FRONT AND CENTER

Looking Back

Twenty years ago, the Double Toe Times started as a newsletter for cloggers, and has grown to thousands of readers throughout the United States and 14 foreign countries.

Twenty years ago, this editor began clogging with a group in his native West Virginia and began a love affair with this dance that has grown to keep me busy throughout the year.

I wrote this poem in 1982. Twenty years ago.

To Dance

To Dance

*To meet the floor with graceful brush,
And bounce so high the heavens find.
Where shoe and steel will break the hush,
And rhythms speak from depths of mind.*

To Dare

*When friends protest and peers complain,
You don your shoes and dancing start,
And from within your soul proclaim,
Led by the music of your heart.*

To Dream

*How would life be different then,
If men of vision had not tried,
To find the step not seen again,
by energy the art supplied.*

To Die

*When life is o'er, the dance is done.
Into the light we find our way.
Wait not 'til then, now is begun
The daring dance we dream today.*

Your letters, faxes and e-mails

Judi, Judi, Judi

I just have to add my two cents about the "joy" of clogging and the laughter some people seem to evoke at the mere thought or our "hillbilly tap dance." (Editorial - Clogging for Joy, December 2001 Issue DTT) I attended the Ten Toe Percussion performance or Ira Bernstein's on Sanibel January before last. This took place at the Barrier Island Group Arts Center (better known as "Big Arts"), and the crowd appeared to be a very high class of people, if I do say so myself.

I sat front row center beside a reporter who had flown in from Nashville, Tennessee to do a story on Ira. As you may or may not know, Ira does practically every form of percussive dance to perfection. From lyrical tap, jazz tap, African boot dancing, flat footing and even good ole' Appalachian style drag slide clogging, Ira performed each with his own style and flair. I can attest to the fact that the loudest applause was for the clogging style that we all do in one degree of expertise or another. The crowd was mesmerized by every dance he did, but I loved the clogging most of all.

I cringe when I hear someone put us down, but if we all keep it up we will show the world what a joy it is to clog!

Judi Revercomb
Florida

Dear Judi:

There is no question that our brand of clog dance has suffered from a collective identity crisis. Historians like Bascom Lamar Lunsford and "Pappy" Lloyd Shaw devoted their lives to documenting the clog dance and its music and preserving for the world this truly unique art form. Sure there are less than polished performing groups, but as a whole, cloggers bring a level of energy and showmanship to their performances that few dance forms can match.

Thanks for helping to spread the good news about clogging!
Editor

A Touch of Class

I think it would be nice for people who travel to know the practice days and location of the clogging instructors you list in the Double Toe Times. This would be a great way to meet cloggers around the world as we travel. Maybe list it once a year and only for clubs that want to give out this info.

Frank & Verah Barberine

Dear Frank and Verah:

Great idea! In the past we have listed classes just as you have mentioned, but because they change so often it is difficult to keep up. In our May issue we plan to offer a Summer Clogging Guide. Teachers, send us your class times for the May issue!

Looking Back... the Double Toe Times in January 1991

THE DOUBLE TOE TIMES

Volume 9, Number 1

A Clogging Magazine

January 1991

Out with the New — In with the Old!

The year 1990 yields to a clean new slate as yet unmarked by highs and lows, goods and bads, wins and losses. 1991. What will it bring?

Our Clog Dance was, at it's inception, simply a regional shared-by-imitation wonderfully delightful dance for anyone, young or old.

Today it is still an intriguing, lively, dance (with many variations) still for anyone providing they are not intimidated by youth, expertise, video-cameras and bright lights.

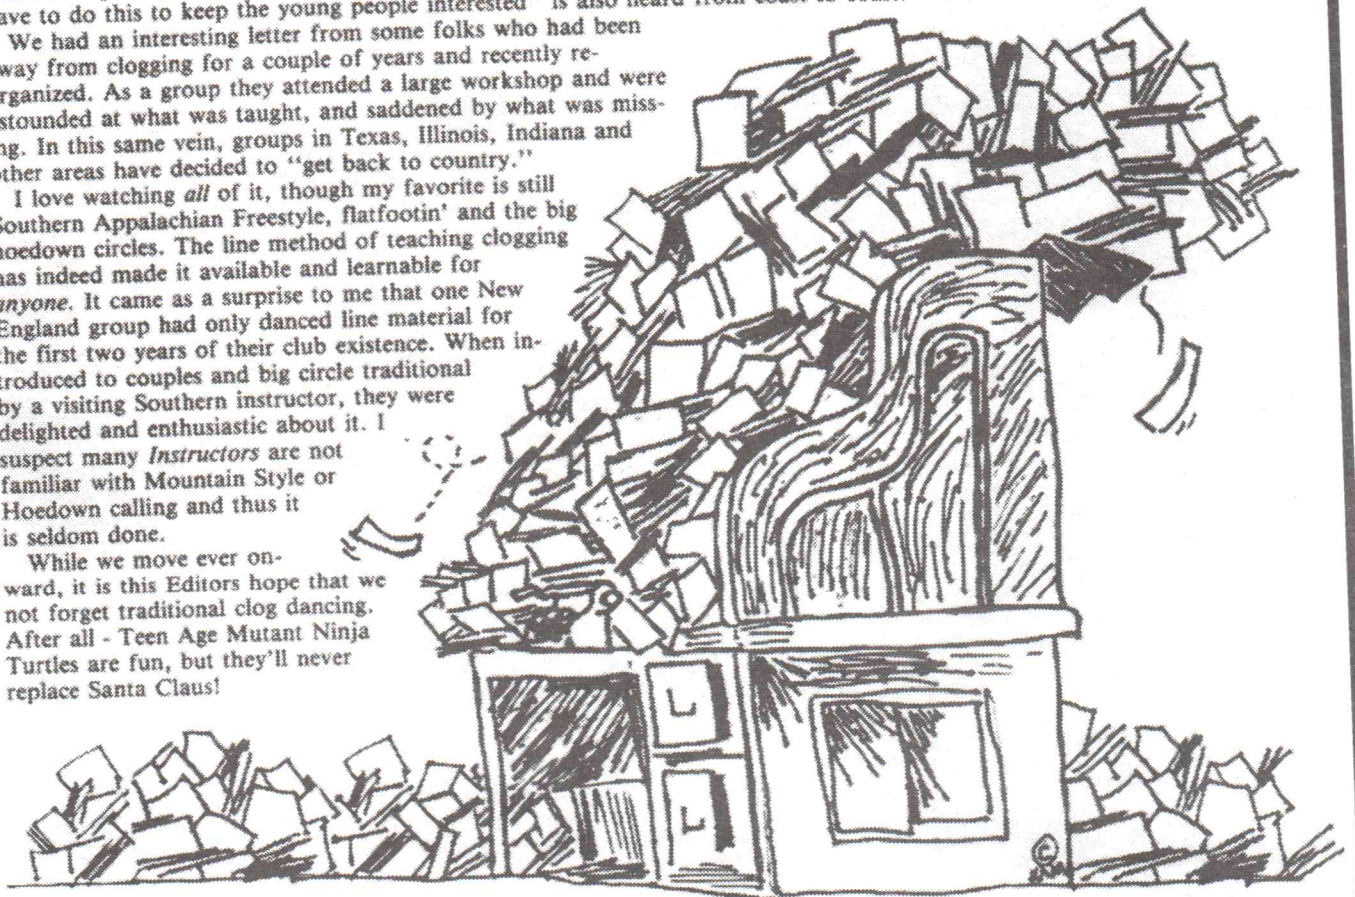

The year 1990, in retrospect, was a year of phenomenal growth in some sections of the U.S. and Canada in sheer numbers of new dancers. The many times repeated "I saw Cloggers at the County Fair and just had to learn how to do it!" is heard from coast to coast. Performances and Competitions charge up the adrenaline of both the dancers and the audience. There are those whose total clogging commitment is one class night a week and others who would clog seven nights (and days) a week, given the opportunity.

Our Choreographers and Instructors have added Canadian Step Dancing, Tap, Jazz moves, lifts and stunts, and cheerleading body movements to disco, rock-n-roll, reggae, hard-rock and rap music. The often repeated phrase "we have to do this to keep the young people interested" is also heard from coast to coast.

We had an interesting letter from some folks who had been away from clogging for a couple of years and recently re-organized. As a group they attended a large workshop and were astounded at what was taught, and saddened by what was missing. In this same vein, groups in Texas, Illinois, Indiana and other areas have decided to "get back to country."

I love watching all of it, though my favorite is still Southern Appalachian Freestyle, flatfootin' and the big hoedown circles. The line method of teaching clogging has indeed made it available and learnable for anyone. It came as a surprise to me that one New England group had only danced line material for the first two years of their club existence. When introduced to couples and big circle traditional by a visiting Southern instructor, they were delighted and enthusiastic about it. I suspect many Instructors are not familiar with Mountain Style or Hoedown calling and thus it is seldom done.

While we move ever onward, it is this Editors hope that we not forget traditional clog dancing. After all - Teen Age Mutant Ninja Turtles are fun, but they'll never replace Santa Claus!

Michigan Clogging Groups Joins in Ohio Festival

Submitted by Bob Warner, CCI
Thunder Floor Cloggers
Lake Odessa, MI

About three years ago I received word of the Bob Evans Farm Festival in Rio Grande, OH 12 miles from West Virginia on Hwy 35. This is the last festival of the year for the Bob Evans Farms. The first year I looked at the information I received from Lee Adams and wondered what it was about. (Lee Adams is the coordinator for the Ohio cloggers at the Ohio State Fair.) The second year we wanted to go but the trip had to be put off for another year.

We set the thoughts of the trip aside and worked the next year building The THUNDER FLOOR CLOGGERS organization. As October 12th drew close seven of The THUNDER FLOOR CLOGGERS had decided to go and we made reservations at the Days Inn in Jackson, OH. The dancers going were Bill and Neva Jones of Battle Creek, MI: Karen Moore of Goebels, MI: Nancy Beckwith of Hastings, MI: Lois Jackson, Bob and Lynda Warner of Lake Odessa, MI. We had performance class that Thursday night in our barn and left Friday morning about 3 am in the rain.

We all agreed that this weekend was very enriching and what happened for us and other people confirmed our convictions that God is a clogger.

On our way east I was leading down I-94 as we took two vehicles. Bill, Neva and Lois were behind us. It was raining cats and dogs and I missed the US-23 South exit off of I-94. I didn't realize I had missed it, but I knew Bill was not behind me. A little later I saw a sign that said 275 South-Toledo. I took that exit and I realised that Bill turned south on US-23.

275 goes a bit on the east part of Toledo and US-23 skirts Toledo on the west side. About right in the middle of the way through Toledo we got stuck in a big traffic jam because of a car accident. I told everyone in the car that, Bill, I pointed to the south west, was over on US-23 and having no trouble. As we sat there we started to think about how we were going to get the two vehicles together again. We then became aware that we hadn't given anyone in the other car the hotels telephone number or the street address. Also we had two cell phones in our car and one in Bill's and no-one knew each others cell phone number. I hope you all reading this don't become wary of my organizational abilities.

We got through Toledo and passed the spot where I-75 & US-23 at 275, where Bill supposedly had passed ahead of us. Moving on down US-23 we all were doing some praying that all of us could find each other. As we went east out of Findly, OH we still did not see the second car. I was pushing the speed limit because I felt that Bill had to be ahead of us.

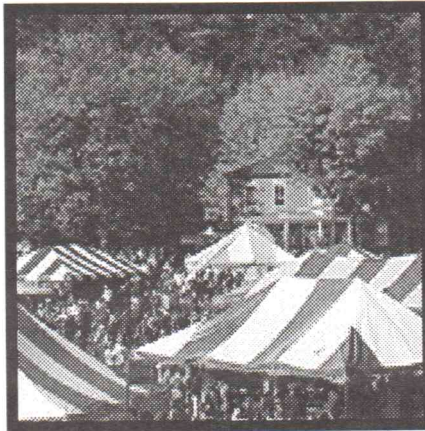

I don't remember the name of the town, but I looked in front of me and there was Bill. He had just come onto the highway from a ramp. They had stopped twice to wait for us and then they got lost in the little town just before entering the highway.

We had bought lots of food with us so we stopped in a rest stop and ate under an overhang that was over a table. We had lots of food, lots of diesel truck noise, and rain. It was fun.

We arrived in Jackson, OH at the Days Inn at 2:30pm. We went to the Wal-mart down the road, where Neva couldn't leave the store because the alarm kept going off on account of her K-mart shoes. Back at the hotel Bill, Neva, Lynda and I decided that we needed 20 minutes of shut eye. We told the girls in the other room that, but they only gave us 10 minutes and invaded our room wanting to eat some more. It was fun.

After a while we went to a big porch by the pool where everyone except Lynda and I did some practicing. There were people sitting in the parking lot watching us. People in a restaurant were watching too. Then an older man came up to the fence and watched us. He really liked what we were doing. He went somewhere and returned with a woman. We found that they were east coast

Michigan Cloggers Perform in Bob Evans Festival

swing dancers. They told us they were from Columbus , OH. He was a retired teacher and she did crafts. She was set up at Bob Evans Farms. I asked her how long it took to get into the crafts show at the Bob Evans Farm Festival and she said, "15 years". We danced Shortenin' Bread on one side of the fence and they danced to it on the other side of the fence. They looked nice and I saw some moves we could incorporate into our clogging.

The next morning, Saturday, we arrived at the farm about 10am. The cloggers started at 10am. After walking through the cow chute that is under Hwy 35 from the parking lot, we saw some of the Katy Did Cloggers from Heartland, MI. By the amount of perspiration dripping off of them they must have put on a good show. As far as I know , The Katy Did Cloggers and The THUNDER FLOOR CLOGGERS were the only Michigan teams represented.

It didn't take long for the high to set in for us. We found the Katy Did Cloggers went on at 10am. We were slated for 12:20pm. By the time we were ready to go onstage there was shoulder to shoulder people for a long ways. The colors on the trees were at their peak. Bob Evans Farms, nestled in the hills of color with 1500 camper's occupied rigs that spread out west through the valley, a long ways lined up as if they were for sale. West of the campground was the stage the bands played on back in a hollow for campers and people in general. 3000 people would be sitting on the sides of the hills Friday and Saturday nights.

During the day the cloggers danced on a stage that was about 40x40 feet. North of that stage was a stage for the bluegrass, country and gospel performers used at the same time. Beside that stage were dozens of children sliding downhill on cardboard boxes. I guess

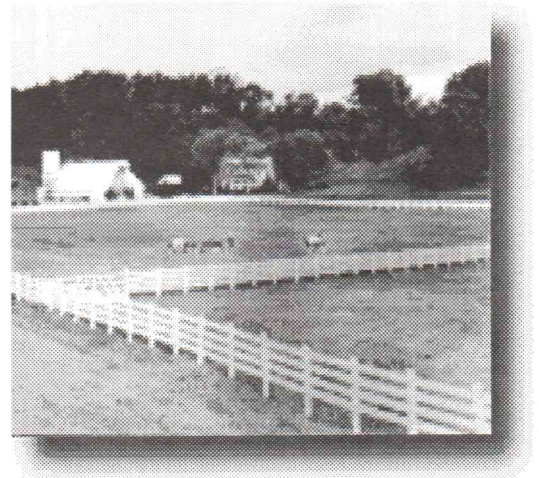

I'll take a mini-boggin down with us next year. God says we are children. It was fun.

While it rained in Michigan on Saturday , the temperature was 80 degrees and the sun shone down at Bob Evans Farm. Some folks we know from Lake Odessa and Woodland, Jerry & Carol Engle and Ron & Norien Enz, who are clogging fans, came down to Bob Evans to take in the festivities and see one of the biggest and best craft shows going. Plus watching us.

Another odd thing happened. I was bending over putting some things in our bag and I saw some feet beside me and a woman's voice say, " We wondered if you guys would be here, Bob". I stood up and a woman who was about as tall as I am stood there. I knew her but I couldn't say her name. I was shocked. She got a big hug from me. Just then I heard my wife say, "Who's that woman hugging my husband". Jeannette Miller of Caledonia and Lynda were friends in high school. Jeannette and Eldon were at Bob Evans Farm sort of by accident.

Lee Adams, who organized the clogging portion of the festival, told me that the crafters hug her with tears in their eyes because the cloggers attract so many people. And she is right. Cloggers attract audiences. There were 18 teams on Friday, 18 teams on Saturday and 18 teams on Sunday. 60,000 people went through the farm that weekend. I beleive that as long as Bob Evans has cloggers at the farm fest, Bob Evans and everyone associated with Bob Evans will be blessed. For God's a clogger.

Towards 5pm on Saturday Lee Adams called all cloggers to join her group on the stage. She called Lynda and I up there and we stood in back.

While we stood there a couple of fella's started to do flatfoot clog. I thought to myself that if I was going to get up there I'd better start moving my feet. I started clogging in the back row and the ladies pushed me up to the front. It was wonderful. It was fun.

Then Lee directed Lynda and I to the front and we all danced to Ida Red. Again-it was fun. Lee Adams then asked if we knew Rocky top. Of course, we said, "Yes". But Lynda then told her that we knew a different one. Lee said, "It doesn't matter-stay right in front." Lynda and I danced the routine by Darl Morland and the Ohio cloggers did the one by JoAnn Gibbs.

All of us from Ohio, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Michigan who participated learned so much. It would be impossible to learn in a workshop or a school what we drank in with the eyes that weekend. Besides the clogging, there was the food booths, the crafts, and a lot of exhibits and demonstrations in old time work and play by local families. It not only was enriching and fun but the words are 'Incredibly Worth It'.

When I see a festival such as this I get a feeling for what can be done. We are in the process of planning the 2nd Annual Mid-Winter Hot Dog Clog Hog for Janurary 12th and 13th 2002. This is a festival open to the public and clogging teams of Michigan and the surrounding states. The event will be centered at the Lakeside Grange west of Lake Odessa,MI on M-50. We hope to see you or somewhere out on the clogging floor!

Calling All Kid Cloggers!

Festival Looking For Young Dancers for Week of Shows

Silver Dollar City in Branson, Missouri hosts the annual Kid's Fest each summer that highlights the talents of a wide variety of youth in arts, crafts and -- of course -- clogging! Teams are hand selected to be a part of this prestigious performance venue and auditions are now underway for the 2002 Summer program.

Blake Bartlett and Heather Bartlett-Kohberger, of Lilburn, Georgia coordinate the clogging program and develop a show that highlights the many faces of percussive dance. "The Championship Cloggers Show is not your ordinary clogging performance," said Heather Bartlett-Kohberger. "It's a production that pays tribute to the many different types of dances that have had an influence on modern clogging. In order to make this show a spectacular production, teams involved must be able to not only perform Drag-slide clogging, but also buck dancing, Canadian step dancing, Dutch clogging, Irish step dancing, West Coast swing and country western line dancing.

The festival runs from June 3 through August 25th, 2002 and teams are asked to bring costumes for 6 or 7 days of performances. Because it is a kid's festival, only younger teams will be considered for this particular show. Teams are paid for their performances and are provided lodging for dancers and two chaperones (up to 16 people). In addition, performers are granted Silver Dollar City Employee ID cards that allows them and a guest to enjoy discounted admissions to many Branson shows and attractions, discounted food and SDC merchandise and shopping discounts.

To audition your team for this exciting dance opportunity for young dancers, send a video of your team in a performance (not a competition). It is best to show numbers that demonstrate your team's ability to perform the many style to be shown at the festival. Send your video to: Championship Cloggers, 1266 Larkview Drive, Lilburn, GA 30047.

For more information about Branson, visit www.branson.net and for festival info call Blake or Heather at (770) 982-4636.

Blistered Feet!

11th Annual Canadian Clogging Workshop Offers a Blistering Schedule of Workshops, Dancing and Exhibitions!

by Duffy Brown-Schryer
Sault Ste Marie, Ontario

Cloggers from all around the are in Canada and the United States traveled to Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Canada for the 11th annual "Blistered Feet" Clogging Workshop on October 19 and 20, 2001.

The workshop was held at the Ramada Inn in Sault Ste. Marie and featured a great lineup of instructors, including: Shane Gruber, Paula Trask-Heskett and Melissa Beckett, all of Michigan, Angela Cameron, from Toronto, Brent Bertolo from the Soo and Paul Puckrin from Port Perry. Following their great classes and fun choreography, a lot of "blistered feet" were reported!

Friday night a "Trail In" dance was held and fun and easy routines were taught by Shane, Angela and Brent. In addition, requests and fun dances were offered to give everyone a chance to get on the floor and dance their favorite clogging routines.

Saturdays workshop classes offered instruction in basic, intermediate and advanced clogging, plus Irish step dance. The songs taught reflected the wide variety of music available to cloggers today and there was truly something for everyone!

On Saturday evening we had a great exhibition show that featured all of the instructors and teams who attended the event. Teams that exhibited included: the Wawa Cloggers from Wawa, the Outback Cloggers from Port Perry, the Homespun and C.L.A. Cloggers from the Soo, Jeff Guindon (who -- as always -- wowwed the crowd with a dance to "Faded"), and Chelsea Souliere, Melissa Read and Brent Bertolo shined in a routine to "Scream." Following the show, everyone took to the floor once more to dance the night away!

Plans are already underway for the 12th annual "Blistered Feet" Workshop on October 18 & 19, 2002 in Sault Ste. Marie, and we invite you to join us!

Cloggers in the Spotlight

Steps in Time

by Helen LeCounte
Port Coquitlam,
British Columbia

Out of 23 new beginner cloggers who began classed last year, 17 stayed with us and graduated at our last social dance of the season, and plan to continue this coming year. They are buying real clogging shows and that is always a good sign!

Our dancers attended the Square and Round Dance and Clogging Festival in 2001 in Courtenay on Vancouver Island. The weather was great for dancing. With plenty of clogging instructors on the program we all had time to relax and socialize as well as dance. Cloggers came to the festival from far and wide -- including a dancer from Australia!

The Time Step Cloggers 8th annual Summer clogging workshop was held in Pitt Meadows with close to 30 dancers who just couldn't seem to stop clogging!

Locally, the Time Step Cloggers have been busy entertaining at senior's homes, Canada Day and Kitsilano Showboat and more.

The team was once again selected to compete in the "Over 55" Talent Show at the Pacific National Exhibition and placed second in the finals, another trophy to add to last year's third place win. For the third year in a row, the first prize was awarded to a male solo singer!

Our September classes started over a two week period and we have a good sized beginner class in Port Coquitlam. Last year's new beginners have returned to make level 2 a full to capacity class and returning students make up levels 3 and 4.

Clogging is alive and well here and we invite you to visit the Time Step Cloggers!

The Bright Side Cloggers

The Bright Side Cloggers of Kelowna, British Columbia, have been meeting twice a week to practice their routines and new steps and sequences. The team, under the direction of Karen Wakal, have performed at the Folk Fest 2001, the Dolphin Stage in Kelowna, Kerry Park and numerous senior citizens events.

The group takes its name from the expression "look at the bright side of life." Director Wakal looks for upbeat, cheerful songs that have some meaning and lift the dancers emotionally, plus provide some healthy exercise.

The active dancers in this group of seniors are Doreen and Bob Fitzpatrick, Jessie Sabourin, Lu Mills, Pat Cashin, Rollande Trudeau, Sally Stonehouse, Sylvia Mickle and, of course, the group's dedicated leader Karen Wakal.

The Bright Side Cloggers "stuffed" a bus for a November clogging trip to the United States for workshops and fun.

The group meets on Monday evenings for classes and review in all levels from easy and intermediate to challenge. Guests and spectators are always welcome to drop by and join in the fun!

Choreographer's Corner

Many of you have written to ask for more advanced routines in our Choreographer's Corner.

This issue's choreography is by Michele Millier-Hill of California. Michele has been a favorite at workshops and festivals for years and in addition to being an excellent choreographer and dancer is one of the finest cuers you will ever hear.
