Applejacks Appalachian Clog Dancers

By Nancy Brace, Avon, England

AVON ENGLAND — As one of only two English cousins registered in your magazine I thought it might be nice to let you know a little bit about Applejacks Appalachian Dancers — all the way over here in England.

My name is Nancy and I was first inspired to this fantastic (no that's not a spelling mistake!) form of dance at the age of 16 when a group called The Carolina Cloggers visited Sidmouth International Folklore Festival in 1976-77. I became a complete addict, sleeping on their hotel floor for four days as I lapped up any exposure I could, to this exciting revelation from the states. Having been involved in folk dance all my life I had never seen anything like the energy and life that was transmitted in the dance and was so challenged by the thumping rhythmic steps after years of docile English Country Dancing.

The Carolina Cloggers have never left my heart, I scoured the first issue of The Double Toe Times that I received to see if they continue to dance — it seems sadly not — and years later their inspiration has led me to form my own group here in England with a good friend — Julie.

Many teams here in England concentrate on the precision stepping that seems to have taken over in 'the old country' and we wanted very much to work from the square dance moves that are so intricate and communicative. There is a danger over here of the dancing becoming very insular and losing its excitement by not giving the audience a good time as well as enjoying the dancing. Not with Applejacks! We have been together now for two years and have now branched out into all styles, we still square dance with vigour but have added precision and line dancing to our repertoire. We have been lucky to link up with Special Edition from Georgia who send us dances on video and this has added a special dimension to our team.

One thing though guys, every month there is such exciting, tantalising dances published in your pages — but we cannot translate! Just what is a Utah Run, a Clogover Vine and a Broken Glass? Can anyone help me — all I want to do is dance and it is killing me to see all this on a page and not be able to put my feet into action.

Applejacks welcomes any contact with teams in the United States and we would be more than glad to hear from any teams or dancers who would like to take advantage of us, meanwhile, on both sides of the Atlantic, Keep Klogging!

Ninth F.C.C. Convention

By Rich Hedengren

ORLANDO, FLORIDA — The Florida Clogging Council recently held their Ninth Annual Florida State Clogging Convention May 28-29, 1993, at the Central Florida Fairgrounds in Orlando, Florida. The halls were alive to the theme of "Animation on Parade." Everywhere you looked you could see life-size cartoon characters clogging up a storm. "Storm" is a good word here because everyone was having such a good time inside, they hardly knew it was raining hard outside.

The facility was new for FCC and so were some of the faces. There were over 500 people attending this year and it was good to see old friends and new. Club banners, collages, Aladdin, Mickey Mouse and Garfield decorated the halls and made everyone feel like kids again. The biggest kids were the instructors who participated in the "relay race" on Saturday night dressed in their "Sunday Finest," or was it their worst? It was hard to tell!

FRONT & CENTER

Dear Readers,

There seems to be a country-western wind a blowin' through our clogging halls. For many years the Pirate's Ball in Central Florida had a "Two Step Hall" with some fine C/W instructors teaching their specialty. Their groups added a delightfully different dimension to the evening performances.

Nearly a year ago I had a conversation with Charlie Burns, Lexington, Kentucky. He stated that his hometown classes had dwindled in numbers so he advertised for country/western and clogging students and filled the place up again.

Naturally the country-western devotees tried their "feet" on clogging and vice versa.

The newest thing seems to be all line country-western dancing, which is just about what clogging has become too because of the overwhelming numbers of solo women in our dance classes.

I've recently heard about a number of instructors who are reluctant to allow country-western into their halls. Clogging has incorporated The Charleston, The Polka, The Waltz, Square Dancing and other dances, so it seems natural to add Country-Western in all its various forms. And make no mistake about it — it is BIG! (And — you might just lure some men into your classes!)

Eva McCubbin, Campellsville, Kentucky, has been teaching both clogging and country-western dancing for some time and was kind enough to send a huge folder of her favorites for The Double Toe Times. While the terminology is a bit different, these line routines are simple and repetitious. We hope more of you will send in some country-western routines!

Dear Bobbie,

I just wanted to drop you a note to let you know how much we enjoyed the Bear Went Over the Mountain Workshop. We all had a great time and are already looking forward to next year. I have enclosed some pictures you may be interested in.

I do want to apologize for missing the TAP seminar. I started out with good intentions, however, by 10:15 was hopelessly lost. I had been looking forward to attending and am sorry that I missed it.

Illinois Is Back On The Map!

By Diane Wrona, Naperville, Illinois

Only a small part of the crowd.

After several years of restructuring and some "new blood" for officers, the Illinois Prairie Clogging Association is proud to announce that we are back on the workshop circuit! When we were asked to hold a workshop in conjunction with a local bluegrass festival, we were not sure that we would have the resources, enthusiasm, and interest. The board sat down and decided that we should go ahead and try it since our goal was, and still is, to promote clogging in Illinois, keep it growing, and have fun. Several local workshops had been well attended and well received so we gave it our best shot. And what a workshop we had!

The workshop was held on March 26, 27, and 28, and March in Illinois being extremely unpredictable, we weren't sure whether we would have sun, rain, or a blizzard. We were fortunate that Mother Nature decided to be nice and give us sun and 60 degrees.

We were also fortunate that we were able to get Jeff Parrott to be our featured instructor as we are getting ourselves back on track. He did a GREAT job! He brought a good selection of rock and ccountry music for the different age groups, plus a lot of mixers and fun stuff for us to learn.

Everyone enjoyed learning some new arm turns, even when they got all tangled up. The best of the "fun stuff" was watching Jeff get his whipped cream pie in the face from Shelly Parrott, one of Jeff's "cousins" from the Heartland Cloggers of Peoria! Everyone I talked with said they had a wonderful time and encouraged us to do it again next year. Thank you Jeff, for a wonderful workshop and new beginning!

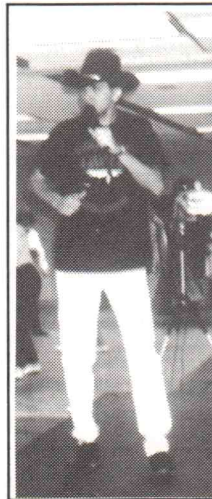

We had cloggers from all over the state of Illinois plus some guests from Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, and Missouri. Another big "Thank You" to everyone who attended. Next year we are hoping to attract guests from even more states as well as more from Illinois.

At right: everyone joins in for the "mixer".

Southern Tradition Express Cloggers — Host Team

Summer Clogging Spectacular

By Brenda Morrison, Abingdon, Virginia

On July the 10th, the mountains of Southwest Virginia echoed with the sounds of taps for the second annual "Summer Clogging Spectacular" at the Natural Tunnel State Park located in Duffield, Virginia. The clogging spectacular is coordinated by myself and hosted by the Southern Tradition Express Cloggers from East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia.

Even though it was one of the hottest weekends — with the temperatures in the upper 90's — it didn't seem to effect the enthusiasm of the cloggers or the crowd as five of the best clogging teams in the area performed.

This year's lineup included the host team "Southern Tradition Express Cloggers and the Apple Dumplin Delite Cloggers" with members from East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia and directed by Brenda Morrison, the Virginia Sugarcane Cloggers from Southwest Virginia and directed by Anna Breeding, the Trainstation Cloggers from Bristol, Tennessee and directed by Carolyn Jarrell, the Southern Pride and Heart of Dixie Cloggers from Rural Retreat, Virginia and directed by Dana Suthers, and the Blue Ridge Mountain Cloggers from East Tennessee, Southwest Virginia and Western North Carolina directed by Brenda Morrison closed the show.

The event focuses on local teams from East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia joining together for an afternoon of good-time fellowship and clogging.

Barbara Shoda and Naomi Fleetwood

The articles in the past issues of Double Toe Times on "How To Plan A Workshop" served as a great aid in preparation for our special event. It was a lot of work and worry, but everything went very smoothly thanks to the many club members who volunteered their energy and time. Thank you club members.

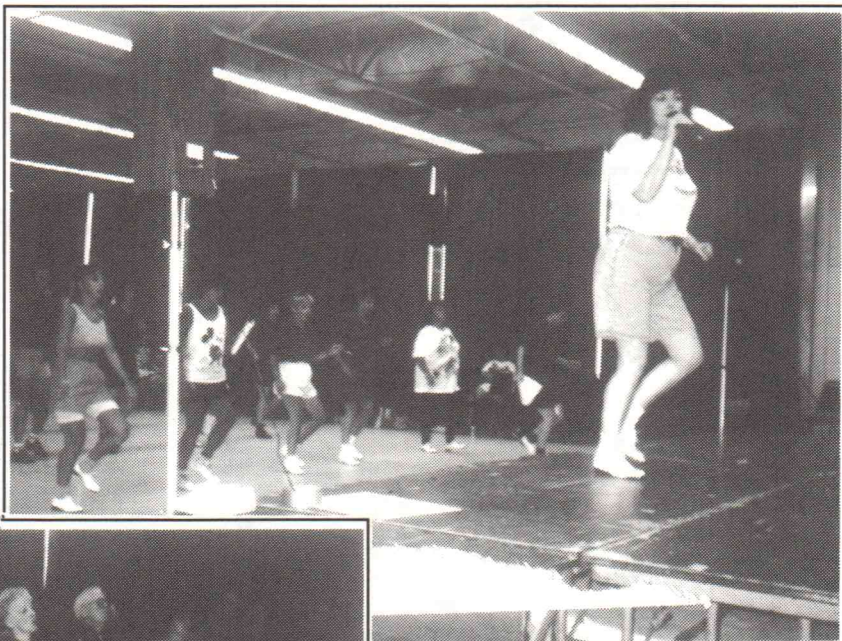

"Naomi Fleetwood Was Here"

By Barbara Shoda

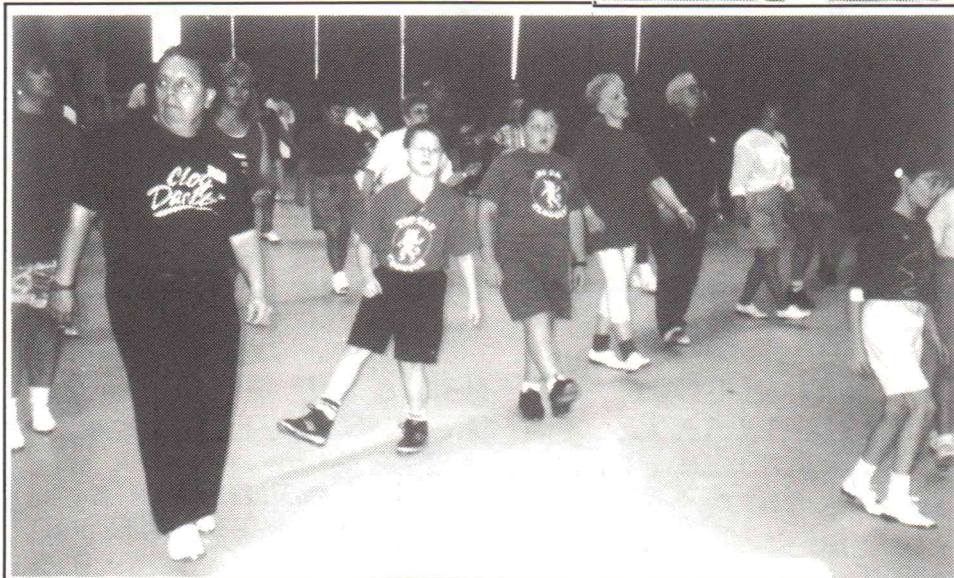

On July 17 Clickety Cloggers, Cleveland, Ohio, held their first workshop with dynamic international instructor Naomi Fleetwood. It was a full day — filled with fun, learning new routines, dancing to our old favorites, demos, making new clogging friends, and listening to Naomi sing (no extra charge). Naomi taught routines to Romeo, Cleopatra, Help I'm White, Cold Budweiser and Sweet Tater, Tell Me About It, and The Old Man's Back in Town.

If you've ever been to a workshop with Naomi as instructor I know that you will appreciate her teaching, because her routines, music choices, and levels of dancing are so varied. There will always be something for you to enjoy. And you will probably be laughing a lot too at the theatrics she interjects throughout the day.

As a local instructor, it was good experience for me to share the stage with Naomi, and to teach the three new routines I had choreographed to G Bop, I'm Gonna Wear the Pants, and Chattahoochee.

Naomi sings as she teaches.

It was sad for the day to come to an end. Time to put away the music and clean up the hall. But Naomi wouldn't let us go until we "Did Our Laundry". So we huddled close together to throw our dirty clothes into the washer, agitate, and spin, and to hang our fond memories of this day on the line for a long time.

Cloggers kick up their heels to Cleopatra.

Step In Time

"Until now, I had decided that there were no clogging publications with enough cue-sheets for me . . . THIS ONE CHANGED MY MIND!"

There's something for everyone in STEP IN TIME.

Every issue has "published routines" that cover a wide range of dancer skill level and interest. Whether you are a beginner or accomplished clogger, STEP IN TIME is the fastest, easiest way to find new sources of material. Pages of cue sheets from across the nation, new steps, a complete step reference, upcoming events, and editorials related to choreography will be yours in each and every issue.

STEP IN TIME breaks down the process of gathering new material into a cost-saving quarterly publication just for YOU. It will get your taps in motion and very soon you, too, will be sending in your routines to be published and enjoyed by cloggers throughout the country!

YES! I want to receive my own quarterly subscription to the STEP IN TIME. Enclosed is my check for $12.00/year, made payable to:

Clogging News from Belgium

By Ingrid Toussaint-Adriaenssen, Clogging Instructor
All Seasons Cloggers and Clogging Group Antverpia

During the first weekend of July, our square dance club the All Seasons Dancers welcomed over 850 dancers in Antwerp for the SUMMER JAMBOREE '93. This square dance jamboree is one of the four events organized by EAASDC each year and is hosted by one of the member clubs. Over the last years clogging has become (a small) part of the program, so these jamborees are now one of the few opportunities to learn new dances and get together with other cloggers.

On Saturday afternoon Alex Schell lead a wonderful workshop with a routine to Locomotion. On Sunday morning we had two hours with just dancing. This was a great opportunity to meet other cloggers and clogging instructors and share a lot of information.

My husband and I are planning to travel to Canada and the States for about three weeks in 1994 starting with the Canadian National Square and Round Dance Convention in July '94. Of course, I hope we will meet cloggers and dance (square-round-clog) whenever possible.

Cloggers from Germany, Netherlands, Belgium.

Jeff Parrott assists "Pie in the Face"!

F.C.C. Instructors

best ever. And how about those Special Spotlight Cloggers. If you've never seen these "special" people perform, you've really missed something. State convention would not be complete without them.

Pie anyone? Did someone see a pie go by? Rumor has it that someone got a pie in the face Saturday night. Is that what you get for being the winner in a drawing? Five hundred spectators thought it was pretty funny, but what about the recipient? Rumor also has it that she thought it was pretty tasty.

Anyway, she was a real good sport about it. Towel anyone?

The Florida Clogging Council has decided that the Central Florida Fairgrounds is their new home for state convention. The facility has everything a clogger could need — good floors, good acoustics and good air-conditioning. Add several hundred friends, tons of the right music, maybe a little more sunshine, and you have the perfect ingredients for a fun-filled weekend for the whole family.

The theme for 1994 is "Cruizin' Back to the 50's & 60's." Hope to see you there May 27-28, 1994.

Ten Commandments for Good Living

1. SPEAK TO PEOPLE... there is nothing so nice as a cheerful word of greeting
2. SMILE AT PEOPLE... it takes 72 muscles to frown, only 14 to smile.
3. CALL PEOPLE...
the sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his own name.
4. BE FRIENDLY...
and helpful. If you would have friends, be a friend.
5. BE CORDIAL...
speak and act as if everything you do is a genuine pleasure.
6. BE GENUINELY...
interested in people — you can like almost everybody if you try.
7. BE GENEROUS...
with praise — cautious with criticism.
8. BE CONSIDERATE... with the feelings of others — there are usually three sides to a controversy; yours, the other fellow's, and the right side.
9. BE ALERT...
to give service — what counts most in life is what we do for others.
10. ADD TO THIS...
a good sense of humour, a big dose of patience and a dash of humility, and you will be rewarded many-fold.

Safeguard Your Dancers and Friends!

By Dan Burr, Gorham, Maine

Imagine if you will a bright, sunny day at a fair or festival at which your team has performed. Everyone on the team is in good spirits as the performance was flawless. With another show to begin in a couple of hours, team members break up to enjoy the rides, do the food, maybe play some games until it's time to form up again.

At the appointed time, one teammate has failed to show up. Everyone saw her (or him) somewhere on the grounds, but not recently. Someone is sent to the security office to see what can be done to locate the missing dancer. Imagine the shock when the team learns that their teammate was abducted and seriously injured (or worse) between shows.

The reality of life in our society is that the above incident is all too possible. Our daily tribunes and media reports cite similar cases on a regular basis. But there are things that can be done to reduce the possibility of becoming a victim to such crime. One is learning to defend yourself.

On June 27th members of the Hickory Flat Express of Westbrook, Maine, participated in a self-defense workshop in Portland, Maine. The guest instructor, Jeffrey Lane, is Sensei of the Keichu-Do Karate School in Sanford, Maine. Keichu-Do is a martial art form which stresses methods of foiling an attack by disabling a perpetrator long enough for the victim to gain his or her release. Although the maneuvers can seriously injure, Keichu-Do stresses flight as the ultimate protection for the victim; the blows and application of force simply provide the element of surprise which an attacker does not expect. In that moment of quick response comes the opportunity to break free of the attacker's grip and the chance to run for help.

As with most martial arts, success in the execution of a maneuver is not dependent on the size of the individual. This workshop showed that even the youngest members of the team, with concerted effort, could administer an effective blow to the largest attacker. (It also showed that young ladies absolutely relish inflicting pain on older and larger folk, when the opportunity arises!) Jeff pointed out that things we normally carry with us, such as keys or combs, can become devastating weapons in foiling an attacker.

Members of the Express hope nothing dreadful befalls any of our clogging friends. The group offers the following suggestions in protecting dancers from harm:

TEACHER ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

KEEPING THE BOOKS

By Jeff Driggs

Many teachers and directors have shared with me their concerns and frustrations in regards to keeping the books on a team or club. As with most groups, all profit from the hard work of a few — especially when it comes to fund-raising. One team member's candy bar sales might pay for outfits for the whole team! Feelings get hurt and mumbling commences when team members who seldom make it to exhibitions share in the benefits of what little paid shows we do. In this article, I'll share with you a method I've used in many of the groups I've worked with, and have seen used with great success by many teachers and directors. The system works on an account basis and requires that the club or group have a member assigned to keeping the books and reporting to the club on a regular basis. Here's how it works.

1. The team keeps one bank account (as most groups do), but on paper each member has an account which details the amount of monies assigned to that dancer.

2. If a club or team asks for dues, each dancer's account is credited that amount each month. Dues monies are mainly for the purchase and upkeep of team equipment and supplies.

3. When the club has a paid exhibition, only those dancers who participate share the income in their accounts. Those who do not attend (for whatever reason) are not credited.

4. Fund-raising monies (like candy sales, etc.) are credited to the individual dancer. If you don't sell anything, you're credited nothing.

5. Sponsorship and grant monies are equally credited among all dancers.

6. If a vote is passed by the members to purchase new equipment, the cost of the equipment will draw equally from each dancer's account.

7. Costumes, competition entry fees, workshops fees, etc. are deducted from each person's individual account and paid for with one team check. If your account is not sufficient to cover your cost, you must reimburse the club that amount.

8. If a dancer quits or is released from the club or team, they are given payment for any share of monies earned through exhibitions or fund-raising on their part. All sponsor monies and grants remain property of the group and the leaving dancer's share is equally divided among the remaining members. Also, monies spent on team equipment and supplies are not reimbursable. If the team or club folds completely, the director may choose to purchase the equipment from the members and the money divided equally.

Shown below is a sample of what a team's accounting may look like for a given month. I hope this gives you some food for thought.

Illinois is Back

I also want to thank everyone who helped with the workshop as well as all the Illinois officers who gave Jeff a chance to rest by teaching in between Jeff's routines: Cindy Snoke and Diane Wrona, Randy Siegel, Andrea Greenan, Maxine Wallis and Nina Kramer. Thanks again!

The news that we were planning to have Jeff Parrott come in for the First Illini Classic Clogging Extravaganza in Champaign last March generated a lot of interest and encouraged some national instructors to try a workshop in central Illinois in January, the dead of winter. There was a great crowd and everyone had a good time. Many of those people also attended our workshop in March and had a FANTASTIC time! We had over 60 people preregister and over 40 people register at the door! The total surpassed our expectations and encouraged us for next year.

We are still deciding on an instructor for next year, but the dates are March 25, 26 and 27, 1994 at the Chancellor Hotel & Convention Center in Champaign, Illinois, in a larger room. If you couldn't make it this year, we hope you can make it next year because it will be even better, now that we have some experience behind us!

Clogging Step Dictionary

A Useful Reference Guide

This revised and updated 3rd Edition of N.C.C.A.'s Step Dictionary is a compilation of the 1st and 2nd Editions, first printed in 1984 and 1987, respectively.

This new version is a valuable reference guide for all dancers, instructors and choreographers.

This manual has over 2500 entries of steps collected from around the world. The steps are listed alphabetically, have cross references, beat counts, footwork and bar graphing for the more difficult steps.

To order your copy of the dictionary, fill out the form below and mail it with your check to:

Safeguard Your Dancers and Friends!

1. If possible, schedule multiple shows with perhaps no more than sixty minutes in between.

2. Never walk alone. The Express requires all dancers to stay in groups of no less than three. Depending on the age of the dancers, an adult chaperone may be required.

3. Carpooling reduces the likelihood of a dancer being alone in unfamiliar territory.

4. Always be aware of your surroundings. Make a mental note of anything at hand which might serve as a weapon should you need one. Seemingly harmless things like keys, pencils and aerosol cans can be effectively used in saving your life.

5. Never enter an area which does not have a second means of exit. If you must, then post a guardian at the exit to monitor your activities.

6. Dancers, especially younger ones, should report back to their instructors or other appointed adults at fifteen minute intervals or after each activity. Further, they should let the adults know where they are headed next.

7. Instructors should not tolerate any violations of the above. The one time you overlook a violation might be the one time an attacker succeeds.

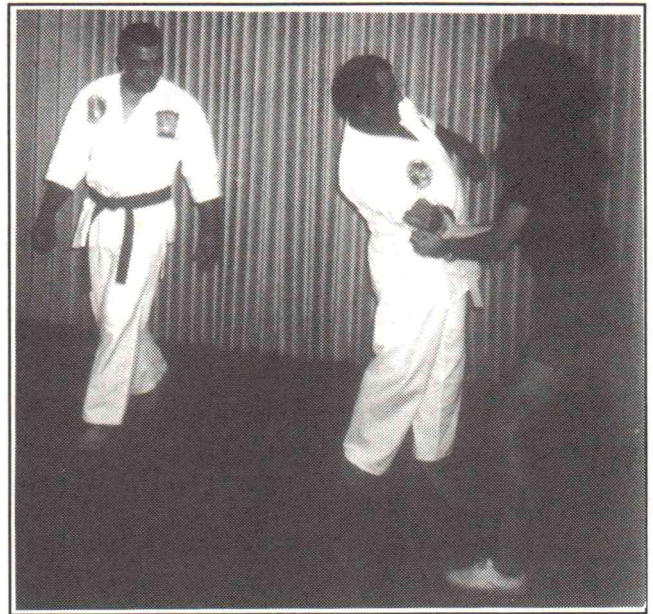

8. Encourage your dancers to approach security personnel or their parents and instructors any time they see something suspicious or have witnessed a potentially dangerous encounter to themselves or unto another.

9. Dancers should be discouraged from talking to strangers.

10. Remember, an attacker means to harm you. Do not be docile in fighting back; your very life may be in the balance.

Editor's Addendum: The local papers (here in Orlando), with increasing frequency, have made much of muggings, robbery, rape and even murder of tourists in our resort hotels. Many of our conventions and workshops are held in hotels and convention centers in downtown areas of cities which, with the advent of suburban malls, have become run down, high-crime locations. It is startling to see homeless sleeping in doorways adjacent to your hotel! Don's article is very timely!

— Bobbie Adams

Bethany Kidder neutralizes an attacker while another manuevers for a strike.

Nikki Stalling foils the attack of her instructor while Kelly Fowler looks on.

Nikki Stalling brings down Dan Burr with well-placed blows to the forearms.
