FRONT AND CENTER

It's Just a Rehearsal

Someone once asked the legendary dancer Fred Astaire the secret to his effortless technique and style. His answer: "I just put my feet on the ground and move them around."

Oh, that is were that easy! I, too, put my feet on the ground and move them around, but somehow they don't seem to trip the light fantastic in quite the same way as the master. In my mind, however, I am hoofing right along with the best of them. I remember the scene in Risky Business when Tom Cruise's parents go on a trip and leave him home alone. What is the first thing you do when you have the house to yourself? You turn the music up and dance like the rock star or Broadway dancer you are inside! To this very day I can still remember the feeling of my first exhibition, my first competition, and my first workshop. I played baseball growing up and the mixture of fun, fear and exhilaration that you have when you are at the plate is like no other. It relates so much to my experience in clogging. Performing gives that same rush. The simple and wonderful thrill of dance is the stuff that brings each person in their own sense to our art.

It is so easy to get caught up in the thrill of dance that we forget the importance of technique and group style. For this reason we have directors and instructors, those tireless task-masters that work to ensure that our groups and teams look uniform and precise in our shows. Their job is to make sure that all of those feet moving around on the floor are going in the same direction. Somewhere between our self-image and their measure we meet in a commonality that gives our group its identity. Having a director tell us to tone down our kicks isn't a call to discard our exuberance. Getting the "smile" lecture doesn't mean we have no stage presence at all. This fine tuning is part of the ongoing process that makes for good theatre and – face it – a clogging show is there to entertain. Most of the problems I hear about in our pastime are based on misunderstandings about what is expected of dancers or what is expected of instructors and directors.

As a dancer, remember that while this is a hobby to you, to the exhibition coordinator or competition director is expecting performance level at both practice and in public. As a leader, be sure to keep in mind that mutual respect is vital to maintaining a positive atmosphere that fosters productive learning and rehearsal sessions and top rate shows.

Moliere said:

All the ills of mankind,
all the tragic misfortunes that fill the history books,
all the political blunders,
all the failures of the great leaders have arisen merely from a lack of skill at dancing.

You don't think this week's class or practice is important? The future of the world depends on it!

Happy Clogging,
Jeff Driggs, Editor

A Bluegrass Note

I'm glad to be takin' an opportunity to send your way a bluegrass note of gratitude. The Minnesota Mega-Clog this Spring was a Rocky Top hoe-down and we appreciate you being there and sharing your time, efforts, concern and talent.

Thank you for all you do to help others in their clogging enjoyment, improvement and opportunity. It's willing and thoughtful people like you that make all cloggers feel like one huge family.

Dave Zieba

Dave:

Thank you so much for your thoughtful letter. I enjoy workshops so much and it is an honor and a treat to travel and meet so many great folks like you throughout the year. Rob and Sheryl Keller sent us a great article about the workshop and it is featured in this issue. I hope you enjoy it and that it brings back fun memories of the clogging, fun and friendship that was shared over the weekend.

More Than Expected

Thank you for your reply in the May Issue of the Double Toe Times to my inquiry regarding use of the "drag-slide" in competition at the Memorial Day Dance Spectacular.

I really appreciated what you wrote. It was far more than I expected, but great information for everyone.

I agree with your remarks about the "Hot-shot" competition dancers, but aren't they fun to watch?

To quote from your reply, I, too, "want to keep everyone dancing!"

Thanks again for a great magazine and best wishes.

Better With Each Issue

I just received my new copy of the Double Toe Times and I swear it gets better with every issue.

All of my new dancers are amazed at the fact that it is so informative. Keep up the good work and we will be waiting for the next issue.

*Heather Ballance-Baker

Nickel City Clogging Festival

by Elaine Brock, WNYCA Reporter

The weekend of April 18th through the 20th found approximately 700 cloggers and their family members in Grand Island, New York, enjoying the 16' Nickel City Clogging Festival. This event, our clogging social event of the year, is presented annually by the Western New York Cloggers Association and held at the Holiday Inn Resort & Conference Center in Grand Island. A whisper of Spring in the air greeted the record number of dancers from all over the United States and Canada as they converged at the Center for a fun-filled, entertaining weekend.

What a superb workshop it was with our outstanding featured instructors Salle Adkins, Nick Bailey, Charlie Burns, Jeff Driggs, Shane Gruber, Sandy Holdway, Jim Naylor, and Simone Pace, also Karen Elder, Dorothy and Joanna Hoar, and accompanied by our own Western New York Clogging Association local instructors; Dale Burl, Hannah Dash, Tracy Mathews, Adam Mowry, Joan Warner, Rick Smith, and Lynda Vaadi, who all contributed their many talents to make this an outstanding and very enjoyable weekend. The clogging workshop staff was extraordinary, and it was a pleasure to have them visit our Western New York area and to make many return visits. Newcomer Nick Bailey told us that he had big shoes to fill with Scottie Bilz not being able to make it this year. This was his first time here to Buffalo, and Nickel City, and Nick found the people here awesome, relaxed, and ready to have fun!

Fun dancing, plus easy to intermediate teaches, were available to those who arrived early on Thursday, and these continued throughout Friday. Our trail-in and general fun time on Friday evening had easy, fun dancing, reviews and teaches, available in one ball with the featured instructors, and request dances in a second ball featuring our staff instructors. A third year returnee, Shane Gruber, stated that the festival keeps growing and growing, new friends are made each year, and it is such a nice reunion of old friends every visit. He loves coming back, whether to teach or not to teach, and it is one festival to definitely keep on your calendar - - he stated that Ken and Linda treat everyone so well! A special moment for the Nickel City Festival was the presentation of the 2nd annual Western New York Cloggers Association Hall of Fame Award to Priscilla Albright, Cheri Truax, Lynda Vaadi, and Rick Smith, with an honorable mention to Joanne Bond, in recognition and appreciation for their many years of very active involvement in supporting and promoting clogging and our Nickel City Festival. Congratulations to these outstanding and very deserving individuals! Also, the annual Western New York Cloggers Association scholarships were awarded to Kim White and Rachel Kozlowski. We all congratulate them and wish them good luck in their schooling! If your feet gave out and you needed to cool off and relax from all the dancing one could also attend our Friday evening pool party for cloggers and their families, which lasted well until midnight, or take advantage of the hotel's Jacuzzi, hot tub, and sauna. What a way to relax!

Saturday morning found the halls busy with activity, the echoes

of taps everywhere, energetic shouts of greetings, and vendors very busy with a booming business selling everything from clogging shoes to fuzzy flag slippers and jackets. Five separate halls offered a huge variety of clogging choices ranging from a beginners workshop for those who have never clogged, or just started clogging, up to advanced classes, with every type of song and pace of dancing in between! - Country, Bluegrass, Pop, Irish folk, Maritimes, Ethnic, Eastern and Country folk dancing - it was all there to be enjoyed!

As the Saturday workshops concluded, we all geared up for the highlight of the weekend - the Saturday evening presentation, "The Class of 1977", a song and dance disco tribute written and directed by Jeff Driggs of West Virginia, and produced by Cheri Truax, director of the Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers from West Seneca, New York. A special clogging dinner show was followed by a sold out "show only" presentation. Both shows had been sold out for months, and if time permitted, we wished we could have had a third show to accommodate those who also wished to attend and view the over 200 cloggers, (18 teams!), and actors who danced and sang their hearts out! An impressive display of talent was exhibited by all the participating groups: Tonawanda Cloghoppers, Backwoods Cloggers, Spa City Cloggers, Almost Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Hickory Creek Cloggers, Wyoming County 4-H Cloggers, Adirondack Mountain Cloggers, Castle Country Cloggers, Traveling Shoes, Country Rock Cloggers, Krazy Kanuck Cloggers, Still Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Kick-Up Kids, Black Mountain Cloggers, Erie Canal Cloggers, 4-H Cloggettes, Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, and Route 90 Express Cloggers. Our cast of actors consisted of Megan Annett, Adam Mowry, Al Shinn, Amy Shinn, and Tom Shinn and singer, Stephanie Adamczyk. Commenting on the show, Jeff Driggs stated, "It's such a joy to see all these people getting together - of all ages - from all over - in the spirit of fun - to put on a show for their clogging friends."

A special welcome went out to the Kick-Up Kids from Weiser, Idaho, a small town with a population of around 5,000. The girls did a great job clogging to "Born to Be Alive", and after talking to their director, Mary Ann Walker, who herself is a self-taught clogger, found out that the girls took two years of fund raising to finance their trip to Nickel City! They sold lemonade at parades, sold submarine sandwiches, pizza cards, were waitresses at Chamber of Commerce events, etc., and raised every penny for their trip here themselves. What a pleasure to see them here! Commenting on the festival one of our Western New York instructors, Adam Mowry, stated, "It's always fun to teach in my hometown - my roots - where I got started. It's especially fun to see all the little kids (cloggers) that I've known in the past all grown up and enjoying the Nickel City Festivals. I hope they will be influenced to keep doing this. Thanks to Ken and Linda Haley and all their help for making everything possible!"

Of course, again this year, a hall was open for dancing during and after the shows. Wow, did we ever have a great time! There is always something to do at Nickel City - whether it is participating in the variety of clogging classes available, or relaxing at the hotel's pool, or visiting the local sightseeing spots - the outlet malls, the Niagara Casino and our famous Niagara Falls. When asked for a comment on our Nickel City Festival, Sallie Adkins told this story, "What do you do when you open a dance and you have technical difficulties that six men cannot fix and you have people on the floor ready to dance? Why, you call Sallie Ann - who screams out the cues and gets a Canadian clogger, Janet, on stage to sing Rocky Top a capella. And, believe it or not, the dance went on! You just gotta do what you gotta do when you gotta do it when Sallie Ann is to the rescue. I love being in Grand Island - it's better than last year and will be even better next year!" And, everyone's sweetheart, Charlie Burns, commented, "Again, Nickel City will be my "finale" workshop before I retire. It's the best location - if anyone cannot conic to Grand Island and enjoy the location and the scenery - watch the water go by and head toward the beautiful Niagara Falls - then they're really missing something! It's a wonderful workshop!"

Many, many thanks go out to Ken and Linda Haley, festival directors, and all their committee people and their bard working volunteers and participants who did a fantastic job coordinating this year's event and making it so enjoyable for everyone. Special thanks to all who continue to attend and support our workshop. A very special invitation to all to come and be a part of Nickel City again next year, and join us on April 10th, 11th, and 12th, 2003, at the Holiday Inn, Grand Island, New York. A great big Western New York welcome awaits you!

Minnesota Mega-Clog

Will Rogers once said, "We are all here for a spell; get all the good laughs you can." Cloggers would add to that, "and get all the good clogging you can."

March 29-30, 2002: We sure missed seeing many of you at some good clogging in Minnesota. Glad to be taking the opportunity to write some worthwhile information for all of you cloggers to read. The following paragraphs will give you a glimpse about the best hoedown in Minnesota: The Minnesota Mega-Clog.

Over 300 dancers from Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, North Carolina, Illinois, Kansas, Ohio, Arizona, West Virginia, Canada and Minnesota came to the Marriott Hotel in Bloomington, Minnesota for the 7th annual Mega-Clog. It was a rewarding weekend of fun-dances, workshops, exhibitions, competitions, and shopping. The Marriott is conveniently located across from The Mall of America.

Mega-Clog organizers and instructors, Rob and Sheryl Keller, always bring in a top-notch staff for the workshop. The 2002 staff was: Sallie Adkins, Dieter Brown, Jeff Driggs, Missy Shinoski, Matt and Colleen Pearson, Joel Harrison, Joey VanHorn, and Rob and Sheryl Keller. Mega-Clog participants are very appreciative of the time, efforts, enthusiasm, and talent these instructors willingly share for clogging. Hard-working volunteers from Rob and Sheryl's group, The Lake Country Cloggers, help behind-the-scenes to make sure that everyone feels welcome at Minnesota Mega-Clog.

It all begins Friday evening with a fun-dance, followed by solo, duet, group and team exhibitions. The all-kids routine is one of the traditional group performances. Rob and Sheryl Keller make an instructional video that is sent to all kids who want to participate in the performance. They then practice for a few months at their state locations. At Mega-Clog they all come together for a one-hour practice prior to the fun-dance. The kids are able to unify their talents with such precision at performance time, they give the impression they've been a team for many months. Family and friends are a large audience of spectators. Curiosity brings in other hotel guests to watch "the tap dancers," as most of them have never seen clogging. Mega-cloggers are very glad to answer their questions about clogging and its' many positive benefits.

Saturday, for eight hours, The Marriott ballroom is divided into four dance halls for the workshop portion of Mega-clog. The cloggers have four choices of learning opportunities every hour. Those choices range from beginner to advanced. Many bright smiles of success can be seen at the completion of each session. There are many tired legs and feet by late Saturday afternoon, but a sense of accomplishment is a perfect antidote.

Saturday evening, Mega-Clog concludes with competition activities. These include team competitions, solo freestyle and a capella. A high-level of talent brings out the best in all competitors, which makes judging decisions very difficult. Those dancers sure make the winners earn their trophies and medals. Best of all, the trait of good sportsmanship is evident all evening.

If you've had a notion to travel to the Mall of America, coming to Mega-Clog gives you that opportunity. The Marriott has a free shuttle bus going there every half-hour. Make some plans to join your "clogging family" at Minnesota Mega-Clog 2003, April 18-19. You'll see in Minnesota that you can have a Rocky Top Hoedown! For more information please contact: Rob and Sheryl Keller, 38162 Oasis Rd., Lindstrom, MN 55045 (651) 583-3203.

9th Annual Spring Roundup Workshop

Toll Gate Cloggers of Novi, Michigan Host Scotty Bilz

by Donna Kothari

Temperatures started out in the low thirties on the morning of Toll Gate's 9th Annual Spring Roundup on April 6, 2002. But things got nicely heated up indoors at the Novi Community Center with local cloggers from Michigan and Canada joining in with the mix of old and new moves and combinations.

In an attempt to collect the top ten reasons why the various guests joined the Roundup this year, we obtained some interesting responses: "To see Shane!", "It's close by", "Good Instructors!", "To see friends", "To dance hard", "It was recommended", "Some of us have to work here", "To learn new dances", "Feels good and not bad for you", "I knew Barbara was going to be here". We also wanted to find out just what it would take to miss this workshop. We were told: "Big snow storm", "One year my face swelled up from surgery", "Sick", "If the car broke down", "One year I had a broken foot", "Sprained ankle", "Once, I had to go to a ballet and tap engagement", "If I had a bunion grow", One person actually said, "NO Reason!"

A great group of instructors provided a wonderful mix of choreography. Many thanks goes out to Scottie Bilz, Duane & Berdella Root, Sam Gill, Bob Travis and Jackie Hill, Shane Gruber, Paul and Karen Allen, Sally Adkins, Loretta Ward and, our Toll Gate instructor, Barbara Barrett. Scotty Bilz provided a wonderful intermediate-advanced choreography to Grease Mega-Mix. This was a huge hit with everyone. It was fresh, challenging, creative and just had that special Scotty flair that everyone loves. Did I say fresh? Word has it that Scotty created the dance on his flight to Detroit, and I did see him with pencil and paper, writing what looked like the dance he just taught. It was creative and genius. A great lunch was provided by Loretta Ward.

Sallie Adkins had her flag waving in her right hand and the microphone waving in her left hand as she cued "Where the Stars and Stripes and the Eagle Fly". Great number! A "Stand up and be Proud to be an American" piece. As if this was not enough, Sallie kept everyone

It was fun to have our many returning clogging friends from American Rhythm Dancers, Shane Gang Cloggers, Just For Kicks, Step One, Corn Cob Cloggers, Whistle Stop, Sourwood Mountain Cloggers, Thunder Floor Cloggers, Country Stompers, Rhythm Valley Cloggers, Next Step Cloggers, Extreme Percussion, Lady J Cloggers, Katy-Did Cloggers, Country Note Cloggers, Motor City Cloggers, Sixth Gate Cloggers and Main Street.

I stopped to chat with Violet from the Main Street Cloggers. From what I gather from Vi, time passes fast when you are having great fun. She had to think about it, but figures that she has been clog dancing for about 16 years. Violet, you do look terrific!! I met Liz Romesburg who moved up north and misses the Sixth Gate group very much, "especially Barbara", she says. Liz could not say enough about Barbara's fun instruction.

Many Compliments to the Fantastic Demo Teams: Lady J Teens, "Hand Jive" from "Grease"
Lady J Adults, "I'll Fly Away"
Princess from Whistle Stop Cloggers, "Whenever, Wherever".

Katy-Did Kloggers, "Hey Joe"
Shane Gruber & Danielle Kapanowski, "Me Neither"

Thanks everyone for attending and making this workshop a success. We hope to see you all again next year as we host another Spring Workshop.
