FRONT AND CENTER

A Clogger's Christmas

Twas the night before Christmas, when through the clogger's house

Not a creature was dancing, not even a mouse;

The clog shoes were laid by the chimney
with care,

In hopes that ST. NICHOLAS soon would be there

The cloggers were nestled all snug in their beds,

While visions of new routines danced in their heads;

And mamma in her krenlin, and I in my taps,

Had just settled down for a long winter's nap,

When down in the dance room there arose
such a clatter,

I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.

Away to the dance room I flew in a sec, Threw open the doorway to see "What the heck?"

The moon on the breast of the new-laid wood floor

Gave the lustre of mid-day to the walls and the door,

When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,

But a miniature sleigh, and eight clogging reindeer,

With a little old driver, so lively and quick,

I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than eagles his cloggers they came,

And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name;

"Now, DASHER! now, DANCER! now,
PRANCER and VIXEN!

On, COMET! on CUPID! on, REAGAN and NIXON! (Even the reindeer had a Republican revolution...)

To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!

Now dance away! dance away! dance away all!"

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof

The Double-toe and Step of each little hoof.

As I drew in my hand, and was turning around,

Into the dance room St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot,

And his clog shoes were tarnished with ashes and soot;

A bundle of goodies he had flung on his back,

And he looked like a cobbler just opening his pack.

His eyes — how they twinkled! his dimples
how merry!

And he clogged like a red-suited, bearded Drew Carey!

His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,

And he danced every routine that I know!
The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,

but he never inhaled (like the Commander in Chief);

He had a broad face and a little round belly, that shook, when he clogged like a bowlful of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,

And when I stood beside him, he profiled myself;

A wink of his eye and a twist of his heel,
Soon gave me to know I had no fear to feel;

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,

And filled all the clog shoes; then turned with a jerk,

And laying his finger aside of his head,
And dancing a jig, from the clog room he fled;

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a cue,

And away they all danced like he taught them all to.

But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,

"CLOGGING CHRISTMAS TO ALL,
AND TO ALL A GOOD-NIGHT."

I hope this little adaptation of the Clement Moore classic brings a smile to your holiday season. Best wishes to you and yours from the Doubletoe Times Family!

Choreographer Answers

I read your letter in the October issue of the Double Toe Times (Choreographer Questions by Virginia Mitchell of Minnesota) and have a suggestion that might also be helpful to you.

Over many years of attending workshops, I have collected hundreds of cue sheets and used very few of them in their entirety. However, many of them contain a step or two that I really liked. In order to be able to remember them when I was choreographing a routine, I would write them out on a 3 x 5 card. I then sort the cards as you mentioned, by number of beats, turning steps, etc. Then when I draw a blank, I flip through my cards.

I hope this helps. Happy clogging!

Vacation Planner

Thank you so much for your wonderful publication, the Double Toe Times! We are retired and plan our vacations around the location of the clogging events and competitions.

Even though we do not clog and have never been affiliated with any clogging group, we rely on the Double Toe Times to keep abreast of the location of events and competitions. For this reason, the magazine is so important to us.

More Bullets

I am a member of a group that has discovered that what we dance is not as traditional as we had thought, but rather a specific precision-type patterned after the original Green Grass Cloggers from North Carolina.

Could the Double Toe Times begin a new designation in its Instructors Directory in addition to the bullet for traditional groups? I would suggest a small, bold font to indicate a Green Grass Style group as we are. My purpose in suggesting this is to try and locate other groups who dance in our style so that we may make connections for workshops.

Sue Cutter
Sidney, IL

Editor's Note:

We have been talking within the Double Toe staff about how to give more information in the directory. The trouble with a separate bullet for Green Grass Style Clogging is that there is even some debate among clogging circles about what encompasses the style and how other forms could be differentiated.

We have had similar requests for bullets for buck style, American Step dance, shuffle clog, Double-Double clogging, English clog, flatfoot and others. You can see our dilemma. Any input our readers have in this area is greatly appreciated.

The traditional bullet encompasses so much of our heritage rich dance. Preserving that heritage is important to me personally and to this publication. Conversely, we understand that clogging is an ever-growing and changing art form. We hope to continue to bring you the news and views from the many different styles of clogging that make up this dance we love.

Santa Claus is Clogging to Town!

Clogger Bill Fransicso delights young and old in his role as Saint Nick

by Yvonne Payne
Oklahoma Family Magazine

Bill Francisco, a.k.a. Santa Claus, is like a page of living Tulsa history. With his rosy cheeks, authentic white beard, and colorful personality, Fransicso charms hundreds of Tulsa children every Christmas, but little do they know that this Santa has a heritage rich in the traditions of the dance.

Born William Fransicso, Fransicso attended Longfellow and Lincoln Elementary Schools in Tulsa. It was at Lincoln Elementary where Fransicso says "I really got dancing in my blood." Every Saturday (and weekdays through Tulsa's hot summer months), Fransicso would smash his face against the screen door of Mme. Eva Matlagova's ballet studio and memorize ballet movements to practice at home. Sometimes the inspired dancer would take time out to play in the studio's backyard with Mme. Matlagova's beautiful little daughter, Moscelyne Larkin. Little did Fransicso and Larkin realize that each in their own way would go on to make Tulsa and American dance history.

While attending junior and senior high school, Fransicso delivered the Tulsa Daily World on horseback for five years along what was then the two-lane highway of Yale Avenue until he graduated in the tenth class of Will Rogers High School in 1949.

his formal education by attending the University of Tulsa while working nights at the historic Orpheum Theatre in downtown Tulsa. Although busy with college and work, Fransicso had not forgotten his dream of dancing, and continued his training by studying with some of Tulsa's finest dancers such as Suzanne Akers, Marguerite Reed, and June Runyon, Tulsa's first lady of modern dance.

In 1950 Fransicso joined the then-new Tulsa Opera Ballet. His first performances were in Rio Rita and The Desert Song. Fransicso was awarded a dance scholarship with Ruth St. Denis Foundation in Hollywood, California, where he studied interpretive, modern, and ethnic dance philosophy. He enrolled in Eugene Loring's American School of Ballet, focusing on classical ballet and jazz, and studying with Hollywood's finest like Cyd Cherise and Matt Maddox.

Francisco's dance training was interrupted in 1953 with a draft call from Uncle Sam. Thinking his dance career was over, Francisco found it was just beginning. His tour of duty took him to the U.S.O. Occupation Forces in Augsburg, Germany. This allowed Francisco to continue his performing and to study with Germany's foremost modern and folk dancer, Lieselotte Subklew, a prote'ge' of Mary Wigman. In fact, Francisco was honored for his volunteer dancing in Europe by becoming the only American awarded a medal by the city of Augsburg at prestigious 1954 Fasching Festival.

After returning home to Tulsa in 1955, Francisco again auditioned with the growing, by now renowned Tulsa Opera. He landed the part of the lead male dancer in Aida. Francisco also began dancing with the Tulsa Civic Ballet, (currently known as the Tulsa Ballet Theatre) performing in the company's premiere performances of Coppelia and The Nutcracker. Francisco danced with the Tulsa Little Theatre at the Old Delaware Street Playhouse in such musicals as The Boyfriend and Pajama Game.

Because dancing could not sustain Francisco financially, in 1955 he went to work for American Airlines. In 1961, the airlines moved to New York City, and Francisco moved as well.

Ironically it was in New York that Francisco realized his love of country clogging and hoedown while studying at the International Society of Folkdance. He also became aware of his special gift as a character dancer.

After 18 years in New York, Francisco returned to Tulsa and eventually retired from American Airlines in 1988. His love of American folk and country dance led Francisco to establish the OK Country Folk Dance Company, which he continues to lead today. His group of cloggers has performed for the Tulsa Ballet Theatre, the Tulsa Opera, and in the Follies Review.

Francisco has dedicated over four decades of his life to the performing arts in over 175 volunteer performances. Currently as the owner of the OK Country Donut Shoppe at 81st and Yale, Francisco continues his service to the community when each year he prepares for what may be his most important and delightful "character" role ever. He spends months growing a full, snowy-white beard. Then in December when children enter his enchanting world of pastries, twinkling lights, and Christmas cookie jars, this jolly, "dancing," Santa peers over his spectacles into the hearts of every boy and girl to convey the magic that only a real Santa can.

Czech It Out!

Clogging Thrives in the Czech Republic With the Exciting Group Caramella

The crowd claps hands as the gingham-clad dancers make their way to the wooden stage. Rousing bluegrass music revs up and the dancers are ignited in a flurry of movement and percussion. Amidst cheers and yells of "Yee Haw!", the dancers kick and doubletoe their way to another standing ovation.

Sounds like a night at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tennessee, right? Well, this night the dancing is taking place at Western City, a Western-themed Park in Europe's Czech Republic, and the group bringing the crowd to its feet is Jarka and Jiri Vasakovi's Caramella Dance Show.

This exciting clogging and square dance group have been performing and spreading the good news of clogging since the 1980's. Under the skillful direction of Jarka and Jiri Vaskovi, the group has 26 members ranging in age from 16 to 29. Their twice weekly practices draw a crowd of more than 150 regular spectators. In addition to their shows at Western City, Caramella performs for dance balls, firm parties, conventions, art openings, rodeos and country concerts.

Each June, Caramella hosts the "Medley's Clogging and Country Dance Festival" in Western City, in the Czech highland. In a beautiful valley with clean rivers, pine woods, green grass, and amidst horses and log cabins, the three day festival brings Main Street to life with clogging performances and workshops. At the festival in 1998, the Guinness Book of World Records was on hand as Caramella mounted the world's largest Virginia Reel, with 238 couples twirling down the line!

Caramella also performed abroad this year, doing shows in Germany,

Clogging Thrives in the Czech Republic
With the Exciting Group Caramella

Austria and Denmark. The group was specially excited to do a show in Denmark. A large Danish Country Club invited the group to its three day festival in Silkeborg which draws over 3,000 spectators to its natural amphitheatre in the woods of the Danish countryside. In addition to the American country music group the Bellamy Brothers, Caramella performed alongside bands from Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Ireland, England and Germany. The groups lively exhibition brought two encores from the capacity crowd!

One week later, the group was on its way to the Alps -- a 1,500 mile trek that took them to the Austria/Italy border for more performances at a tourist park.

Caramella has made a trip to the United States to attend workshops and perform, and -- with the support of clogging manufacturer Stevens Worldwide and the Stevens family -- has hosted its own workshops in Prague featuring American Instructors such as Steve Smith, Charlie Burns and Jay Dumcum.

As you can see, Caramella's feet keep them very busy as they continue to share their love of clogging with Europe and the world.

In addition to its performances, classes and workshops, Caramella has produced a booklet in Czech to teach the patterns of clogging and old time square dance, plus the Cotton-eyed Joe, Virginia Reel and others.

Cloggers in the Spotlight

The Time Step Cloggers Over 55 "Zest For Life" group participated in a Summer Talent show. The group performs throughout B.C. and the Northwest U.S.

Time Step Cloggers - Busy Summer

The Time Step Cloggers of Port Coquitlam, B.C., have been busy during 1999. First, they sponsored SPRING FEVER with Instructors Eric and Grayce Bice from California. With routines such as "Crush" and "Don't Be Stupid" on the program, the weekend was a lot of fun. Eric once again treated us to some of his fancy footwork during the Saturday evening break. We look forward to their visit with us again in March 2000. Also entertaining were the Bear Mountain Cloggers (Four 2nd-year cloggers who have formed their own performance group), and our own Thursday-nighters dancing "Chaka Chaka".

Summer weekends saw us dancing outside at the local Farmer's Market. The weather was good to us; July 1st celebrations and dancing on the Showboat stage, a replica of the Paddle-wheelers seen on the River. The stage is built on the beach and when the sun starts to set with the mountains in the background, it is a great place to be on a summer evening.

Our "over 55's" entered a "Zest for Life Talent Search" and made it to the finals. We were beaten out by some Jazzy Charleston Dancers — it was their second year of competing! We plan on returning next year! We will be showcasing our talents once more this month at a Youth and Senior's Talent Evening. So now we start planning a new entertainment program along with next year's SPRING FEVER and the 12th NATIONAL SQUARE/ROUND/CLOG CONVENTION -see Upcoming Events.

Flat Creek Cloggers Dance For Former President Jimmy Carter

The Flat Creek Cloggers of Nashville, GA had the honor of clogging for former President of the United States of America Mr. Jimmy Carter on September 25, 1999.

In trying to come up with the right routine to dance for President Carter, we did not know what kind of music he likes. So we looked at the man first — he is one of the world's greatest Humanitarian and also makes America proud. The routine we danced was "American Pride".

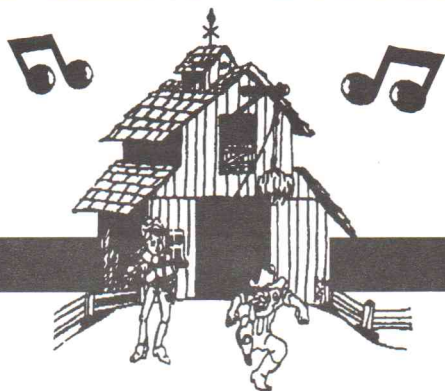

We have danced all over but that was the greatest honor we every had.

Our group was founded on September 22, 1994. Our dancers range from eight years old to 51 years old. Our youngest is five months old. She is our mascot (I am holding her in the picture) and she is also my granddaughter. I also have two granddaughters and a son that clogs with us.

We do a variety of music from Bluegrass, Country, Gospel and Rock. We meet every Tuesday night at Flat Creek Community Center, which is where we got our name.

Old-Time Square Dancing

More figures from a great collection of Square Dances by "Jonesy"

by Jeff Driggs, Editor

To follow is the last selection from our series of old time square dance calls by Fenton "Jonesy" Jones. These calls are found on a 78 rpm collection of records by the MacGregor label that includes hand-typed sheets of the calls for each dance.

The calls from this dance are noted exactly as called by "Jonesy", and carry a western flavor in their delivery and patter.

Remember that the words printed in ALL CAPS are the calls and patter that the caller says when cueing the figure. The words following the call (in upper and lower case letters) is a description of the dancer's movement.

Naomi Brings Fun to Clogging
By Sam Williams
Greenville, MO

Gallatinburg, Tennessee, lived up to its reputation by providing beautiful scenery and a good time for the people who attended the first annual Smoky Mountain Workshop September 24 and 25, 1999 at the Gatlinburg Convention Center. Some people even came in 3 days early just to visit the restaurant and outlet malls, the new Hard Rock Café and the music theaters that have become a trademark of this area.

The instructor who taught at the workshop seemed to be in rare form. Each instructor taught new routines and the participants could not say enough good things. The Convention Center in Gatlinburg is wonderful, so spacious and beautiful. We can't wait to host Spring Fling there in March of 2000.

The weekend started at 1:00 p.m. on Friday with clogging workshops. It was rather comical when Josh King showed up just a wee bit late due to traffic and the door security would not let him in until Lysene came to the door to say it was okay. That was a laugh all weekend, but you bet your bottom dollar she will again be at the door at Spring Fling - so you better have your ribbon! Workshops continued until 5:00 p.m. then everyone took a short dinner break and returned at 7:30 p.m. for the instructor break and workshops. There was a discussion of instructors and workshops. There was a discussion until 10:00 p.m. and then I believe everyone hit the streets to enjoy the sights of Gatlinburg. The next morning they sure looked tired!

Saturday was another day filled with new routines and seminars, and everyone complimented the great

CLOGGING ON THE WORLD WIDE WEB

www.yoursite!

Finding Your Own Web Identity

In past issues of the Double Toe Times, we have highlighted many of the great sites featured on the world wide web dedicated to clogging and percussive dance.

Making your own web page is easy. Most ISP's (Internet Service Providers) provide their users a certain amount of space to use for a personal web page, and programs can be downloaded from the web to make setting up your site easy and fun.

Go to a local quick print and have a few pictures scanned to share your love of clogging with your friends... and the world online!

IF YOU HAVE A WEB PAGE DEDICATED TO CLOGGING OR PERCUSSIVE DANCE, OR WOULD LIKE TO SHARE SOME OF YOUR FAVORITE SITES OR LINKS WITH US... WRITE OR EMAIL US AT dbltoe@doubletoe.com. WE'D LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU!

Clogging Instructors and Dancers Directory

A listing in the Double Toe Times exclusive Instructors and Dancers Directory entitles you to list your events, competitions and festivals in the Upcoming Events column free of charge. The Directory is also a valuable source for networking, marketing and promotion. A bullet (■) in front of the Instructor or dancer's name indicates that this person can, and does, promote old-time clogging and traditional dancing.
