FRONT AND CENTER

The Desire to Win

Clogging is -- by nature -- a competitive artform. Even in a fun club atmosphere, dancers strive to be as good as their peers. Some have aspirations that reach beyond the exhibition team or the classroom. Even those who insist that they have no desire to enter competition must acknowledge that they are constantly being judged by their instructor, their fellow dancers and the audience.

Judging excellence in dance is so much more subjective than other sports because the adjudicators must interpret the individual styling and subtle movements of the dance that cannot be measured as precisely as we would a distance a jump or time the finish of a race.

Competition within our dance program, and within the competition circuit, provides valuable lessons that impact well beyond the dance floor. The importance of being humble, of working together and striving to be your best are all gleaned from the competitive spirit. Through personal growth you can feel a sense of pride and accomplishment in your efforts -- regardless of the results.

As a dancer who never personally excelled in competition dancing, I found that the environment nurtured me to develop my dance skills in other ways. While I could not compete skillwise with many of the younger dancers, my ability to explain steps and choreograph was often complimented. This encouragement helped me to steer my energies into teaching. Experience will show you that many of the art's best dancers are not necessarily the best teachers. Likewise, many of the best teachers are not competition level dancers.

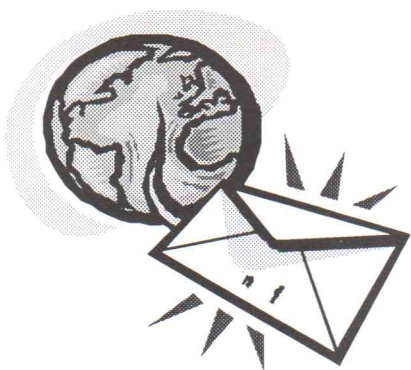

Take the lessons to be learned from competition and apply them to your goals in clogging. From drills to strengthen your dance skills, to reading and study to better understand our art, helped to instill in your students -- and yourself -- the drive to be the best. There is a difference between competition and rivalry. Provide opportunities for your dancers that allow them to grow in a healthy and spirited environment.

Most of all, remember that you are a winner just by being involved in clogging. From mind, to body, to spirit, the dance fills us and gives us a joy that no trophy can.

Happy Clogging!

Jeff Driggs, Editor

Your letters, faxes and e-mails

Editors Note:

The Double Toe Times is interested in your input regarding our stories, features and choreography.

In recent issues, we have outlined some of the many formats used in writing cue sheets. We would like to hear from you -- the dancers and instructors out there -- regarding which formats you find the best for beginner dances, advanced dances and overall use.

In addition, if you are aware of any cue sheet formats that have not been featured that you would like to share, please send them to us. Understanding the many different methods of documenting dances will lead to better teaching and dancing.

Keep in mind that the presentation of these formats is not intended to imply that any one is better than the other. We have tried, through showing each and discussing it's inception, history and reception within the dance world, to give a broad brush to a system which gives each choreographer a measure of freedom in the way that they present their material.

I encourage you to continue to share your stories, pictures, photos and thoughts with us.

Heartfelt Thanks

I love my Double Toe Times! I look forward to getting it every month. I really appreciate your attention to the magazines delivery into Canada. Thanks for getting this straightened out. I appreciate it from the bottom of my heart.

*Patricia Johnston

Cloggers Celebrate American Music in Austria

Three Groups of Ohio Cloggers Join Forces for a Week of Performances and Sightseeing

by Linda K. Smith

Think of the challenge, the innumerable details big and small- a clogging show touring with 80 dancers- the enticing potential of traveling and performing in Austria. Imagine being a part of your 'regular' team practicing for your current and future demos. Now, add to that being a part of another group/ team planning to travel overseas... new dances to learn, new routines, extra practices... five performances, ten days.... Whether you're a dancer, instructor, helper, or the organizer/director, imagine the hard work in store for all. This was the setting that initiated some very special experiences.

After months of planning and practice, three Ohio clogging groups (80 dancers) and 37 non-dancers left Philadelphia for Austria, a combination clogging and sightseeing trip. We were part of the American Celebration of Music there. Organizer/director for the tour/show (and working in conjunction with Music Celebrations International) was Lee Adams, who also is the director of the Clog 4 U and All Ohio Cloggers. Joining these two groups were the Cedar Valley Cloggers from Wooster, Ohio. Their director is Jeannie Troyer.

Our three buses traveled several hours on the autobahn from Munich, Germany to Austria. This gave us the opportunity to see the countryside. It was May, and while our trees and yards were turning green here in Ohio, we found Austria to be lush, green, and beautiful. (Some farmers were cutting hay.) Our first destination -- Vienna -- and our first two shows. We performed at the Vienna Volksgarten, a park with lots of trees and gardens. Our good weather stayed with us during these outdoor performances (Days 3 & 4). It was hot, with lots of sun. That first performance I think we gelled as a group, because the next day held a more confident tone in our dancing. Day 5 saw us traveling to Graz, Austria, where we danced at the International Gardenshow Lake Stage, a garden and recreation area. Yes, the stage was on the lake- it floated! Imagine, again, what happens when up to 80 cloggers dance on a floating stage. Motion, and motion sickness. A number of our group had a rough time.

Our second day in Salzburg, Austria (Day 7) saw our fourth performance. This time we were indoors at a school. They constructed a stage for us, sturdy and nice! The surface was great with plenty of room. We all had a good time with this show. Two Austrian cloggers and instructors, Leo Kropf and Leo Kropf, Jr., free-styled during one of Dusty Grand's two solos that night. Dusty, 14 and a member of Betty Stickel's Teays River Cloggers, was the only All Ohio Youth Clogger on the trip. His dancing 'hit it' that night. When I left the stage that evening, he was surrounded by girls getting his autograph. Theater an Der Sill in Innsbruck (Day 9) was our last performance. This was a cute, little theater. We adjusted to the small stage and gave it our best.

As I reflect back, one of the striking memories was how we all adapted. With each performance, each setting, challenges and small changes presented themselves, and the groups rose to the occasion. While the dances didn't change, our presentation of walking on and off stage did, for example. Sometimes this meant reversing the lineup to walk on stage. Other times it meant backing up while the next group set up, and then exiting. Because of electrical problems we started our Graz performance with no music. The clapping of other dancers helped keep the beat. In between all of these performances we had a full sightseeing schedule. The fortress overlooking Salzburg plus seeing locations where The Sound of Music was filmed; the snow capped mountains around Innsbruck; gorgeous cathedrals and palaces; 'old town' architecture and buildings it was all so very special. There was even a mayor's reception in Salzburg.

But the fun wasn't limited to the sights and the dancing. It was also the people we were with. The Cedar Valley Cloggers are a great traditional style team. It was so 'neat' you were with us. The All Ohio folks- it's an honor to dance with you all. (This team includes directors/instructors and dancers from all over Ohio.) Clog 4 U Cloggers - you inspire us to 'keep on keeping on. Your history led us to this point. Getting to know other dancers as individuals... well, that too was special.

To Lee and all of her helpers — thanks loads. Thanks also to JoAnn Gibbs of C.L.O.G. Organization. And, with that, there's just this to say... "Go, bus number three!"

South Carolina Clogging Council

2000 Annual Workshop and Competition

by Diane Loftin, SCCC President

The South Carolina Clogging Council held it's annual Stampe on March 18 & 19, 2000 in Union, S.C. hosted by the Sudden Impact Cloggers directed by Christi Mason. Saturday the workshop started at 9:00 am with more than 200 cloggers in attendance. Dances were taught by Mercy Martinez, Sherri West, Shannon Glass, Jay Ledford & Clay Vassey. Everyone enjoyed learning these new dances and had lots of fun. The workshop ended at 3:00 pm. Competition began at 4:30 pm and all the teams were ready to start competing. The competition began with the announcement of the Palmetto's Finest dancers of 2000. They were Madeleine Campbell from Rhythm & Class Cloggers in North Augusta, SC, Adrienne Chapman from Sudden Impact Cloggers in Inman, SC, Lindsay Foreman from Southland Express Cloggers in Aiken, SC, Ashley Regan from Southern Connection Cloggers in Irmo, SC, Ruth Sheehan from Southland Express Cloggers in Aiken, SC, Suzannah Stayton from the Comer Cloggers in Moncks Comer, SC, Brittany Templeton from the Southern Junction Cloggers in Powdersville, SC and Warren Underwood from the Rhythm & Class Cloggers in North Augusta, SC. They performed a routine which they learned that day in only four hours choreographed by Terry Anderson. During the dance they were joined by the 1999 Palmetto's Finest dancers that were in attendance Clay Barnhart, Bridget Home, Miranda Masters, Mandy Stewart, Krysta Studdard and Mamie Studdard. This honor is bestowed only to cloggers who live in South Carolina and are selected by their clogging skills, team spirit, dedication, enthusiasm and their leadership ability. Our duo, duet, show duo/duet, 4 or More Couple Open Precision, 4 or More Couple Open Hoedown & Show Team competition was performed next and the Grand Champion winners were Duo- Crystal Loftin & Gwen Drake, Duet- Jonathan Scarborough & Charity Scarborough, Show Duo/Duet -

Warren Underwood & Sarah Weitenhagen, 4 or More Couple Open Precision - Southern Connection Cloggers, 4 or More Couple Open Hoedown - Rhythm & Class Cloggers and our Show Team was Southland Express Cloggers.

On Sunday everyone came back to enjoy more competition. The competition started at 8:30 am with Line, Flat Foot Competition, Traditional Line, Solo, Exhibition & Line Formations.

Our Grand Champion Winners were:

Line - Corner Cloggers, Traditional

Line - Southland Express, Exhibition - Comer Cloggers and

Line Formations - Southern Junction Cloggers.

Our Grand Champion Solo Female- Crystal Loftin & Solo Male Mark Clifford.

Our Best Caller award went to Racheal Sheehan of Southland Express Junior Team and our Best Couple Award went to Warren Underwood & Sarah Weitenhagen of Rhythm & Class Cloggers. Our Old Time Flat Footin' Contest was won by Warren Underwood of Rhythm & Class Cloggers.

The competition ended with the announcement of our Over-All Team Winner. It went to the Southern Junction Cloggers for their Line Formations Routine.

ECTA Teachers Conference in Oberreiffenberg, Germany

European Clogging Leaders Join Square and Round Dance Instructors in June Conference

By Dennis Gagne
(reprinted by permission of 'The Buck' newsletter)

The Family Relaxation Center in Oberreiffenberg provided the backdrop and facilities for the Annual Convention of the European Callers and Teachers Association (ECTA). Nestled in the Taunus mountains above Frankfurt, Germany, this year's convention for ECTA Square Dance Callers, Round Dance Cuers, Clogging Instructors, and Contra Prompters featured two internationally well known professional leaders Don Beck (Square Dance), and Jeff Driggs (Clogging) from the USA. By popular request, Jeanne Conrad was invited back to present her very important seminar on Voice Training - for Everyone!

The four day training conference was opened by ECTA President Martin Kromer with the Welcome Session which expressed topics about the direction of ECTA and introduced the featured guest speakers. Vice President Brian Gill followed with a presentation of the program, schedules, and logistical accommodations for the 91 European dance leaders attending the conference.

Each division of ECTA was given ample time to discuss important issues to their activities, or at least demonstrate effective techniques, for inclusion into an overall program. For example, Contra dancing is not too well populated so the issue presented was - "How can we increase dancer awareness to this activity?" Here to assist in answering this question was ECTA member Carol David-Blackman, who presented a session on Contras for One Night Stands. Round dance seminars and questions were emceed by Martin Prufer and Susanne Launhardt with topics including Rhythm and Structure, Working with the Caller, and Using English in Teaching.

Challenging the ECTA callers was Don Beck, Martha's Vineyard, MA.,

who presented challenging topics ranging from Mental Image Calling, Smoother dancing, Teaching so Others can Learn, Programming a Club Night, Phrasing of Music, as well as 6 couple dancing and Working with your Checkers. Each of Don's lectures was well attended and left most callers gasping for air!

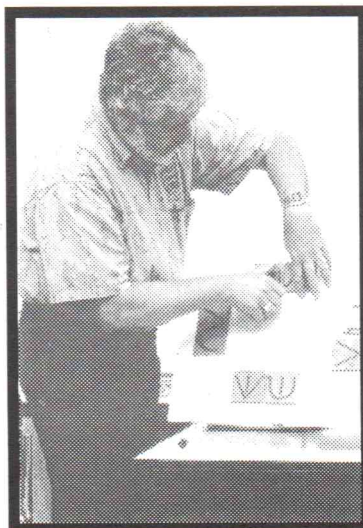

Not to be outdone, the clog instructors were presented with a masterful set of seminars by Jeff Driggs from St. Albans, WV. (No he does not have an accent!). Jeff wound everything together with lectures about The History of Clogging, Conducting Open House Events, Showmanship -both personal and team, and Making Effective use of the Stage. Naturally, no clogging session would be complete without doing a short dance routine, so Jeff presented a quick teach of his latest choreography to Travelin' Prayer by Dolly Parton. Jeff also demonstrated the techniques used for anyone desiring to effectively build advanced clog steps into their choreography.

Topping off the long list of convention lectures was the Voice Training held by Jeanne Conrad, a professional opera singer and a session by Rainer Vosgen on Autogenes Training for Relaxation and Stage Fright. Jeanne, as in previous years, offered her talents to critique and help each caller, instructor, on an individual basis in a 15 minute private session.

The Saturday evening program included a well-deserved buffet and dancing by all groups and instructors who desired to put a microphone in their hands. Needless to say, the buffet was a super gathering which again was highlighted by the talents of Don Beck and Jeff Driggs. Finally approaching the midnight hour, past ECTA president Kenny Reese administered some of his personal showmanship techniques with some very funny afterparty skits.

All too quickly, the dancing, chatter, and lectures was finished and it was time to bid farewell to all of the attendees and the featured guest lecturers. The entire ECTA staff said they were very proud that so many leaders took advantage of this wonderful opportunity to talk among themselves, discover other methods of teaching, and maybe even learn a few new techniques. Congratulations ECTA, a job well done. 'The Buck' would rate this extravaganza as a Five Toe Performance! Let's do it again!

Photos:

Do's For Dancers

by Ed Durlacher

“When in Rome, do as the Romans do” is about the only way to describe the way square dancing should be done when visiting other sections of the country.

If variety is the spice of life, then the many variations of figures used in squares is the reason why square dancing was, is, and will ever be popular.

There are a number of very important DO's for dancers:

DO:

Wear comfortable clothes. Wear low-heeled shoes.

Keep in step with the tempo of the music by walking rather than hopping, skipping or jumping.

Watch something on your partner's shoulder when you are swinging to avoid becoming dizzy.

Feel free at a square dance to ask those of the opposite sex to dance. This applies to the ladies as well as the gents.

Stay in the dance until the caller retires the dancers from the floor. To leave a set prior to this is an act of bad manners.

Be patient with new dancers in your set. Remember you too were a novice at some time and the other dancers had to help you.

Make sure that you take only your own allotted space on the floor so others will also have room.

Thank other couples in the set after each set of dances.

Be quiet when the instructions for the dance are being given.

Remember that you will be dancing with three or more people and that one person may spoil the fun for everyone by being ill-mannered.

As one travels from town to town, or across the country, the dances keep changing and the styles with them. The fundamentals, however, remain the same.

There are just a few things to remember when dancing away from home. These are set down as a warning for those who wish to take heed.

ALWAYS:

Take any position but First Couple.

Allow one of the home folks to tell you what to do.

Listen to the caller before it comes to your turn to lead out.

Be sure you respect the way the home folks do the dance.

Compliment them on their caller and the musicians.

One last DO for the dancer is about the most important of all . . . DO HAVE A GOOD TIME!

Clogging Instructors and Dancers Directory

A listing in the Double Toe Times exclusive Instructors and Dancers Directory entitles you to list your events, competitions and festivals in the Upcoming Events column free of charge. The Directory is also a valuable source for networking, marketing and promotion. A bullet (■) in front of the Instructor or dancer's name indicates that this person can, and does, promote old-time clogging and traditional dancing.
