FRONT AND CENTER

Why Do You Do It?

My telephone rang last week at the Double Toe Times offices and I was greeted by the sound of a voice I hadn't heard in more than ten years. The call was from a clogging instructor who had been a major influence on the dance in the late 1970's and early to mid 1980's, and then suddenly disappeared from the dance scene to pursue personal career goals.

We talked about the good old days and the friends we had shared throughout the years. We reminisced about the changes in the clogging and the many innovations we had seen. Some we agreed were positive, some we questioned whether or not their long-term effect on the clog dance was a good one. But most of all, we talked about the fun we'd had dancing and all the wonderful joy we have had for clogging. We both talked about the aches and pains we have that weren't there 20 years ago and the extra pounds that I never would have dreamed I'd be carrying at this age.

"How do you do it?" they asked me. "After all of these years to still travel and go as much as you do." To be quite honest, I didn't have an answer. We ended the call with vows to stay in touch better and made plans for a get-together in the future. After the call I couldn't help but ponder the answer to the question, "Why do I do this?"

Many times I have said I was going to slow down. I've even talked about retiring from workshops because, quite frankly, there are so many new instructors that are brighter, better choreographers and much more talented dancers. The bottom line is, what would I do without clogging? I have seen people that quite clogging and found other hobbies or just retreated to another existence without a second thought. I can't tell you how many times I have gotten together with a group of cloggers and we all echoed, "We must just get together for a weekend with NO talk of clogging." I've tried it. After about an hour of small talk, we end up in a no-holds-barred debate over standardization or competition or just story swapping. I am hopeless.

The actress and dancer Shirley Maclaine said, "Dance is an art that imprints on the soul. It is with you every moment, it expresses itself in everything you do."

So why do I do it? Blame it on the imprint. I may not be able to clog one day but I will always have a dancers soul.

Happy Clogging,
Jeff Driggs, Editor

Black Mountain Cloggers

The Black Mountain Cloggers, unfortunately, are not frequent writers to the Double Toe Times newsletter. At one time I was able to have the time to sit and write a few words about our team. However, for the past couple of years, time has not been readily available.

Change is something all people experience but do not always enjoy. Our team has experienced quite a few changes over the past few months. Some are great and some are not so great.

Our director and also my mother, Janice Agusta, was diagnosed with a rare form of pancreatic cancer. She has been undergoing radiation treatments for five weeks and has been rather ill from them.

The team had decided to be a part of this year's Buffalo (Nickel City Clogging Festival) production back in October. We had written the choreography and had been practicing heavily. When Mom (Jan) shared her news with everyone they instantly volunteered to forfeit the production. Mom (Jan), being the strong, stubborn person she is, decided there was no reason to do so. She found dancing actually became a form of healing for her. She would be extremely ill all day and still insist on attending practice. Once there she could have something to concentrate on that she thoroughly enjoyed.

Production time came with much concern over whether or not she could perform. The day was extremely long and very trying, but with the help of God, family, the team, and strength from within, she did it.

Illness has also stricken family members of two of our teammates. We pray that everyone gets proper medical attention and may get past these very unwelcome maladies.

On the brighter side, I must tell of our new members. We have expanded to a 32-member team. Eleven individuals have completed beginner lessons and decided to continue to become a performing member. Everyone has been working so hard to do his or her best and we all appreciate it very much.

We are ALL looking forward to a happy, energetic, rewarding, and healthy season of performances. From our team to yours, we wish you the same and may teaching, performing or watching clogging be as therapeutic for you as it is for us.

*Michelle Rohring

Team Instructor
Western New York*

Dear Michelle, Janice and the Black Mountain Cloggers:

Thank you for sharing your team's story with the readers of the Double Toe Times. As someone who had the pleasure of working with your group at the Nickel City Clogging Festival, I can say that your team is a strong unit and displays the kind of team spirit that will help you through the good and bad times.

We are so lucky to have our clogging families to support us. It is to me the payback for all of the investment we put into the dance that we are rewarded with such wonderful friendships.

My thoughts are with you that everyone will be in good health. Keep in touch, and thanks for inspiring us all.

Florida's Annual "Stars on 45" Workshop

by "Golden Girl" Lois Butcher

After a year of preparing and anticipation for another workshop, the day arrived bright and early with dancers and instructors all eager and ready to clog! Coffee, juice, cookies and donuts were available to purchase, just in case anyone missed breakfast. Several Golden Girls and their husbands had set up the stage, chairs and refreshment area on Friday so that only last minute preparations had to be made on Saturday morning.

Chuck Gifford, a new enthusiastic instructor from Kentucky, now living in Florida invited everyone to get their shoes on and hit the floor for a warm-up dance. After that, the floor was full of dancers eagerly learning new dances and new dance steps with Lee Adams from Columbus, Ohio; Shirley Garland, Valerie Fitzgerald, Brijin Exum, Holly Hatcher, Dick Scranton, all of Florida and of course Judi Revercomb.

After lunch, we took a break from dancing to honor friend and long time clogging instructor, Lynne Voigt with our very first "Joy of Clogging Award". Lynne, along with the help of husband Elmer, has been spreading the "Joy of Clogging" for over 15 years in Ft. Myers as they wintered there each year.

Lynne is now retired from teaching but hopes to stay involved in clogging on a "joyous" recreational level. We wish her well, and will always remember her as a great instructor and dear friend.

After well wishes and pictures with Lynne and all the dancers who have danced with Lynne over the years "The Style Show" began. A number of dancers modeled their clogging outfits, from crinolines to boots and spangles clogging along the way. Two of Valerie's dancers Jenna Boek (14) and Kelli Daniels (13) of Calico Coyote Cloggers, who are new to clogging and attending their first ever workshop performed to "Whose Boots" in shiny satin fringe boots and cowboy hats. They brought the house down and were such a delight to everyone, so well mannered and friendly. Valerie later taught the dance and we loved it.

Finally, a group of Lynn's dancers slowly walked out onto the dance floor dressed "nines" in tutus, knee sox, boxer shorts and well it was just too much to describe. The Wannabe Ballerina's gave Lynne a sendoff she won't forget.

At the end of the day, everyone had learned new dances, met old friends, made new friends and had a great time clogging. Our behind the scenes helpers arrived and began taking down the stage, cleaning up the snack area and putting it all back to order.

Thank you to all of the instructors who shared their time and joy of clogging with us, the dances were great. We couldn't have done it without the dancers who love to clog so much that they will spend a whole day learning new dances.

Last, but not least, Thank you, Judi for organizing everything. We had a great time and will look forward to the third "Stars on 45" workshop in 2003.

South Carolina Clogging Council 2002 Annual Workshop and Competition

by Dianne Loftin, SCCC President

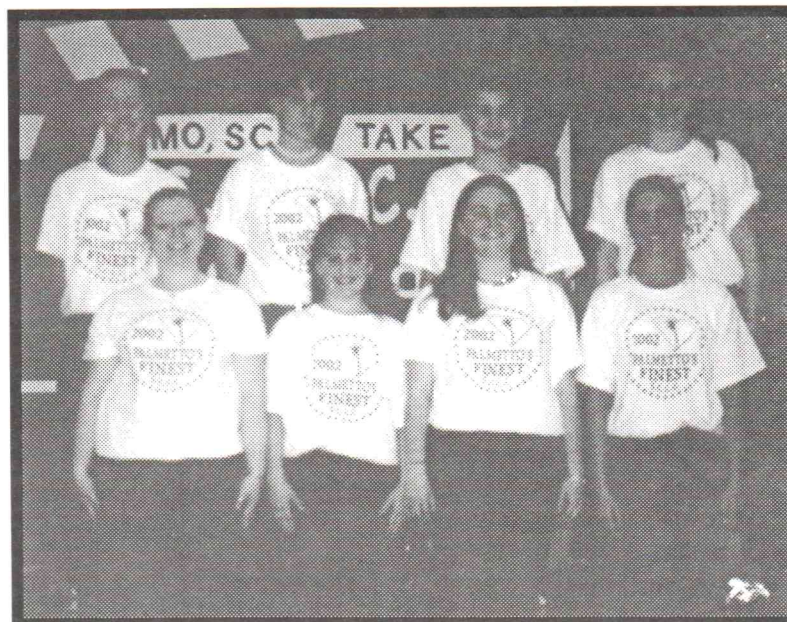

The South Carolina Clogging Council held it's annual Stampede on March 16 & 17, 2002 in Irmo, SC hosted by the Southern Connection Cloggers directed by Robin Elliott & April Elwood. Saturday the workshop started at 9:00am with more than 200 cloggers in attendance. Mercy Martinez, Malt Sexton, Scotty Bilz and Lou Maiuri taught dances. Everyone had fun learning these new dances. The workshop ended at 3:00pm. Competition began at 4:30pm and all the teams were ready to start competing. The competition began with the announcement of the Palmetto's Finest dancers of 2002. They were Harrison Barnes from Corner Cloggers in Moncks Corner, SC, Teresa Cromer from Rhythm & Class Cloggers in North Augusta, SC, Shavon Gilstrap from Southern Junction Cloggers in Easley, SC, Jennifer Harrison from Corner Cloggers in Moncks Corner, SC, Diana Hicks from Southland Express Cloggers in Aiken, SC, Brandy Howell from Southern Connection Cloggers in Irmo, SC, Brodie Seymore from Southern Junction Cloggers in Easley, SC and Sarah Weitenhagen from Rhythm & Class Cloggers in North Augusta, SC. They performed to a routine which they learned that day in only four hours choreographed by Crystal Loftin & Gwen Davis. During the dance the 2001 Palmetto's Finest dancers that were in attendance —Erin Fitzgerald, Miranda Fitzgerald, Sarah Graham, Erin Huxford, Brett Perry and Rachel Sheehan, joined them. It was enjoyable and an honor to watch such fine talented cloggers from South Carolina perform a routine of this kind with only four hours of practice. This honor is bestowed only to cloggers who live in South Carolina and they are selected by their clogging skills, team spirit, dedication, enthusiasm and their leadership ability. Our duo, duet, show duo/duet, 4 or More Couple Open Precision, 4 or More Couple Open Hoedown and Show teams performed next and the Grand Champion winners were — Duo- Diana Hicks & Rachel Sheehan, Duet- Jennifer Harrison & Harrison Barnes, Show Duo/Duet — Sarah Schaffer & Tabathia Roberts, 4 or More Couple Open Precision was Southland Express, 4 or More Couple Open Hoedown — Southland Express, Show Team — Dixie Starz, A Capella Winner — Kristle Argo.

Clogging Spring Fever!

British Columbia Workshop Has “Strong” Instructors and Lots of Fun

by Helen LeCounte
Port Coquitlam, British Columbia, Canada

Well we have had Spring Fever, but where the heck is Spring?

For the 6th year TIME STEP CLOGGERS hosted a SPRING FEVER WORKSHOP AND DANCE in March. This year we were lucky to have Lenore and Renee Strong from California as our Guest Instructors.

This mother and daughter team brought a great selection of Clogging routines to teach to music by George Jones, George Strait, Trick Pony, Chely Wright and many others. This was their first trip to Chilliwack and on our drive there from Vancouver the mountains were completely covered by clouds. My statement of hoping that the weather cleared so they could see them was met the following morning with strong, biting cold winds - but the mountains were certainly visible and what a wonderful view they presented! Fortunately the totally unexpected snow held off until Monday when our visitors had made it safely home.

Over 100 Cloggers attended the workshop from Vancouver Island, the Lower Mainland, the Okanagan and Washington. A group photo showed that 20 of these dancers were Instructors who then returned to their classes with plenty of new material to teach their students.

Friday evening started with an hour of dancing cued by Helen. Then Renee taught a fun easy dance, Cuban Pete. The remainder of the evening was once again dancing, cued by Helen and helped out by Jackie Eagle and Darlene Cummings. Helen and Darlene also cued 2 routines as a duet - Cactus Swing and Down at the Twist and Shout.

Saturday was all new routines during the day-time, with an excellent lunch provided by a local caterer/dancer. No need to go out and track down suitable restaurants.

Saturday evening was once again dancing, this time cued by some of the 20 attending Instructors and review by Lenore and Renee. A well rounded out evening with dancing at all levels.

Those die-hards who don't seem to have homes always attend Sunday morning. More new routines, review of Saturday's, and another advanced one - a bonus for the advanced dancers.

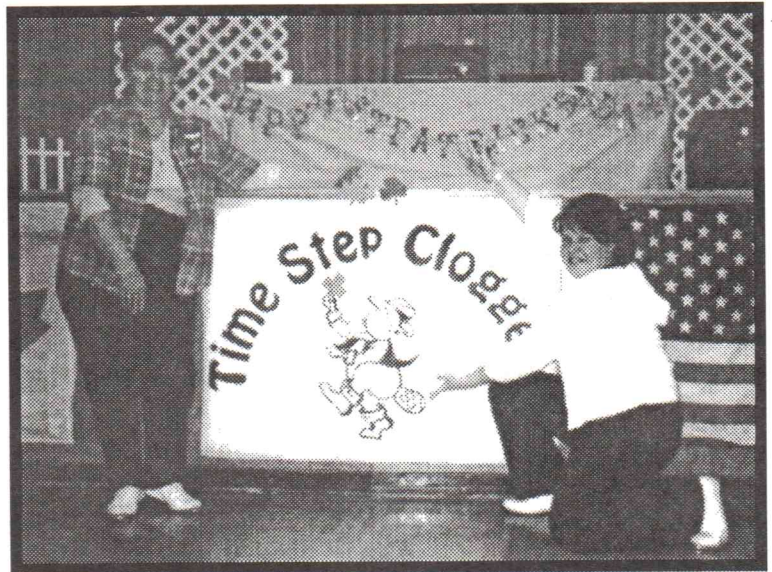

Our theme this year was ST. PATRICK'S DAY and the hail was decorated to reflect this, as did our souvenir T-shirts that had our CHILLBILLY scarecrow wearing his best Irish outfit

Classes have resumed for another 10 weeks of Spring Dancing, a party in April, and a wind-up Graduation Dance in May to present Diplomas to Cloggers who started last September.

Come join the fun and bring something for the Food Bank.

Choreographer's Corner

This month's choreography comes from Mike Curtis of Lexington, Kentucky. Mike has long been one of the most consistent dancers in solo competition and is a tremendous team dancer as well, performing with the Power and Precision cloggers. In recent years, Mike has become recognized as a workshop instructor too. His Southern charm makes him a popular workshop guest and his choreography is both fun and danceable.

Introducing: The Flatfooter

A shoe designed by flatfooters for flatfooters. With excellent support, the Flatfooter shoes fit like a fine pair of gloves. The Flatfooter is made from full grain leather uppers and are quarter lined with pearl pig skin. The Flatfooter shoes are constructed with Micro Cellular foam in the sock lining for shock absorption and to help aid in preventing foot injury. Lined for comfort, built for sound, the dancer can easily incorporate flatfoot technique amongst buck and shuffle steps.

More stable than the common clogging shoe, the Flatfooter is specially designed with a solid heel and low resonant flatfoot sound that can be heard by your audience. You and your team will see an improvement in the ease of dance when you wear these wonderful shoes.

A design by Bob Warner, CCI, culminating years of study through teaching and evaluating hundreds of dancers styles, has brought forth a shoe for the flatfoot cloggers needs.

To order by credit card:

Go to www.ebay.com and search for "clogging", then look for our ads at click on the little red flag that says "STORE" and enter your payment information.

No metal -- just great sound!

A shoe kin to a fine musical instrument, and made under contract by the trusted Mid-South Footwear Company of Manila, Arkansas.

Mens, Ladies & Children's Sizes

Also available in "Flash White" for show -- without the toe piece and special heel surface to allow for steel taps.

The Flatfooter can also be ordered without the toe piece.
