FRONT AND CENTER

Come On, Get Happy!

We keep telling ourselves that we'll get to that long-needed vacation as soon as we get this set of classes finished. I am going to sort through my record and tape case as soon as we get all of these Summer performances out of the way.

Things will be so much better when I get this house the way I want it, when I get my act together in my relationships, when I find a better job. I'll be so much happier when I get organized, lose weight and quit worrying so much.

The truth is that life is all about decisions and challenges. If you are waiting to be happy, when are you going to get around to it? Alfred D. Souza said, "For a long time it had seemed to me that life was about to begin - real life. But there was always some obstacle in the way, something to be gotten through first, some unfinished business, time still to be served, a debt to be paid. Then life would begin. At last it dawned on me that these obstacles were my life." Learn to treasure every day for the joys that it brings, and don't miss out on life waiting to stage your own happiness.

So don't wait for the classes to end, for the Summer to be over, to lose that weight, to gain that weight, for the wedding, for the divorce, for the kids to grow up, for your mate to grow up, for you to grow up... start now to look at each day as a blessing and a chance to share the joy of dance and of living.

Shout hallelujah, come on... get happy!

Happy Clogging,

Jeff Driggs, Editor

Born on the Fourth of July

Thank you so much for the Double Toe Times!

The best clogger I ever saw was a gentleman from Havasu City, Arizona who was 82. So, on my 80th birthday this Fourth of July, I am going to see Michael Flatley's show at the New York, New York Casino in Las Vegas.

I love clogging, and your interesting magazine and talent keep us all in it!

Gratefully,
Velma (Vemmee) Taylor
N. Las Vegas, NV

Vale Walt Humphries

It was with great sadness that we learned of the passing of Walter Humphries.

We first met Walt in 1992 when we visited the United States for the National Clogging Convention and have fond memories of him proudly showing us Steve and Janet Smith's trophies that he cared for in "Ye Olde Cobblers Shop" in Lexington, Kentucky.

During a visit in 1996 we had reason to visit Walt and Audrey on their farm in Clay City with Steve Smith to pick up a pair of shoes. We had a lot of trouble finding the farm: We went to the right, we went to the left, we went straight ahead and turned around, so when we got back to Australia Judy named a step she choreographed in memory of that day. She called the step "Walt's Way."

We are indeed lucky to have memories and video footage of Walt taken during our visits as he showed us around his shop and farm. He was a big man in many ways, both physically and in spirit, with a sincere warmth that radiated from his smile and twinkling eyes.

He will be sadly missed and our thoughts are with Audrey and the rest of the family at this time.

We feel privileged to have known him and call him a friend.

Roger and Judy Hoyle
Judi - Assoc. Director of Colonial
Cloggers of South Australia
Adelaide
South Australia

Dear Roger and Judy:

I, too, knew Walt and was so saddened to hear of his passing. His wife, Audrey, had asked if I would sing a song at his service, but I was out of town at a clogging event when he passed. I feel so badly that I could not have been there with Walt's family and friends to share in a celebration of his life and his spirit.

What an honor that we are invited into the lives of so many wonderful people through clogging. I count you both as good friends as well and have enjoyed the welcome and friendship that you have shown on my trips down under.

Walt is one of many people in clogging who helped me to appreciate the simple joys of time spent with friends. His warmth and humor were always evident.

I understand that Walt was laid to rest in his Hee-Haw overalls and his straw hat. Even in death, Walt is still teaching those he knew -- to put on a smile and face each day with a loving heart, a warm smile and a kind word.

I will always remember Walt Humphries.

Editor

Remembering When

I saw the last few issues of DTT (April and May) and it looks like more people are remembering WHEN!

I think this is great. I hope more articles will appear from this.

There are so many people that have contributed to clogging that need to be written about.

2001 Nickel City Festival

Grand Island Festival Offers Great Workshops and Spectacular Show

By Elaine Brock
WNYCA Association Reporter

On a bright and sunny Spring weekend another wonderful "Nickel City" entered the pages of clogging history. April 19th launched the 15th annual Nickel City Festival, which was held at the Holiday Inn on Grand Island, New York, overlooking our mighty Niagara River, a stone's throw from the splendor of the American and Canadian Falls. Nickel City is proudly presented annually by the Western New York Cloggers Association, and we all eagerly look forward to participating in it every year. It just keeps getting better!

This weekend was a superb workshop with a magnificent staff of instructors; Sallie Adkins, Scotty Bilz, Charlie Burns, Jeff Driggs, Chip Woodall, Shane Gruber, and Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle, who were all given a warm Western New York welcome. Also lending their talents to this impressive group were: Shirley Brown, Dale Burl, Sonya Geister, Dorothy and Joanna Hoar, Sandy Holdway, Adam Mowry, Rick Smith, Lynda Vaadi, and Bruce Van Voorhis, who together presented many new and entertaining routines that everyone had a great time learning. Charlie Burns commented, "I've been doing the Nickel City Festival since '84 or '85 and this is my 12th year here. Nickel City is my favorite workshop - - I love it and the people. I told Ken Haley, festival director, that when I decide to retire this will be my last festival that I'll do - - this is where I'll end it all!"

Events began Thursday evening with open dancing and continued Friday with a trail-in dance and a great turn-out of enthusiastic cloggers (enough to fill two halls!) for the fun dances, teaches, and requests which filled the evening hours and made the time pass all too quickly. And of course, we can't forget our very own Irish master, Jeff Driggs, and his memorable hilarious rendition of Riverdance!! Also, on Friday evening, the very first annual Western New York Cloggers Association Hall of Fame Award was presented to Ken and Linda Haley, our festival directors, who introduced clogging to the Western New York area, and in recognition and appreciation for their many years of very active involvement in supporting and promoting clogging and our Nickel City

Festival. We are all so very proud of Ken and Linda and can't thank them enough for the wonderful opportunity they afforded all of us and the joy and happiness they brought to so many of us! An honorable mention was presented to Rick Smith for his contribution to clogging in our area, also. Among the many instructors present at the ceremony, Chip Woodall stated, "It was real exciting to be able to see Ken and Linda receive the 1st Annual WNYCA Hall of Fame Award, and also to be a part of the presentation. They are very special friends who did a lot for my career, and I appreciate that, and I'm thankful to them to be here. I met Ken and Linda in Fontana Village for the first time when I was around 14-years-old. They kind of groomed me into the clogging in New York State. I would also like to thank Gail and Paul Chapman for their many years of airport runs. Thank you all!!" And, Shane Gruber added, "I'm happy to be back again. This is my second time here and I hope to be back many more times. It's a great turn-out with dancers from all over attending. Nickel City is a huge workshop and a huge success. I wish Ken and Linda continued success and I was happy to see them being inducted into the WNYCA Hall of Fame. It was also nice to see the honorable mention recognition bestowed on Rick Smith. I enjoy all the people -- they are very supportive!"

In addition to the fine workshops, there is so much to do at Nickel City. Our cloggers' pool party Friday evening was filled to capacity, the vendors set up shop early and were kept very busy all weekend, the Holiday Inn's Fitness and Game Center, sauna and Jacuzzi were all occupied, and anyone with time to spare could visit the nearby outlet malls, Casino Niagara, or just do some sightseeing! Of course, before we knew it, Saturday morning arrived, and bright and early the 5 halls were soon filled with cloggers, complete with the sounds of taps, loud greetings, lots of laughter, and dancers rearing to go (continued on page 12) go! what a choice -- the workshop offered a wide variety of classes to choose from, beginner clogging through advanced, plus traditional, and also step dancing, for the over 600 dancers who traveled from far and near to attend. Door and raffle prizes were also handed out all day to the delighted winners. Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle stated, "This is my 2nd or 3rd time here, and I just love the workshop. It is a big workshop with a small town feel to it. There is so much great camaraderie here!" And, Scottie added, "It is real exciting to be back here with such a large group at such a large workshop. It is so cool that so many Yankees can clog!!" ... It was really great to see so many people enjoying themselves. Clogging festivals are such a highlight for the dancers, and an added benefit is to be able to attend one close by.

The highlight of the weekend was the Saturday evening presentation of our clogging show-extravaganza, "2001-A Dance Odyssey", which featured a cast of the Northeast's best cloggers. A total of 17 teams, comprised of 200 dancers, sang and danced their way through the history of dance from the past through the present, and thrilled the 700 viewers who attended the two sold-out shows. Thanks to the directorship, talent, and creativity of Cheri Truax, the show was a huge success. And, of course, after the shows there was more dancing to be had and get-togethers to attend!

An impressive display of talent was exhibited by all the participating groups, Almost Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Spa City Cloggers, Wyoming County 4-H Country Cloggers, Krazy Kanuck Kloggers, Renegade Cloggers, All Western New York Junior and Senior Teams, Adirondack Mountain Cloggers, Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Country Rock Cloggers, Erie Canal Cloggers, Tonawanda Cloghoppers, Backwoods Cloggers, Castle Country Cloggers, Still Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Traveling Shoes, Route 90 Express, vocalists Stephanie Adamczyk, Ray Ganoe, and Laura Sugg, plus cameo appearances by Adam Mowry, Tom Shinn, Pam Brody, Renee and Rick Cichocki, and Herb Brock. We thank all those who participated for making the evening shows so entertaining and enjoyable. Also, during the weekend Stephanie Adamczyk was announced as the recipient of the Phyllis Antos scholarship, and Shawna Driscoll, Ann Marie Dombrowski, and Rachel Kozlowski, as winners of the Western New York Cloggers Association scholarships. Congratulations to all the girls!

Our own Adam Mowry commented on the festival, "This is my roots out of all the workshops that I do. This is where I met the people that got me interested in clogging, especially Spencer Thompson, who for 12 years drove me to workshops all over the country where I learned so much. It's my hometown, and it's my favorite festival -- thanks to Ken and Linda Haley!" Many, many special thanks go out to Ken and Linda Haley, all their committee people, volunteers, and all the participants who worked so hard and did a fantastic job coordinating this year's festival. This event would not be a success without their service and dedication. Thank you to all who attended and supported our Nickel City. As Sallie Adkins says, "Even though the truck breaks down, it rains cats, dogs, pigs and horses -- but not men -- I still make it to one of my best workshops in the world -- one that I enjoy the best -- being with my New York family!" Come and meet our New York family, be a part of Nickel City next year, and join us on April 18, 19, and 20, 2002, again at the Holiday Inn, Grand Island, New York. We can hardly wait. You are all invited to join us!

Anna Wells - Flatfoot Champion

Virginia Woman Wins Honor at America's Cloggin Hall of Fame Spring Workshop

by Ray Wells - Norton, Virginia

The Stompin' Grounds in Maggie Valley, North Carolina, during the weekend of April 27-28, 2001, was the place to be if you clog dance, flat foot, line dance, square dance or any other style of mountain dance. The Stompin' Grounds is the home of the American Clogging Hall of Fame. We have been attending this workshop for a few years and we feel it is one of the few workshops which promotes and teaches the true and original old-time dance.

Anna Wells is a seasoned clogger and flatfooter. She flatfooted growing up at home in the 50's to the music of her parents before she learned to clog. Over the years she has worked hard helping others and watching others flatfoot dance. She has taught thousands her personal flatfoot style as well as clogging.

Growing up in the mountains of southwestern Virginia, Anna learned a lot while listening and dancing to the tunes of her father, Vilas Williams, who was an accomplished guitar and banjo player. Her mother Ella, was also an adept musician and dancer, often backing Anna's dad with flattop rhythm guitar. She was known to "hit a few old-time Charleston steps" with Anna and her two older sisters while working around the house. I guess this could explain one reason why Anna has grown up with "music in her soul and bones."

As she often comments, "I was a baby boomer, listening and dancing to the music of Elvis, Ricky Nelson, Fabian, and the Beatles, while my Dad played his old-time and bluegrass music. As I grew older, I began to pay attention to Daddy's music and my feet began to tap to the old time sound. I guess somewhere in all this I realized that it was a part of my heritage that became important to me."

In 1977 her family became involved in the community hosting weekend music jam sessions at a local log cabin. It was here that she found that the music and dance complemented one another. She and a neighbor girlfriend found a teacher who gave them their first lessons in mountain-style square dancing and clogging. They found a clogging workshop in Fontana Village, NC, where they were well on their way to becoming contagiously afflicted with this disease called, "clogging."

Many changes have been made through the 24 1/2 years in which Anna has been dancing traditional Appalachian dance. Her original girlfriend partner left shortly after they started the Virginia Sugarcane Cloggers in Norton, but Anna continued to teach and perform the traditional Appalachian mountain style dance. In 1983, Anna entered her first and last clogging competition with her clog team, the Virginia Sugarcane Cloggers, in the Universal Clog Championships held at Fontana Village, NC. Their efforts brought home 7 second-place trophies - 6 for duets and 1 for the team. She says that, although it was very exciting, it was so stressful that it takes the fun out of dancing, so she does not enter team competition any more. However, solo competitions are a little different.

This year was her second year to enter the solo flatfoot competitions in Maggie Valley, NC. Last year, she competed and came in second overall in the flatfoot competition. This year, she decided to try again, and won the grand prize, the 2001 American Clogging Hall of Fame Flatfoot Championship. What a thrill and honor after having been in the dance for nearly 25 years. This was her first BIG trophy, and "it feels good", she says. Anna says of her winning experience, "I really did not allow myself to think of competing with others or trying to out-dance them - when I hear good, flat foot music, I just allow the music to move me and listen to the rhythmic patterns to which I can move my feet. I don't think of any "steps" that I want to do or have anything "choreographed" or "memorized".

I believe dancing to the rhythm of the music is a natural, God-given talent, and I credit my talents to the Lord. I teach my students a simple logo which applies perfectly to flatfooters and free-stylers. It says, "music creates spirit, and spirit makes the feet move."

Dos and don'ts for vocal performers

The following dos and don'ts were prepared by two New York speech/language pathologists, Lynda A. Marvin and Shirley Tennyson, for the New York area speech recognition users group. Dr. Marvin noted in addressing the group, which is part of the NYPC users group, that professional voice users need to take care of their voices just as actors, singers and other vocal performers do.

Don't

Don't yell, scream, shout, laugh (or weep) raucously.

Don't clear throat or cough violently and repeatedly.

Don't compete vocally with loud background noise of any kind, including traffic, planes, trains, music, TV, loud conversation.

Don't speak for prolonged periods outside of your comfortable pitch and loudness range.

Don't make odd vocal sounds, such as imitating machinery, animal noises, "funny" voices.

Don't use a "stage whisper" to save your voice.

Don't use your voice unnecessarily when suffering from upper respiratory illness or extreme fatigue.

Don't smoke anything!

Don't linger in dusty, smoky or fume-filled areas.

Don't take over-the-counter antihistamines, decongestants or aspirin before professional voice use without consulting your physician.

Don't use heavily mentholated throat lozenges (glycerine is preferable).

Don't hold your breath or grunt while engaging in strenuous activity such as lifting, pushing, pulling.

Don't eat a heavy or spicy meal shortly before retiring.

Do

Do use your voice sparingly, especially on days of heavy rehearsal or performance.

Do cool your voice down after performance or heavy use.

Do get adequate rest, nutrition and exercise even (and especially) when traveling or on tour.

Do drink plenty of fluids, particularly water, before and during professional voice use.

Do limit your intake of caffeine and avoid alcohol when rehearsing or performing.

Do humidify your environment.

Do maintain good posture and learn to detect and release excessive tension in face, throat, neck and shoulder muscles as you speak (check out your telephone posture, too).

Do, when speaking, replenish your breath often enough so that you are not straining by the end of a phrase.

Do use legato (connected) speech: learn to speak smoothly without hard onset of vowels and link your words together as in singing.

Do vary speech rate and inflection (pauses) rather than increasing loudness to gain and hold attention.

Do, if possible, use nonverbal "attention getters" like waving, clapping, tapping someone, etc., rather than your voice.

Do become a better listener; encourage others to speak and increase your ratio of listening to talking.

Do, when listening, keep your teeth slightly separated, with a slight lip opening, and avoid extending neck and jaw.

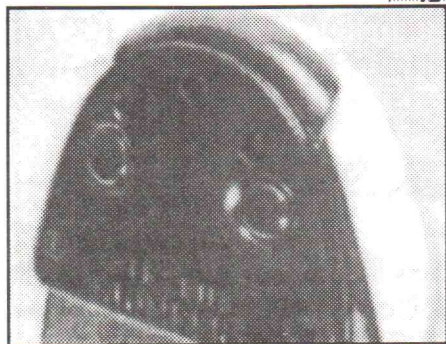

Do attend to emotional problems that cause tension and anxiety.

Do seek appropriate professional help for problems that threaten your vocal health.
