The 1997 Miss American Clogger Pageant

By Simone Pace, Innman, South Carolina

Simone Pace with Incoming Queen Dawn Duncan and Outgoing Queen Julianne Lees

Spartanburg, South Carolina, 33 Beautiful & talented contestants from: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Minnesota, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina & Virginia came together on July 10th to 12th to compete for the 8th annual title of Miss American Clogger.

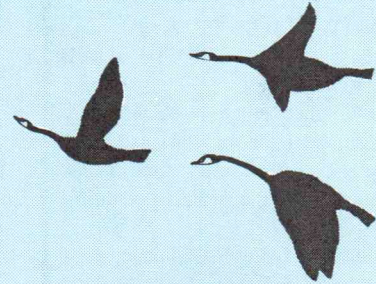

Contestants arrived on Thursday morning for orientation and a long day of rehearsals. Pageant business manager former Miss American Clogger Sandra Thomas and former queen Sandy Southard put the contestants through their paces and they practice their opening number to "Ride the Train" by the Quad City DJs. The contestants were treated to a great meal by Fatz café located across from the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg,

Friday begins the grueling day of interviews and the first half of the pageant. A kink happens when we arrive at the theater and realize they are not ready for us. The sound system has been hit by lightning and we go through the first half of the pageant with no stage monitor. The contestants handle all these challenges like professionals and you would never know they felt any pressure or stress. They just dealt with it and went on. (The parents are the ones who had the heart attacks!)

My Heart Knows Where the Wild Goose Goes...

Reprinted from Footnotes,
Volume 48, Number 1, September 1997

Fact 1: As each goose flaps its wings, it creates an "uplift" for the birds that follow. By flying in a "V" formation, the whole flock adds 71% greater flying range than if each bird flew alone.

Lesson 1: People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they are going quicker and easier because they are traveling on the thrust of one another.

Fact 2: When a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of flying alone. It quickly moves back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front of it.

Lesson 2: If we have as much sense as a goose, we stay in formation with those headed where we want to go. We are willing to accept their help and give our help to them.

Fact 3: When the lead goose tires, it rotates back into the formation and another goose flies to the point position.

Lesson 3: It pays to take turns doing the hard tasks and sharing leadership. As with geese, people are interdependent on each other's skills, capabilities and unique arrangements of gifts, talents and resources.

Fact 4: The geese flying in formation honk to encourage those up front to keep up their speed.

Lesson 4: We need to make sure our honking is encouraging. In groups where there is encouragement, the production is much greater. The power of encouragement is the quality of honking we seek.

Fact 5: When a goose gets sick, wounded or shot down, two geese drop out of formation and follow it down to help and protect it. They stay with it until it dies or is able to fly again. Then, they launch out with another formation or catch up with the flock.

Lesson 5: If we have as much sense as geese, we will stand by each other in difficult times as well as when we are strong.

Front and Center

I Asked

I asked God for strength, that I might achieve.

I was made weak,
that I might learn to humbly obey...

I asked for health,
that I might do greater things.

I was given infirmity,
that I might to better things...

I asked for riches
That I might be happy.

I was given poverty
That I might be wise...

I asked for power,
that I might have the praise of men.
I was given weakness,
that I might feel the need of God...

I asked for all things,
that I might enjoy life.
I was given life,
that I might enjoy all things...

I got nothing I asked for—but everything that I had hoped for.
Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were unanswered.

I am, among all, most richly blessed!

The following tribute was printed in an excellent monthly newsletter called "The Tap Rap" for the Conejo Valley Cloggers of Thousand Oaks, California. Every instructor who reads this will probably sigh, "Amen!"

Neither rain nor snow nor sleet

by Ronnie Franklin

It occurred to me tonight, as I was clogging with my fellow Conejo Valley Cloggers, that I wouldn't be dancing, chatting, laughing, and having fun every Monday night if not for one very special person—our clogging instructor—Julie Morris. As a participant, I have to option of going to class or staying home if I have other commitments, a cold, sore feet, or just feel tired or lazy.

Not so for Julie! I've watched her feet move in front of me when they needed to be home in slippers instead of in old Goebel Center in tap shoes. I've seen her with a cold, sore throat, (quite a trick for a teacher), flu and jet lag, doing her thing so that we could do ours.

To Julie and all the dedicated clogging instructors out there—"Thank you" for the "feat" you perform for my "feet" every week. I am clogged up with gratitude.

Clark County Square Dance Center Vancouver, Washington

(Reprinted from October 1997 Footnotes Published by the Square and Folk Dance Federation of Washington)

We are all saddened by the collapse of the Clark County Square Dance roof on Thursday, August 14th. Due to a malfunction in the security system, Edye Even's clogging class was delayed in commencing on time. Strange creaking and popping noises prompted Bob, Edye's husband, to check the source of the noise, the roof was beginning to buckle and he alerted his wife to evacuate the building immediately—moments later the roof inverted onto the dance floor—all 25 participants safely outdoors. Had the music been playing—the noises and the popping would not have been heard by the many more who were expected an hour later for their clogging class. The two ends remained standing—a few chairs and tables at the entrance end were lost.

Many thanks to the volunteer dancers, shareholders and friends who assisted in moving and storing the properties from the dance center.

In the meantime, the many groups that were scheduled at the center have been scrambling to find space elsewhere for lessons and events.

18th Annual Suncoast Jamboree

By: Evon Johnson

The 18th Annual Suncoast Jamboree was held August 14th to 16th in Daytona Beach. Thursday evenings fun dance at the Adam's Mark kicked off our weekend festivities! There were no workshop teaches, just requests for fun dances, clogging and country western line dances. Tandy Barrett presented a real cuts fun activity—all participants had a ball especially Debi Dillow who never gave up! There were definitely some high energy dancers because some of them rarely left the dance floor.

We opened the workshops at the Ocean Center at 10:30 a.m. on Friday morning with two halls open—clogging and country western line. Our Friday workshops are limited to the easy intermediate/intermediate level. The Friday evening workshops were interrupted with a country western line dance "fun" contest. This really is a "fun" contest.

The contest dance was Uno, Dos, Tres taught by Debi Dillow. Incidentally no instructors, clogging or country western line, are allowed to participate. The judges were Tandy Barrett, Ronnie Doggett Naomi Fleetwood, Sallie Adkins, Dieter Brown & Dee Gallina.

The contestants were judged on knowledge of original choreo, creativity of dance, rhythm and style of dancer and entertainment ability and smile.

The winners were: 1st place, Kenny Wood, Jacksonville Footwork. Kenny received a $25.00 cash prize and a plaque. 2nd place, Dawn Johnson, The Foxworth Talent Theatre. This contest is a real crowd pleaser!

Our second special event of Friday evening was a demonstration by Ira Bernstein. Ira is a world renown master teacher of percussive dance. Ira was in authentic costume, played his fiddle and gave us the historical background of these dances. His demonstration was truly inspiring. He had a captive audience. Everyone was in awe of his knowledge and talent. He imparted to everyone the importance of learning about the beginnings and our heritage of clogging. We should be proud Ira is preserving these traditional dances. His Saturday workshops on Irish Step dancing and flatfooting were well attended and received.

We also had a Teen Challenge '97 clogging hall on Saturday afternoon. There was such a tremendous response from the instructors regarding this opportunity. For 1997 we had so many candidates, we had to turn some down because of lack of space. These teens are the clogging instructors of tomorrow. We are really blessed when we have young people who want to learn and in turn want to teach others clogging. This is the way an American Clogging Tradition survives. Any instructor/director who wishes to submit a candidate for teen challenge, please do so in writing. We have three openings. Please write a paragraph about the candidate and why you believe he/she will make a good clogging instructor of the future. Candidates must be 13-19 years of age.

The big questions of the workshops were was, "Where is Jeff? Why isn't he here!" Well, Jeff was in Kentucky with Emily waiting on the birth of their first child. It was a girl! Hannah Rose Parrott. Hannah was born on Sunday, August 17, 1997. Congratulations Jeff & Emily!

Saturday evening at the Peabody was a sheer joy to watch. The show spectacular "Pippi Longstocking's Adventures" was just that—spectacular! The cast was talented and just plain terrific. It was immensely enjoyed by everyone. The exhibitions were superb. The quality of all the exhibitions has risen in the past couple of years and it definitely shows. They were enjoyable to watch and not in the least boring. We had one little potential clogger who was on stage with the Cloggin' Robins. His name was Donald Hutcheson. He was a year a half old. He stole their exhibition. I know all eyes were on him. Since he didn't qualify for the "Youngest Exhibiting Clogger" plaque, Sally made an exception and had a plaque made for him—"The Cutest Little Scene Stealer" award. He was just as enchanting when I watched the video of the show and exhibitions again last week.

If anyone wishes to order a tape of the 1997 Suncoast Jamboree show and exhibitions, please call First Coast V.I.P. at (904) 745-8501 or call our office at (904) 642-4222.

The plaque winners for 1997 were: Individual Clogger Traveling The Longest Distance - Pauline Elliott, Colonial Cloggers, South Australia. We were happy to have Pauline and her husband with us this year; Exhibiting Group Traveling the Longest Distance - Sudden Impact, Spanish Fort, Alabama, under the direction of Kyle Kirkland; Largest Exhibiting Group - Jacksonville Footwork, Jacksonville, Florida, under the direction of Tony and Debi Dillow; Oldest Exhibiting Clogger - Lucille Corby, Jacksonville Footwork, Jacksonville, Florida, under the direction of Tony and Debi Dillow; Youngest Exhibiting Clogger - Alexia Mahan, K.A.T.S. Kloggers, Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, under the direction of Michelle Mahan.

The Jamboree dates for next year will be August 13-15, 1997. We are currently negotiating for hotels for next year. We are planning an entirely different Thursday evening dance. It should be a winner! Mark your calendars and make your plans now to be in Daytona Beach, Florida. Look for new flyers soon! IT'S THE PLACE TO BE!

The 33 beautiful contestants

Saturday is an easier day with only the second half of the pageant to go. The contestants have a great time meeting new friends and giving each other gifts that they had made themselves. Awards breakfast on Saturday morning was very interesting - the hotel wasn't quite prepared for us, so guess who got to be a waitress Simone - what fun NOT!!! We try and try to make things go smoothly but it seems there are always a few kinks in the program!

We had a record number of scholarships & prize donations this year. A Special thank you to these sponsors & scholarship donors for the pageant: Carl's Clogging Supplies, Stevens Worldwide, Dollywood, Dieter Brown & Steve Lanning, Lynne Ogle, Chip Summey, David Spencer, Tenni Sparkles, Sandra Thomas, Fonda Hill, the Midwest Clogging Workshop & competition, Yvonne Morrison - Image Apparel & Marketing, Dee Gallina, Suzie Q Creations, P & H Engravers, Dynamics Screenprinting, C. L. O. G., The Double Toe Times, Barbara's Clogging Feet & Supplies, Debbie & Luann Roberts, Marianne Doan, Vicki Barnes, Dollywood, and Si-Bill Productions Videos.

Friday night Gwen Drake, one of our queens from last year was with us to sing a special song "Letting Go." It was so beautiful and so fitting for the pageant. On Saturday We were fortunate to have Julianne Lee our outgoing queen perform with her clogging team Clog N FX Jr. from Atlanta, and a special performance by The Southern Jewels Ruby team from Gaffney, South Carolina.

The final walk of Julianne Lee was incredible. She is such a beautiful person inside and out. At 17 years old she has her whole life ahead of her and I know she will be a success in each phase of her

Augusta Heritage

Davis and Elkin College, Elkins, West Virginia

By: Debbie Haines, Severna Park, Maryland

We were all happy to hear that you won't need chemotherapy. Hope you continue to feel well and remain healthy!

I just wanted to tell everyone about the incredible clogging experience four of us had in July at the Augusta Heritage held at Davis and Elkins College in beautiful Elkins, West Virginia. We participated in the week-long "Clogging Intensive" under the instruction of Ira Bernstein. We four brave souls are Donna and Reid Lofton, Charlene Ranlet and yours truly.

What fun we had, and oh what we learned! A more perfect week could not have been had (unless my husband had been able to attend, but alas, dear John stayed home to cat-sit so that I could go!)

Our clogging class met every day, Monday through Friday, 9:30-11:30 and again from 1:30-3:30. We were told to bring leather-soled shoes, and by the end of the first day, many of us had worked our way through a box of Band-Aids. It was awesome being in the same room with Ira, as well as having the opportunity to learn from him. What a fantastic dancer he is. His style is effortless, and his sound is crystal-clear. Ira is an easy-to-follow instructor, and he moved around the room providing helpful individual attention.

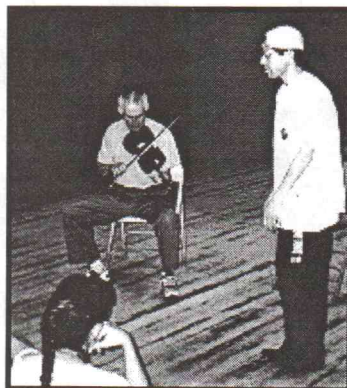

The class consisted of warm-ups, instruction and lecture, and was sometimes followed by a video for those interested (e.g., "Talking Feet"). We learned steps that are the foundation for Ira's style of flatfooting. He emphasized the importance of listening and feeling the music, which is the same emphasis mentioned over and over at the percussive workshop held earlier this year at Mars Hill in North Carolina. We had to learn what was a new technique for many of us: dropping down flat on our feet on the down beat, and then leaving the ground totally on the drag and landing squarely to produce another clear sound.

We progressed from the two-sound Tennessee walking step to the four-sound, with variations and other steps in between. The four of us had tried to prepare ourselves for the class by becoming familiar with Ira's video "Flatfooting Workshop," and while Ira basically followed the same format, we picked up more by being there, listening to the instruction, and practicing in class. We were disappointed only in that there was less dancing than we expected. The course write-up was not entirely accurate when it advertised "physically demanding dance for a minimum of four hours daily." This is not to say that we weren't sweating profusely! But a lot of our dancing was practicing the steps we'd been taught, which helped us get a grasp on each stage prior to moving on. It was a real change from contemporary clogging.

One of the pleasures of the class was the live music provided by the fiddle of John Herman. What a difference it makes dancing to beautiful live music. As an extra bonus during our last class, we were treated to music from Ira on the fiddle (he's great!), John on the banjo and the guitar music of a woman whose name I did not get.

Two evening concert performances were given during the week by the master instructors. Ira wowed the audience when he performed. He danced on a 4 x 6 surface of narrow wooden slats glued closely together on a backing of canvas (similar to the roll-top portion of a roll-top desk). The sound was just fantastic, and everyone watched without a blink, afraid he/she would miss something!

This particular week (July 7-11) was also Cajun/Zydeco week at the Davis and Elkins College, and we all took part in the nightly outdoor dances—what fun!! But you should have seen Ira dance—he's a wild man out there! In fact, everyone stopped to watch as he and Cajun dance instructor Mona burned up the floor during one of the numbers. We found out later that he used to teach Cajun/Zydeco at the college in its early years!

Ira Bernstein and John Herrman (fiddle) in the Boiler House—Beautiful wooden floor.

In addition to our class, dances and concerts, the jam sessions on the magnificent porch of the Halliehurst Building were the ending ritual of each evening. This porch is so huge that three different jams took place at the same time without interfering with each other. And there was room for dancing, as well! We heard some beautiful old-time music, as well as Cajun.

As for the accommodations, three of us stayed in two-person dorm rooms, which generated its own set of tales. Such as the time when Reid, not wanting to journey to the men's room two floors up, used the women's bathroom to shower, somewhat guarded by his wife, Donna. When another woman came in, Donna tried to keep the conversation short, well aware of Reid, quiet as a mouse, in one of the shower stalls. Finally, Donna confessed and Reid came walking out (fully clothed)—introductions were made, and the conversation continued!

I opted to stay at the Graceland Conference Center, a motel on campus, where I enjoyed a room with my own bathroom and queen-life. She has been and will continue to be the kind of young lady that I want to represent the Miss American Clogger Pageant. Very Sweet, very humble, always polite, always giving of herself to others, an awesome talent and speaking ability. What a wonderful role model she is for all the young ladies involved in clogging. Julianne has made a great impact on the title of Miss American Clogger. She is the kind of person we should all strive to be!

The queens (left to right) Tiffany Shanel Boston (8-10), Michele Leigh (13-14), Lynnette Rock (27+), Dawn Duncan (Overall), Schuylla Meetze (18-26), Candace Baumann (15-17), Brittney Wadford (11-12)

The most beautiful part of the pageant is always when all the contestants perform the final song and this year we chose "The Power of The Dream". It is the power of the Dream that brings us to our Mountain tops and it is the power of the dream that keeps us going when we reach our lowest points. Basically if we have a dream to work toward, we have something to look forward to, something to work for. It doesn't matter the obstacle, it doesn't matter how many times we fail. The only thing that matters is the fact that we keep trying. The winner is always the one that kept trying one more time!

Age Division 8 to 10, Tiffany Shanel Boston - Queen, Sally Miller - 1st Runner Up, Leann Cannon - 2nd Runner Up, Ashley Shipberg - 3rd Runner Up, Krystal Powell - 4th Runner Up

Age Division 11 to 12, Brittney Wadford - Queen, Jamie Roach - 1st Runner Up, Jamie Leigh Pack - 2nd Runner Up, Chaunte McLean - 3rd Runner Up, Sarah Stringer - 4th Runner Up

As a result Dawn Duncan is our Queen this year. She is 13 years old, from Taylors, South Carolina. She clogs with Heather Owens on the Upstate Carolina Dancer Center Performance Team. She is our youngest queen ever and is the epitome of the power of the dream. She has entered the pageant 3 times always vowing to return and do better next time. She grabbed her brass ring and will represent the pageant in Grand style with the support of her family, her instructor and her clogging team.

Age Division 13 to 14, Michelle Leigh - Queen, Amanda Marie Brock - 1st Runner Up, Star Hall - 2nd Runner Up, Brandy Nicole Howell - 3rd Runner Up

sized bed! I loved it, and there were treats here, too. One night I enjoyed an impromptu lobby jam session with Brian Bowers, master autoharpist.

The cafeteria offered a wide selection of foods. Meals became the time when we all came together to share experiences and woes ("Isn't Ira great ... I'll never be able to do this!") Even the cafeteria had some funny happenings, such as when a woman wrapped in a towel and carrying a bar of soap came in looking for her roommate, who had unknowingly locked her out of their dorm room.

As I said, this week was just too good to be true, especially for me, since I love clogging AND Cajun AND Zydeco. I would certainly recommend it for anyone. We met such nice people at the college, staff and students alike. There were only twelve in our clogging class, and hopefully the friendships we made will last a lifetime.

I would definitely encourage everyone to attend a week session at Augusta. They offer a wide variety of one-week classes over a six-week period in dancing, instruments, carving, basketmaking, story-telling, etc. You can add your name to their mailing list by calling 1-800-624-3157 or writing Augusta Heritage Center, Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, West Virginia 26241. The staff was very helpful and enthusiastic, and much attention was paid to detail.

You can also order directly from Ira his "Flatfooting Workshop" video, which covers what we learned in class. There is, however, no substitute for the real thing!

Dear Bobbie,

Please find enclosed my subscription for "Double Toe Times". I let my subscription lapse and realize how much I miss catching up on all the "happenings" in the clogging world. We hope to keep you more informed on what is happening in our part of Canada. We seem so "far away", yet when cloggers come together, we realize how much we are all alike even though geography may separate us.

Our clogging community had a most enjoyable and entertaining weekend with Scotty Bilz back in May. Enclosed, I have submitted an article about that weekend which happened during the height of our most tragic spring flooding. We forgot the sandbagging and evacuating for a couple of days as we danced with this most energetic young instructor who was in our fair city for the first time.

Thanks for a job well done Bobbie! Your publication is most enjoyable and vivid! Keep up the excellent work!

Yours in Friendship & Clogging, Dorothy Reid

RAMPAGE 97 "A DANCE EXPLOSION IN MANITOBA, CANADA"

Nothing more can be said for "Rampage 97" in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada than it was an explosion of fun, friendship, and clogging at its very best. The "Cut'N Loose Cloggers" of Winnipeg hosted this workshop weekend on May 23 & 24 at Holy Cross auditorium in St. Boniface. The feature instructor was Scotty Bilz of Georgia. This young man was ready for action and put the cloggers from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Ontario, and Minnesota through a number of excellent routines that he taught with a high level of enthusiasm and energy. He was an "explosion" himself. He also taught us "Northerners" how to pronounce "Y'all", while we taught him how to say that infamous Canadian phrase, "Eh!". Gerry Valois, our local host cuer, took to the stage to teach some super routines when Scotty thought he had to catch his breath. (Do these youthful teachers EVER run out of energy?) Gerry also gave a brief introduction to "Flatfooting".

Friday night was started during registration by a jam session of the "Hillside Fiddlers".

What a fun way to try our hands (oops ... feet) at "Freestyling"! This group of musicians from our Pembina Valley was a delight. After an evening of easy teaching and favorite routines, lunch was served and a time to socialize was enjoyed.

Saturday morning was off and dancing to a full day of teaching. Saturday evening brought a showcase of routines danced by several clubs and individuals. Terry Safruk was an hysterically funny hit as he clogged to a flood-appropriate song in his rubber boots (complete with taps) and his distinctively Canadian toque and hockey sweater. (Manitoba was in the grip of the tragic "Flood of the Century". Our gentle Red River had overflowed its banks to a width of 35 miles on this prairie province.) The dancers sampled Appalachian Clogging, reviewed the teachings, and danced till they could dance no more for the rest of the night. It was soon time to say our good-byes and all left with tired toes and tired brains. Plans are already in motion for Rampage 98. Journey to the Great North and join us in Winnipeg on May 1-2, 1998 with Scotty Bilz and Gerry Valois. For details call Gerry at 1204-942-8496 or E-mail Dorothy at dreid@escape.ca Happy Clogging to everyone. May we meet on the floor somewhere soon! (PS ... No! We do NOT have snow in May! It should be warm and spring-like.)

Bow Valley Cloggers Have a Ball

By Maureen Drakers
Calgary, Alberta, Canada

The picture enclosed shows the graduating class from the Bow Valley Cloggers. The picture shows me in the front row, center, that's me not wearing a graduation hat. This class started in September 1996 and graduated with much ceremony in May 1997. We clog at regular Wednesday classes from May through September and take the summer off. The summers here in Calgary are short and precious to us and I am among those who like to take the summer to enjoy workshops in the area, usually combined with a bit of a holiday.

We had just a super year in 1996 - 1997. Lots of fun with regular party nights to celebrate Halloween, Christmas, Spring and Birthdays. We also had our regular lesson nights, with usually about 25 beginners and 35 intermediate dancers in attendance. A Winter Workshop was hosted by the me and the club, we brought in Marilyn Hansen all the way from Anaheim, California. She is such a good sport, the temperature on workshop day was -25°C (-130F)! Marilyn did not get much skiing in, too cold, but she did get to watch lots of hockey as my oldest son, Dwight, was in a hockey tournament that weekend. Marilyn did some super dances and we had 82 people at the workshop from all over Alberta.

I also fulfilled a fantasy of mine in having an all Appalachian style night. What a blast! Of course I'm sure I can't match the traditional callers I've heard, but we did lots of 2 couple, 4 couple and big circle figures. Also throughout the night were waltzes, polkas and schottisches for folks to 'relax' to. I just may try the Appalachian experience again this season, I sure learned a lot.

So last year was great, the graduates are back and ready to start their next level of clogging. Most of the intermediates are back and ready to click through some new dances. And best of all I'm still loving every minute of it. Our first night for the 1997 - 1998 season was last night and we had 50 new people show up for beginners! Yikes! Guess they will soon all have the clogging bug like we have.

If you are ever in Calgary, Alberta, be sure to look me up, I'm in the directory in the Double Toe Times and would love to hear from you.

Dear Bobbie,

Enclosed is an article that appeared in our paper. Becky saw the article about our girls and wanted to meet us. Her dad brought her up to her grandparents home for the weekend. She can go a long way as a teacher.

Sincerely,

Bob Warner, The Thunder Floor Cloggers

Lake Odessa, Michigan

Young Lake Odessa Native is accomplished Georgia Clogger

By Shelly Sulser, Staff Writer, The Lakewood News, August 19, 1997, Page 12)

Clogging her way across the USA— and France—is a niche that Lake Odessa native Becky Schelter has come to enjoy.

At age 15, Becky is already considered among the best in the south. She teaches beginners how to clog, competes with the competition team, Clogg'n FX and travels with the exhibition team, Li'l Foot Stompers.

"I like the attention," said Becky, the daughter of Ron and Shellie Schelter who have lived in Cummings, Georgia since Becky was eight.

Ron is the son of Don and Joann Schelter of Lake Odessa. Shellie the daughter of Elden and Marilee Jackson of Sunfield.

"I've been clogging about seven years," she said.

Being a member of Clogg'n FX is a real honor, she said, because the owner of the competition team, Scottie Bilz, is considered to be one of the best in the world. He has teams all over the United States, she said.

As part of the competition team, Becky has held to garner the junior division cloggers over 40 first, second and third awards.

Her love for the special, tap-like dancing, which originated in Appalachia, spawned out of Becky's earlier introduction to dance by Woodland's Della Meade.

"I was in Della Meade's class but we moved to Georgia," said Becky. "One day, my mom was looking in the newspaper and saw a clogging class advertised."

Becky and her cousin, who lives in Cummings as well, were soon signed up.

"And I never quit," she said.

Now, she is the teacher of a about 15 students, ranging in age from five to 30-plus.

Becky was specially chosen to teach the class by a man name Big John Walters who had been teaching it for years. When he retired, it was Becky he wanted to replace him.

"Big John Walters started (founded) clogging - in Georgia," said Becky. "He's very well known and he's the one who taught me how to clog. He's like a grandpa to me."

Becky keeps tapping those basic triple and mountain goat steps on the upbeat because it's a way she can entertain by doing something she's good at.

"I love to perform," she said. "There is not a lot you can do in front of a crowd and I was good at it. You have to have the heart to do it because it takes a lot of practice."

"It's kind of like a natural talent," said her grandmother, Joann.

Her performances have taken been to seven national clogging conventions, six specialty shows and one appearance on television news to give the clogging team some, media exposure.

And in France, the Li'l Foot Stompers represented the United States at a folk festival five years ago.

Becky enjoys doing formation dancing and line dancing as part of the team, which performs all kinds of styles to all kinds of music.

"Tap, jazz and ballet, to me, all seem so slow," said Becky of her preference for clogging, which requires a much faster rhythm.

Music she has danced to has included "Play that Funky Music, White Boy," "Unbelievable," as well as "Boot, Scootin' Boogie" and even some Broadway tunes.

"We do stunts, jazz and cheerleading type stuff," Becky noted.
