FRONT AND CENTER

Live in the Sunshine

Farther along we'll know all about it.

Farther along we'll understand why.

Cheer up, my brother. Live in the sunshine.

We'll understand it all by and by.

On Tuesday, September 11 the heart of America was pierced by the unspeakable acts or terrorism brought upon our great nation. We are now left to pick up the pieces, to try to return to our daily lives -- ever mindful that from this point forward the world is forever changed.

Following the tragedy, our nation put it's pasttimes on hold. Our ball games were cancelled, Broadway was dimmed and our country joined together to mourn the loss of innocents, to comfort the grieving families and to celebrate the American spirit so graciously demonstrated by the rescuers who gave their lives to save others and passengers who fought as soldiers to ensure the safety of countless others.

Our president and others have urged us to get back to our lives and not to let the terrorists win by disrupting our American way of life. Talking heads on television tell us we need to come together as groups to celebrate American life and to show the world that, although our hearts may be broken, our spirit is not. Others say it is too early. To go about play and art at this time is not appropriate considering our loss as a people.

The Bible says in Ecclesiastes: "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; A time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance."

The purpose of terror is to intimidate people from carrying on their lives and their culture openly and without fear. Our rich heritage has weathered wars both abroad and on our own soil. Our perserverance has blessed us with prosperity and a strength of national character that cannot be stifled by a group of cowards bent on destroying the gift of freedom that God has given us.

Now is our time to dance. We must live in the sunshine. Use this time of patriotism and love of country to embrace what it is that makes our country great. Use clogging as a means to bring joy to people and show the world that our culture and resolve is strong. We will prevail. We are America.

Happy Clogging,

Jeff Driggs, Editor

Wishes for America from our clogging family

To all our Clogging Partners, their family and friends.

At a time like this it is hard to find the right words.

We are deeply shocked by the events of the last days and our thoughts and prayers are with you.

We would like to extend our deepest sympathies to you, your family, your loved ones and all the American people.

*Thorsten Kropf and family
Spiky Brush, Salzburg
1st Austrian Clogging Club*

This is really hard for me and I hope I can find the right words.

We all were shocked when we saw the pictures from New York and from Washington. We would like you all to know that in these difficult times you are in our thoughts and we pray for the all of the American people.

God bless you and your families.
God bless America.

*Pia and Stefan Volk
and the Country Diamonds
Germany*

I just wanted to send a line to my American friends to let you know that I am thinking of you in this horrible, tough time and wishing you well. I hope that all of your families are safe.

Editor's note:

The tragedy that occurred in America on September 11 was directed not only at us, but at all freedom loving people of the world. Clogging is a bridge that brings people together from all walks of life. Your thoughts and prayers during this time mean so much to all of us. We are so blessed to have this clogging family around the world.

Like a Charm

I was wondering if you or your readers knew of anywhere that I could find a clogging charm, maybe a tap or shoe, etc. to go on a charm? I have been looking for this for some time. Also, is there any source in clogging for trophies with clogging figures on them such as a shoe or a tap?

Celeste Smith

Dear Celeste:

Please check with our vendors in this issue. Several of them carry clogging charms. Also, there are tap shoe charms advertised on the internet. Just type tap charm in your search engine and see the several that come up.

Parrott's Custom Trophies advertises in this issue and has a variety of clogging related items to help you promote your activities!

KENTUCKY STATE CLOGGING CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 16th annual Kentucky State Clogging Championships was held on Saturday, September 1, 2001 at the Thoroughbred Center in Lexington, Kentucky. Dancers from 7 different states were on hand to vie for more than $4,000 in trophies and cash prizes including a nearly eight foot tall grand championship trophy!

The Tennessee Hoedowners of Surgoinsville, Tennessee took top honors in the contest in a tight dance off that included Taps in Motion and Chaos from Kentucky.

A special award is given to the top scoring state team - making them the "Kentucky State Champion." The top scoring Kentucky team was Taps in Motion, directed by Jamie Conyers.

Plans are already underway for the 17th annual Kentucky State Clogging Championships and dancers can expect expanded age divisions, more than 20 categories of dance and a larger stage and dressing facilities.

Other winners from the day's competition included:

A Tribute to the Elm City Cloggers

by Barbara Rozett
Branford, Connecticut

At the end of the summer, I will be leaving my home in Branford, Connecticut, where I have lived for over 25 years. It hardly seems possible that this chapter in my life is soon to come to a close. But even more than that, it is beyond any comprehension that I can hope to have, when I think of leaving behind the dear and wonderful people who have filled this chapter of my life.

As the days now become shorter, the time becomes closer when I will be bidding a very tearful good-bye to my beloved Elm City Cloggers. When I think of the past fifteen years, and the role that this wonderful group of women have played in my life, I am filled with such an abundance of many, many things—of joy at having known each and every one of them, of sadness at having to leave them behind, of gratitude for the times we have spent together, and of wonder at the strength that the true bonds of friendship have given to us all.

This group has been, without saying, loyal, dedicated and hard working. One need only see the flying feet of “my girls” to know how hard each and every one of them has worked to make our group what it is today.

But our group goes far beyond frilly costumes and busy feet. We started out dancing together, but we became much more than a group of dancers. With each practice, with each rehearsal, with each performance, our friendships became stronger, and deeper. With the passing of days, came the passing of many things in our lives. We have rejoiced together in the births of children, of grandchildren. We have seen sickness together, we have shared times of sorrow, times of joy, we have been happy together, we have seen times of fear together. We have faced the brightest of brightest moments, and we have seen the darkest side of the moon. We have hoped, we have shared, and we have prayed together.

Tribute to Elm City Cloggers

This group, has been, to me, the kind of group that dreams are made of. They have supported me when I have needed support. They have made me laugh on those days when I thought I might never laugh again. They have not only held me up, when I was almost down, but they have picked me up when I have fallen, and even more than that, they have made me dance, at times when I was so terribly numb that it ached to even move.

We have made each other dance... and my most sincere hope is that we will continue to dance the dance of life, wherever it may lead us, and whatever that dance may be.

I cannot say thank you to this very unique and special group, because there are no words that can convey my thanks I can never say good-bye. I can only leave them with the love and the memories that we all share, and with the knowledge that each and every one of them has made such a difference in my life.

And, if I, in some small way, have given them anything at all, it is my most heartfelt hope that they always remember the love that we all found for one another, through the wonderful gift of dance. And above all, despite everything, may they all continue to keep dancing... as fast as they can.

Cloggers Exceed Goals

Carter County Cloggers Raise Funds For American Cancer Society

by Bill Robinson
Grayson, Kentucky

The Carter County Cloggers, of Grayson, Kentucky, exceeded all of their goals this year in raising funds for the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life.

The cloggers raised over $8,000.00 this year to benefit the charity's event designed to celebrate survivorship and raise money for your American Cancer Society.

The Carter County Cloggers were a corporate sponsor of the Relay for the first time this year. The Relay is held not only to raise money for the American Cancer Society, but to increase awareness to the needs of thousands who are suffering from this disease and to celebrate the thousands who have survived due to the advances made in treatment and research which is leading to great strides in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer.

Relay teams spend twelve hours from 7:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. walking on a track in an overnight event that is to symbolize the fact that cancer never sleeps and is always present.

The Carter County Cloggers were presented several awards this year including the best decorated campsite and the team spirit award. The group's team captain was presented the award for "Volunteer of the Year" for the second year in a row.

The Carter County Cloggers work year-round to raise funds for the Relay by hosting dances, raffles, bucket brigades and many other activities.

This year they will be kicking off their fund-raising efforts with a clogfest and chili cook-off on October 6, 2001 at the Old Time Farm Machinery Showgrounds just South of Grayson, Kentucky. The event will include lots of fun dances, mini workshops and exhibitions.

The Carter County Cloggers had performed at the Relay for Life for several years and decided two years ago to start their own Relay team. The group is proud to be a part of this great event and enjoy the time together doing something to help their community.

Nightly Fun
Dances!!!

Cloggers Can Make a Difference

Fund Raising Ideas to Help Your Team Raise Funds for its own Needs or to Help Others

Aluminum Cans

Collect cans and flatten them in a race to see who can collect the most for the recycling center. The money from the center can be used to treat contest winners to prizes.

Bake-Off

Sponsor a bake-off among your club members. This could become a fund-raiser where your club could charge an entry fee and the winner would get half the pot and members vote on which they think is best. After the competition, sell the baked goods during a break in the club night or dance.

Bake Sale

Club members bake food and arrange to sell treats at schools or at local events. This project is most successful when planned for the holidays.

Barbecue Dinners

This is an especially good project to do during the early fall. Food usually can be secured wholesale. This project would be ideal before a dance or recital. Sell tickets prior to the dinner, and make sure you promote the event.

Buttons

Purchase a button making kit and sell buttons with clogging related slogans or the team's name or "I am Tina's Mom", etc..

Car Smash

An old car usually will be donated to a club by a service station or a junk yard (or ask members of your group who may be connected to someone in the car industry). This is great to do in a town that is big on sports. Just paint the name of a rival team and removing the glass, the club can charge a fee for each swing at the car with a sledgehammer. Publicity and active support of school are extremely important.

Car Washes

Shopping centers or gas stations usually will provide a place for this sure profit maker. Sell tickets in advance, and promote the event heavily.

Carnival Night

A hall or auditorium can be decorated to suit the theme of the carnival. You can offer a range of activities, such as a cake walk and weight guessing. Sell refreshments and provide entertainment too.

Chili Cook-Off

These are very popular. Whether your club just participates by being an entry in a cook-off or actually organizes a contest, you can raise funds. These can be fun but will require a lot of work and planning.

Concession Stands

Many clubs operate concession stands for parades, fairs, festivals, athletic events, plays, or other school functions. This activity can be very lucrative and should be investigated as a possible project. You may wish to divide your proceeds with the sponsor to demonstrate your support and appreciation for allowing you to be a part of its event.

Dances

Your Club can sponsor a dance and invite other cloggers and clubs from your area. This is a good money maker if it's promoted well.

Easter Bunnies or Peanut Butter Eggs

Selling chocolate bunnies at Easter time can be a successful project. Contact a local vendor. Selling with a pre-order, pre-pay basis can cut down on surplus bunnies.

Face Painting

Set up a face painting booth at games, carnivals, etc.

Flea Market

Collect "junk" from members, people in your neighborhoods, and families, and sell them at a flea market.

Florida Fling

Sponsor a Florida Fling — a dance with a Sunshine State theme. Write to cities in Florida and travel agencies to get posters to decorate the gymnasium. When students buy tickets to this event, they receive a shirt with the Florida Fling logo on it. Participants come to the dance ready for the beach. Similar themes include Caribbean Cruise, Mexican Fiesta, and Hawaiian Luau, etc.

Halloween Party

Sponsor a community Halloween Party for kids in a local gymnasium. Urge parents to allow the kids to attend the party, and provide an entertaining evening for everyone, donating your collections to a UNICEF fund.

Haunted House

Work with a mall to see if it has an open room. Choose a theme. Secure materials, assistance in building, and working the event. This makes a great fund-raiser around Halloween.

Holiday Bazaar

A holiday bazaar open to the public is a great fund-raiser. Secure a location, sell spaces — including concessions area —, arrange for set-up and take-down helpers, decorations, and a radio announcement. Local craftsmen count on the same date each year, which seems to ensure a successful turnout.

Lock-In

Have an over-nighter at your studio. Watch movies, go swimming, have fun. This event takes a great deal of planning and adult support if you have young dancers and their friends involved, so make sure you're organized.

Pancake Breakfast

A pancake breakfast can be a high profit fund-raiser. It also can be fun and is easy to organize. Don't overlook the sale of placemat advertising. The income derived from ad sales often exceeds the breakfast receipts.

Rummage Sale

This is a very popular sale of used odds and ends. The collection of goods can be made door-to-door or solicited through ads.

Save or Shave

Choose a willing team member, who is ready to donate his beard for a fund-raiser. Club members then vote with money whether the beard should be saved or shaved. It is shaved at a dance function.

Spice Up Your Dances

A good way to add fun to your dances is to use an overhead projector. For a dollar, people send messages, which are projected onto a wall. For example, one message might read: "Mary, will you dance with me?—John." "John, yes, I've been waiting all night for you to ask. — Mary" It's suggested that someone proofread the messages to prevent hurt feelings or improper language.

Thons

Sponsor a dance — a — thon, rock — a — thon, bowl — a — thon, game — a — thon, swing — a — thon, etc.
