Albuquerque, NM 87176.

During the past year NMCA membership has risen 30%. Anyone may join, vote and hold office. The Board consists of all officers plus a Past President.

NMCA's purpose is to promote clogging in New Mexico as a family recreational activity, to encourage communication among clogging groups and to foster new clogging clubs. NMCA hires a national instructor for the State Convention.

NMCA works with the State Fair and various civic organizations to provide clogging demonstrations and entertainment which, in turn, produces new dancers for the annual beginner classes in September.

N.W. Clogging Assoc.

Frank Phelps, Pres., 9/91-92
9003 43rd Place SW
Seattle, WA 98136

Founded 1988. Quarterly Publication: N.C.A. Newsletter. Editor: Cathy Chase, 1438 So. 96th, Tacoma, WA 98444, (206) 537-9297.

The Northwest Clogging Association sponsors a convention weekend in September each year.

NWCA is composed of dancers and instructors from Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Alaska and British Columbia (Canada).

Their purpose is to promote clogging in the Pacific Northwest through teaching, fellowship and social activities. Their officers must consist of three instructors and three non-instructors. They encourage networking among the clogging clubs and provide a forum for novice instructors and dancers.

While the NWCA does not sponsor competitions, there are indeed several competitions in the six-state area.
