FRONT AND CENTER

Walk Away A Winner

The clogging competition circuit has become a major series of events lately, with national organizations hosting hundreds of dancers and thousands of spectators at their respective events.

The recently held C.C.A. Championships in Knoxville, Tennessee was no exception. As an emcee for the event, I was granted a unique perspective that gave me the chance to see the competitors as they prepared for competition and in performance, and to see the reaction of the audience to their routines and dancing.

What surprised me most is the lack of cloggers in the audience. The crowd consisted almost exclusively of the competitor's family and friends and the general public. The familiar faces I know from the workshop circuit were nowhere to be seen as the nation's top clogging teams danced for national titles in both traditional and nontraditional categories.

As clogging has developed as a percussive dance throughout the last few decades, the chasm has widened between workshop dancers and competition dancers. Very few high level workshop dancers feel there is anything for them to learn at workshops, and workshop dancers often do not see the appeal of dancing for prizes and recognition.

We can learn a great deal from each other. There is so much more to workshops than just the masterclasses. As a one-time competitor myself, I can tell you that the best lessons in steps sharing are those times shared with other cloggers away from the competition environment. And workshop dancers can enjoy the entertainment offered by the variety of categories danced at a competition, plus see the newest steps and movements incorporated in the latest choreography.

Don't forget the social aspect of clogging that workshops offer both at the evening fun dance and at the impromptu gatherings at the hotel lobby or restaurant that surely follow every clogging event!

Whether you are a workshop dancer or a competitive clogger, we can all walk away winners by spending time with fellow dancers in a spirit of fun and friendship.

Happy Clogging,

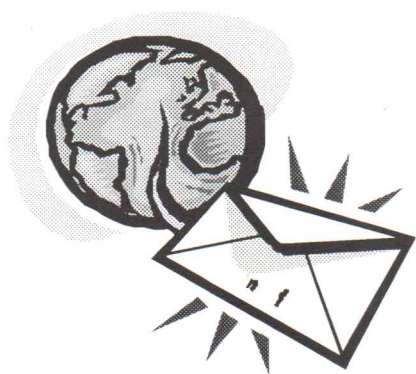

Jeff Driggs, Editor

Footnotes

Your letters, faxes and e-mails

The British are Clogging! The British are Clogging!

My name is John Clements. I teach dance and Western partner dance in England. I contacted The Double Toe Times three months ago to ask you to kindly put me in touch with any clogging teachers in Florida as I planned an upcoming trip. I was traveling over to meet some Canadian friends who are avid cloggers and we were keen to attend some events while we were there. You kindly mailed over an issue of your magazine and a comprehensive list of instructors.

Well, as a dance instructor, the magazine itself was of great interest. It opened my eyes to something that I had known very little about and is obviously very popular and well supported.

The Florida trip went ahead as scheduled and the magazine was very useful. In fact, in an attempt to be able to at least try clogging for myself, I called several instructors listed for the Florida area -- both to find out when and where classes were being held that I might attend. I also found the magazine useful in finding a place where I could buy taps to glue onto shoes, so that I had something close to clogs to wear.

Without exception, everyone I contacted on the telephone was very friendly and informative, even though they must have wondered why this fellow with a strange accent was contacting them. It seems the world of clogging is a very welcoming one, which must be one of the reasons why this dance form is so popular.

Because of being used to learning amalgamations of steps and movements in western dance, I think that -- with practice (and lots and lots of it) -- I may be able to clog. Of course, I am still struggling with your most important step, the Double Toe, but intend to keep trying to master that one now that I am back here in England, so that next time I am in the U.S.A. or Canada I might be able to attend another beginner class and feel a little more comfortable. Sad to say, although there are a few classes here in England, they are all too far away to attend. With the help of a few videos and clogging friends, I hope to learn a little myself and may perhaps have the opportunity to pursue clogging further at some time in the future.

Thank you once again Double Toe Times, for your kind help, and please contact me if there's ever anything you need from over here in the United Kingdom.

Dear John:

I am happy to hear that your visit to the United States was a good one and that the Double Toe Times helped to put you in touch with cloggers in Florida.

The clogging family is such a warm and hospitable group. I myself have been the guest of numerous wonderful clogging families and have made great friendships that I treasure.

You, John, have discovered what we have known for quite some time... cloggers are the friendliest bunch in the world!

Head For The Hills!

Hills of Kentucky Clogging Competition and Midwest Clogging Workshop

by Fonda Hill
Fort Mitchell, KY

The Midwest Clogging Workshop has quickly earned a reputation as the clogging social event of the year. The Hills of Kentucky and Hearts of Gold Cloggers host the annual event held at the Drawbridge Inn in Fort Mitchell, Kentucky. Our great Kentucky hospitality and passion for clogging has elevated our attendance to 1,200 dancers and spectators this past Thanksgiving weekend.

The workshop was an enormous victory. The dancers had the pleasure of choosing between four different halls -- including traditional -- for two full days of dancing. The magnificent staff of instructors made the decision very difficult. Teachers for the event included Scott Dobson - IN, Heather Eves - Canada, Michael Greutman - IL, Steve Harbin - KY, Bill Harkleroad - KY, Connie Huffman - IN, Bob Johnson - VA, Danny Lee - KY, Ken Lewis - KY, Evie Purdin-Pangburn - KY, Geoff Steele - WV, Stan Webb - MO, Mike Curtis - KY, Delohn Collins - OH and Rebecca Lee - TN. When the dancers felt the need to take a pause for the cause (tired feet that is) they were able to ponder through a plethora of vendors. We would like to thank our vendors

Hold the date for our 10th Anniversary!

for their continued support of this event. Our vendors included Perry's Place, Carl's Clogging Supply, Sports Wear and More, Fleetwood Promotions, Pat Harkleroad with House of Lloyd.

As the Friday workshops concluded, we all geared up for the evening events. Continuing our Friday night tradition, I announced the recipient of the Glenn Hill Award. This year the Hill family chose the Hills of Kentucky and Hearts of Gold Cloggers. We are a group with a powerful friendship. Our experience through ten years of clogging has brought extraordinary friends and a support system to each when in need.

With great expectation of the competition, we began with amateur individuals. I was electrified with the phenomenal competition staff: Adam Mowry - Emcee, Shannon Glass - Sound Technician, Judges Scott Dobson, Jeff Coffey and Todd Dove, Scorekeepers Missy Fuller and Spencer

Cadence Cloggers Win!

Amarillo, Texas Dancer Light Up Christmas Parade with Clogging

"Disco Christmas" received 2nd place in the 4th annual Christmas Electric Light Parade on December 1. Cadence Cloggers of Amarillo has participated in the parade every year since its beginning, but this is the first year they have placed. The dancers performed to "The Christmas Song (Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire)" by Christina Aguilera. This is the same routine that directors, C.D. Crady and Anne Moore, taught at the National Convention. The picture of the float appeared on the front page of the Amarillo Globe Newspaper on Saturday morning following the parade.

Cadence Clogger's membership of 60 dancers, ranges from age 2 to 90. Seventeen children and ten adults performed in the bitter cold; but that stopped neither the dancing, nor the fun.

Cadence Cloggers of Amarillo has become a staple in the performing arts community and regularly dances at local nursing homes and other charity events in the Texas Panhandle. They have also been guests in two school dance programs this year, performed for Frank Phillips College basketball game halftime entertainment, for North West Texas Hospital's annual Christmas Party, as well as appearing on a regular basis at the "Big Texan Opry."

Members of the Cadence Cloggers of Amarillo, Texas wave to the crowd of parade goers as they perform and take honors at the Electric Light Parade. The group, directed by C.D. Crady and Anne Moore perform regularly throughout the area.

10th Annual "Blistered Feet" Workshop

Cloggers Travel to Sault St. Marie Canada for an Annual Clogging Treat

by Duffy Brown-Schryer
Sault Saint Marie, Ontario, Canada

The 10th annual "Blistered Feet" Clogging Workshop was held October 10 and 11, 2000 at the Ramada Inn in Sault Saint Marie, Ontario, Canada. The instructors for the weekend were Charlie Burns, Connie Bartels, Paula Heskett, Shane Gruber, Angela Cameron, Paul Puckrin, Bob & Lynda Warner, Van Mullins, Duffy Schryer, and Debbie McWatty-Reid -- a Champion Canadian Step Dancer from Ottawa, Canada.

All of the instructors had great routines and step classes and everyone thought they did a great job. Many "blistered feet" were reported after the weekend!

Friday night's Trail-In Dance was enjoyed by a large crowd, as they danced many of their favorite routines and learn easy routines from Charlie, Van, Shane, Bob and Lynda.

Saturday's classes were kept on schedule with three halls offering instruction in basic, intermediate and advanced levels. Canadian step dance and Irish steps were also taught.

Saturday night the cloggers were presented with a great exhibition show that spotlighted the talents of the "blistered feet" staff along with several guest teams who attended the day's workshops. Teams attending included the Happy Cloggers from Thunder Bay, Wawa Cloggers from Wawa, Out Back Cloggers from Port Perry, Classy Cloggers from Elliott Lake, Thunder Floor Cloggers from Michigan, Homespun and CLA Cloggers from the Soo, Main Street Cloggers from Michigan. Following the exhibitions, the cloggers once again took for the floor for more fun dancing.

The 11th annual "Blistered Feet" workshop is scheduled for October 19 & 20th, 2001 at the Ramada Inn in Sault Saint Marie. Organizers promise even more fun and clogging with your favorite local and national instructors to leave your feet blistered.

The Mid-Winter Clog Dog Hog

Big Clogging Workshop with Big Name Offers Big Fun for the Whole Family

by Bob and Lynda Warner
Lake Odessa, Michigan

January 14th of 2000 was the date of the first annual Mid-Winter Clog Dog Hog held at the Lakeside Grange in Lake Odessa, MI. Drawing cloggers and the audience from Jackson, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Richland, Hastings, Delton, Dowling, Middleville, Caledonia, Greenville, Lowell, Cedar Springs, White Cloud, Stanton, Sheridan, Ionia, Crystal, Belding, DeWitt, Lansing, Potterville, Charlotte, Bellevue, Grand Ledge, Nashville, Clarksville, Freeport and Lake Odessa, it was a happening of such joyful noise that everyone who attended went away with a good and refreshing feeling in their hearts.

Lake Odessa, situated in the west central middle of the mit can be proud of the clogging school they have in their midst which is teaching a dance that is from our country's heritage. The Mid-Winter Clog Dog Hog grew out of an idea by Bob and Lynda Warner to have a dance for the cloggers in this area of Michigan for a break in the winter. The workshop was to be sponsored by the Corn Cob Cloggers and The Thunder Floor Cloggers and it got away and the thought grew into a fund raiser for Thunder Floor Cloggers stage fund and a festival for the public to see cloggers dance and perhaps pick up some steps themselves.

The registration was manned by volunteers from The Thunder Floor Cloggers at a table by the entry. To one side was a table loaded down with donated items for the auction to be held at 4:00 p.m. On another table were the items for the raffle to be drawn.

At 1:00 p.m. the opening ceremonies began. Mac

McCreery and his wife Louise brought out the American flag to the front of the main room. Bob Warner, CCI read a short article telling what happened to the 56 men who signed the Declaration Of Independence. Our Pledge Of Allegiance was then recited, lead by Bob Warner of Lake Odessa and Mac McCreery of Grand Ledge.

After the flag was brought to the other room the dancing began. In the second room were three tables set up laden down with all kinds of food to eat brought by dancers and audience alike. And there were a lot of people eating. In that room was a big television and comfy chairs for any of the spouses to sit who did not dance and preferred to watch the football games while their families clogged. In another spot was a small television for the wee ones who wanted to watch cartoons while the clogging was going on by their moms and dads or their brothers and sisters. For the people watching the games where the food was, there was no guilt feelings about watching the games. They even heard the games with all the sound of the cloggers.

The first hour and a half saw one song after another cued by Bob Warner at the front of the main room. The sound of 71 cloggers on a solid wood floor shook the rafters that day. In all there were 85 enthusiastic people at the Clog Hog. Shortly after 2:30 p.m. Mac taught a routine to 'Katie Wants A Fast One', an easy-going light hearted country song that everyone seemed to enjoy a lot.

After the first teach there was an auction conducted by The Colonel Mac McCreery. The auction was a fund raiser for The Thunder Floor Cloggers portable stage. The auction went very well and Mac was very entertaining. It was a treat to have such an entertaining person conducting the auction.

A second teach was begun by Bob Warner, CCI after the auction. Bob the clogger taught a honky tonk country tune by the Tractors called, 'Shortenin' Bread'. The teach was received well and it was quite an animated routine that had some 540 degree turns. After his teach there was continued eating and more clogging till it was time for the performances to be done by those who wanted to show off their routines. This included a dance shown by Maki Braun, CCI who wore her English clogs while doing a song of English waltz clog. The audience really liked her dance. She understands more than one type of clogging-English waltz, Irish Step, buck, flat-foot, shuffle, Canadian Step, and she is a good and personable instructor for people of all ages.

More clogging was done by the happy crowd after the performances were completed — including a rousing progressive dance done to 'Orange Blossom Special', which seems to be a favorite with the audience and a heart-pumper for the dancers. The day came to an end all too soon for the joyous dancers and watchers and closing time began when cleanup commenced at about 7:30 p.m.

The Thunder Floor Cloggers will be at the historic Ionia theater February 3 & 17, March 3, 17, and 31 at 4:30 p.m. Donations are at the door and appreciated. The monies go toward their portable stage.

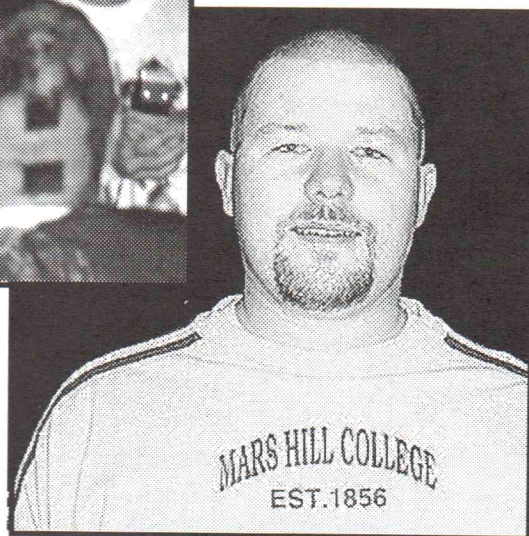

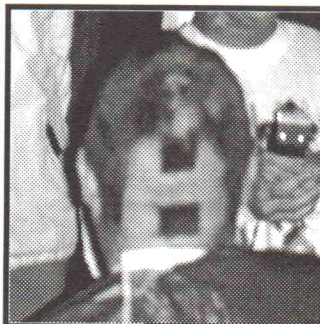

The clubs represented by their presence at the first Annual Mid-Winter Clog Dog Hog were the Gull Creek Cloggers, LA Cloggers, The Thunder Floor Cloggers, the Corn Cob Cloggers and the Maki Doodle Cloggers. The word from everyone who attended the Clog Hog was, "Are you having one next week too"? Not next week, but when the sun comes up on January 13, 2002 the Lakeside Grange will again brace itself for the onslaught of cloggers and audience who will be arriving for the 2 Annual Mid-Winter Clog Dog Hog and for one more day the rhythmic sound of feet and music will pour from the building.

Cloggers in the Spotlight

Maki Braun, of Michigan, performs a waltz clog dance at the first annual Mid-Winter Clog Dog Hog held at the Lakeside Grange in Lake Odessa, Michigan.

The workshop was held as a fundraiser for the Thunder Floor Cloggers dance floor fund. See the full story on pages 16 - 18.

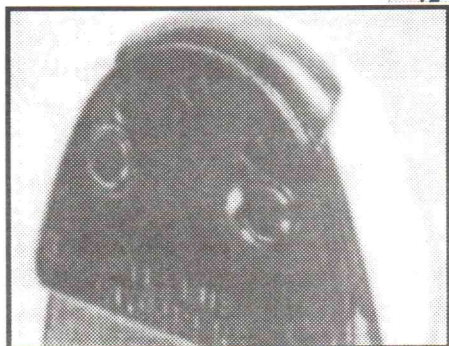

When Shannon Glass, of Surgionsville, Tennessee, bethis sister Sherry West's dancers -- the Tennessee Howdowners -- a head-shaving if they won back-to-back C.C.A. national championships, he never realized he would spend the next few weeks a little colder! The team prevailed in a tough dance-off and Shannon went under the razor!

A listing in the Double Toe Times exclusive Instructors and Dancers Directory entitles you to list your events, competitions and festivals in the Upcoming Events column free of charge. The Directory is also a valuable source for networking, marketing and promotion. A bullet (■) in front of the Instructor or dancer's name indicates that this person can, and does, promote old-time clogging and traditional dancing.
