ACHF Spring Workshop

By: Lou Maiuri, Workshop Chairman

Gwen Drake and Mark Clifford, Solo Grand Champion winners and ACHF President Earl Powell

I really want to thank everyone who came out and supported the ACHF Spring Workshop. A special thank you goes to the Instructors who so graciously donated their time and talents to help make it a successful event. Approximately 300 to 400 people attended the workshop. The dance floor was full at every session.

There were two new faces on the workshop team this year. The first was Jim Loveless from Mechanicsville, Maryland, Director of The Guys and Dolls Cloggers, who taught smooth mountain square dancing. Jim did a wonderful job. The second was Christine Morris from Granville, Ohio, who taught Appalachian style flatfoot dancing. Christine did a great job and was well accepted by all. We hope that she will be able to join us again next year.

The Drigger did his usual outstanding job and has promised to be back next year. Sonja Wiseman did a fine job teaching steps and western line. The Traditional Instructors were Bob Johnson, Elliott Skeen and myself. I want to tell you that we had a great time. I was really impressed with the number of young folks that took part in this portion of the workshop.

This year we had more square dances during the day than we had in past years and everybody seemed to enjoy this. We had seven callers passing the mike from one to the other. This was a real treat for the dancers, they had an opportunity to hear seven different styles of calling and patter in one dance. I thought it was terrific.

Fiesta At Nickel City

By: Elaine Brock

Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, West Seneca, New York

"Fiesta"

On a bright, crisp Spring weekend, another wonderful "Nickel City" entered the pages of clogging history. April 18th launched the 11th annual Nickel City Festival, which was held at the Holiday Inn on Grand Island, New York, overlooking our mighty Niagara River, a stone's throw from the splendor of the American and Canadian Niagara Falls. It was that time of the year when the lake ice floats down the river and over the falls, and Scotty Bilz kept checking to see if he could spot a couple of penguins hitching a ride. I don't think we're that far North, Scotty!

This weekend was a superb workshop with our featured instructors Sallie Adkins, Scotty Bilz, Charlie Burns, Jeff Driggs, Darl Moreland, Steve Smith, and Ship Woodall, who all received a warm Western New York welcome, and our own WNYCA instructors Shirley and Jim Andrews, Darl Burl, Susan Coil, Norm Gelster, Adam Mowrey, Sharon Pine, Rick Smith, Cheri Traux and Linda Vaadi. We consider ourselves very lucky to have had such a strong line-up of talented instructors who all gave of their time and talent to present many new and entertaining routines. Commenting on the workshop, Charlie Burns remarked, "It's just great—everything ran so smoothly—it almost runs itself. It's the greatest show on earth!"

Friday night brought a great turnout of enthusiastic cloggers (enough to fill two halls!) for fun dances, mixers, teaches, and requests which filled the evening hours and made them pass all too quickly. These trail-in get-togethers gave us the opportunity to meet and talk with the instructors and visit with many old and new clogging friends. A highlight of the evening was the presentation of a "Thanks for Everything" cake to Sallie Adkins, Charlie Burns and Steve Smith for all the support we've received from them over the past 10 years

Do not rely on me to call you when your Directory is up for renewal. You get two notifications—one is a red stamp on your last issue that states, "YOUR DIRECTORY LISTING EXPIRES WITH THIS ISSUE. RENEW TODAY." The second is a courtesy bill. If you do not wish to renew, we'd be grateful if you'd just write Not Renewing across the bill and send it back to us. I've had most folks say they like the automatic bill. A few were furious that I'd sent it, and to them I say, "come walk a day in my moccasins."

August Editorial

My dear friends,

In mid-April, I had my annual physical and my doctor badgered me into getting my first mammogram (I'm 62!). Breast cancer does not occur in the women in my family I smugly assured myself.

I guess you can see where this is going. I had a modified radical mastectomy on July 11, 1997. The biopsies on 9 lymph nodes are all NEGATIVE, and edges are clear and clean. I have one more meeting with the oncologist to determine whether chemotherapy is to be done. I feel great!

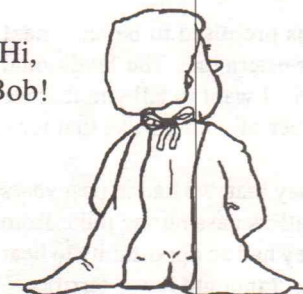

The reason I am sharing this with you is that a few days before my surgery, The Texas Clogger arrived. Editor Bob Feingold had undergone cancer surgery and indicated that his recuperation had taken much longer than the two weeks the doctor predicted. (Bob bemoaned the fact that his summer issue of The Texas Clogger was late.)

I, too, have always tried to meet my news deadlines. This issue was nearly done by July 10, but I decided to wait and do the Editorial afterwards.

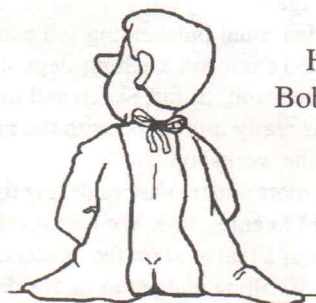

There are a few who subscribe to this paper who are not my friends and who I'm sure wish me ill. To them, I snap my fingers—ya' don't get me so easy. Not this time.

To those who said a prayer or wished me well—thank you from the bottom of my heart. I called Bob and we swapped war stories. Until then I hadn't decided whether to share this with you all. But, if this will convince one person who has been pushing aside their health until "another time" to get in there and get their physical, DO IT NOW!

Crescent City Cloggers Visit Epcot

By: Lynnette Rock, Metairie, Louisiana

In January, I received a letter from the Walt Disney Company stating that we have been invited to perform in Epcot for their 25th anniversary celebration over Memorial weekend. I was so thrilled that I called my performing team members and told each one of them.

We started preparing for the upcoming performance immediately. I started getting a count of the dancers and family members that would be traveling to Orlando. I then started the hotel search. After two weeks, I finally squared away all of the hotel and ticket arrangements.

We then decided on what routines we wanted to perform. We had grueling practices that involved relearning routines, learning a new routine, going over steps, and obtaining precision.

In between the practices, we also worked on making costumes for those members that needed them. We had to make sure that everyone's costume was consistent and in good shape.

Finally, it was time to go to Florida. Some the members flew down a few days before in order to play in some of the parks. I thought our show was all together, but I found out two days before the performance that one of my dancers had emergency surgery and couldn't make it. I then had to change the line up for the routines to accommodate this change. We didn't have any practices scheduled while in Florida so I couldn't tell my team the changes ahead of time.

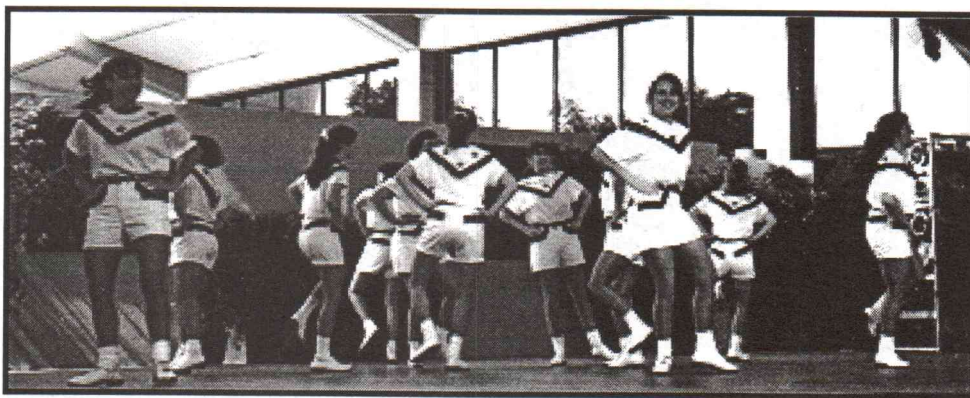

When Sunday came, we had to collect everyone's costumes and load them into the vehicles that morning. We went to Epcot and played in the park a few hours before our show. At 2:00 p.m., I had to move our vehicles to the staging area for the performance. I met my team in the designated area in Epcot and we all went backstage. We all had to get dressed in our costumes, go over the new line-up for the routines and show within 45 minutes. We then loaded into our vehicles and drove down to the drop off point. From there, we lined up and entered the park. We walked through some of the park waving and meeting people. We made our way to the Future World Stage and entered the backstage. We quickly went over the line-ups again and got ready for show. Within 10 minutes, we were on stage. We danced 5 routines and gave a demonstration of the types of clogging. We danced two precision hoe-downs, two partner dances, and one line dance. The further we got into our show, the bigger the audience became. We had numerous video cameras taping our show, people clapping to the music, and people cheering us on. By time we danced the final number, we had a huge audience that consisted of people from all over the world!

After our final bow, we went backstage to meet our Disney coordinators. She stated we did a great job, and that our show was enjoyable. She stated our show was very educational because she had no idea what clogging was, where it originated from, the types, or what kind of music it is danced to. She then told us that we were the very first clogging group to ever perform in Epcot. I then got to sign the wall backstage showing that we performed there.

After the performance, we walked back through the park waving and meeting people again. We then were transported back to the staging area. The Disney coordinator presented us with a Disney plaque thanking us for our participation in the 25th anniversary celebration. She also presented us with commemorative T-shirts and pins for all the dancers. She told us she was very impressed with our dancing and would love for us to come back!!

We then changed out of our costumes, loaded everything into the vehicles, moved the vehicles and went back into the park to play.

The trip was a very exciting opportunity for us. We had the opportunity to visit the Magic Kingdom, Epcot, MGM Studios, Universal Studios and Blizzard Beach. But, most importantly, we had the chance to introduce clogging to individuals from all over the world that had never encountered it before. We really enjoyed it, and we look forward to planning our next trip there!

Author's Note

In May 1789, Louis XVI summoned to Versailles a full meeting of the "Estates General."

The First Estate consisted of three hundred nobles.

The Second Estate, three hundred clergy.

The Third Estate, six hundred commoners.

Some years later, after the French Revolution, Edmund Burke, looking up at the Press Gallery of the House of Commons, said, "Yonder sits the Fourth Estate, and they are more important than them all."

All of the comments that have been received this year have been good. The only negative comment was that the workshop was not long enough. I have some ideas that may help that next year.

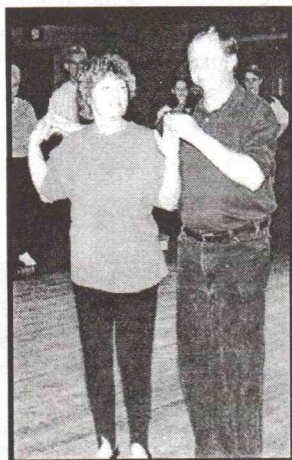

Approximately 100 dancers entered the solo competition. The Grand Champion solo winners were Gwen Drake and Mark Clifford.

Jimmy Hill was the old time dance winner. The judges for the solo competition were Lib Mills, Jeff Driggs and Lou Maiuri.

Thanks again to everyone who joined us for this fantastic workshop. Hope to see you again next year!

for our Nickel City Festival. We really appreciate these fantastic individuals and consider them "W.N.Y. adoptees!" Finally, a well attended pool party concluded the evening.

Saturday morning welcomed approximately 500 dancers plus visitors, who quickly filled the five separate halls covering all levels of classes from basic to advanced and country footing techniques from Steve Smith, old time figures from Jeff Driggs, precision-open formations from Scotty Bilz, and freestyling from Charlie Burns, plus much more. A wide variety of dances were available to choose from to please everyone's taste, level and style.

Of course, again this year, the pool, hot tub, and sauna were available all day and evening for those who felt the need to "cool off" or soothe those "aching feet!"

Commenting on the workshop, Jeff Driggs stated that Nickel City is one of the best run workshops in the country, and the Western New York area dancers are extremely enthusiastic. Scotty Bilz was very impressed with the warm feedback (despite the cool spring weather!) from everyone, and stated, "I like Nickel City because of the class participation—everyone interacts so easily during and after the teaches!"

The highlight of the weekend was the presentation of our clogging show extravaganza, "Fiesta," featuring a cast of 18 clogging groups comprising over 190 dancers from all parts of the U.S. and Canada. Saturday evening, a sold out dinner show presentation took place in the festivity decorated ballroom, and a "show only" presentation followed with over 300 spectators attending each show. Thanks to the creative directorship and talent of Chip Woodall, who coordinated all the routines, the finale, and tucked in all the "loose ends," and the "behind the scenes" work of Cheri Truax, the production coordinator, everything came together and the show as a huge success. Chip was impressed with all the hard work put into the organization of, and the anticipation of the festival, the progress of dance ability shown, and finally, the fun everyone had!

An impressive display of talent was exhibited by all the participating groups; Backwoods Cloggers, Black Mountain Cloggers, Cambridge Connection, Can-Am Cloggers, Canfield Clogging Company, Country Rock Cloggers, Country Club

Cloggers, Explosive Image, Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Krazy Kanuck Cloggers, Liberty Cloggers, Northern Explosion and Hickory Creek Cloggers, Spa Country Cloggers, Wyoming County 4H Cloggers, Still Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Tonawanda Cloghoppers, The Outlaw Cloggers, and Janae Longo, vocalist. Lots of friendships were made in a weekend of lots of rehearsals and lots of practice, and we loved every minute of it. Our audience was enthusiastic and well entertained, and special thanks goes out to all the groups for a job well done!

Our 11th Annual Nickel City Festival was a smashing success. As Sally Adkins remarked, "You think it can't get any better than this, and it did!" We want to especially thank Ken and Linda Haley, our founding couple of Western New York Cloggers Association, all the WNYCA officers and directors, club representatives and members, and all the volunteers who worked so hard to make "Fiesta" and this wonderful weekend a reality. Also, we would like to thank all the Festival instructors for their cheerful support and all the excellent routines that were taught. We've had so much fun, we're going to do it again next year. Our big 12th Nickel City Festival will be held April 17th and 18th, 1998, again at the Holiday Inn on Grand Island. Here's hoping to have many of you join us!

South Carolina Clogging Council 1997 Annual Workshop / Competition

By: Dianne Loftin, President SCCC

The South Carolina Clogging Council held it's annual Stampede on March 15 and 16, 1997, in Aiken, South Carolina, hosted by the Southland Express Cloggers, directed by Terry Anderson. Saturday the workshop started at 9:00 a.m. with more than 200 cloggers in attendance. Dances were taught by Mercy Martinez, Chip Summey and Monica White along with our guest instructors Crystal Loftin, Gwen Drake and Cindy Pryor. Tips on solos and a jazz routine were also taught at the workshop. Everyone had a lot of fun and enjoyed learning these new dances. The workshop ended at 4:00 p.m. Competition began at 5:30 p.m. and all the teams were ready to start competing. The competition began with the announcement of the Palmetto's Finest dancers of 1997. They were Mandy Austin of Corner Cloggers, Arnie Toole of Southland Express Cloggers, Chaunte McLean of Sassy Stompers, Ashley Huggins, of Corner Cloggers, Gwen Drake of Southern Junction Cloggers, Kristle Argo of Southland Express Cloggers, Amanda Lail of Carolina Gold Cloggers and Megan Metts of Corner Cloggers. They performed to Reel Around The Sun off the sound track Riverdance which they learned that day in only 4 hours, choreographed by Terry Anderson. During the dance they were joined by the 1996 Palmetto's Finest dancers that were in attendance

Bluefields and Hotfoot

By Claire Rudd & Nick Pilley, United Kingdom

Dear Bobbie,

I've recently joined a second Appalachian team—we're blessed with having a number within a 30 mile radius—in fact, I was “foot-hunted” by Bluefields. They are a small team who have been going for about 2 years and dance in a fairly traditional style. I have enclosed a copy of a photograph for your amusement, taken before I joined. We now have eight dancers and a “pool” of four musicians, Nick having added his mandolin to their two fiddles and a banjo.

We take our name from the fields of blue flowered flax grown locally and it is believed that the Dorset and Somerset emigrants to the Appalachians grew it there too. Bluefields are more pro-active than many of the local teams and have managed to stick their noses in (should that be feet?) to a number of the smaller festivals in the southwest. We are booked to display outside the South Bank complex in London in August and—if all goes according to plan—to pay a visit to Prague in October to help fill-in for an abandoned folk dance festival. No doubt we'll be able to supply you with a report.

As the emphasis behind “precision” clogging has changed, there is a growing movement over here to call the more traditional styles used by many UK teams “American Folk Clogging”. Hopefully that is a description that is understandable. Terminology changes quickly, especially when you're 3,000 miles from its source.

From that point of view, it was very interesting to read the review of the Mars Hill Workshops (oh, to have been there!) which sounded like they were rather like what we're used to, only on a grander scale. We've had visits from Ira and Footworks in the past year which we appreciate greatly for their skills, enthusiasm and patience!

Is there any possibility of publishing a “key” to the symbols and abbreviations used on your dance notations, for those of us who are not exposed to them normally, they are fairly incomprehensible. Although by and large, we would use step names similar to Ira and Eileen, matching the abbreviations to names is seriously hard work and could well be very misleading.

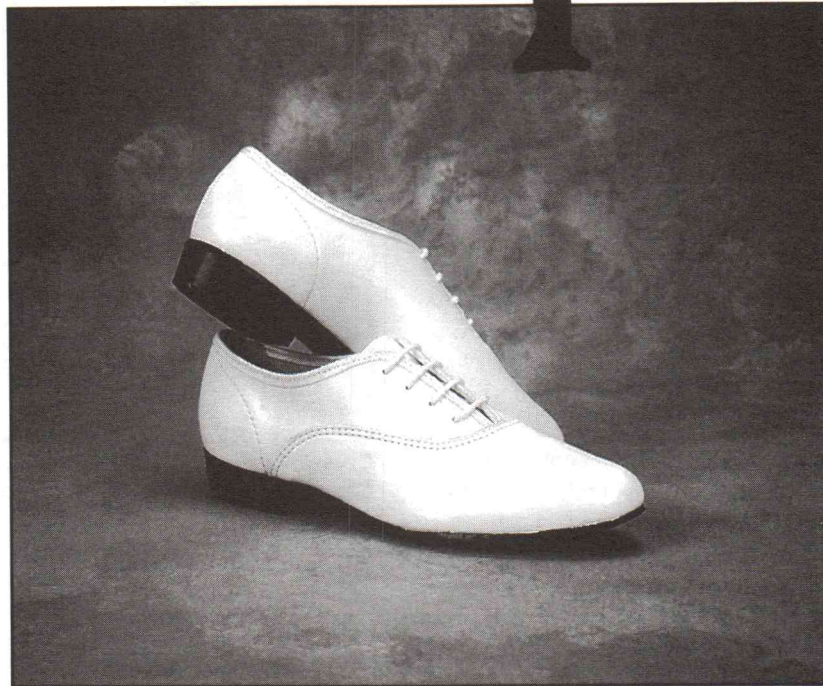

May we make use of your magazine to say “hi” to those of your readers we've spoken to on the phone and also met at festivals here. No doubt there will be others and long may it be so.

*Best wishes,
Claire Rudd and Nick Pilley*
