FRONT AND CENTER

The Reasons Why...

I recently ran across this fun list of "18 reasons you should square dance." I changed the word "square dance" to "clog" and my goodness if it ain't the truth. There was no author listed, but I think they shared some universal truths about our kind of dancing.

18 Reasons to "Clog"

- 1. It's good clean wholesome fun - foul and obscene talk is forbidden, no alcoholic beverages is a national association rule.
- 2. Mayo Clinic encourages Clogging - burns about 500 calories per hour, strengthens bones, and helps cardiovascular system.
- 3. Economical - fees are to pay the teacher and rent the hall - that's all!
- 4. Good exercise - dancing for 2 hours is equal to a 4-mile hike.
- 5. Helps to relieve stress - while dancing, you are listening to a cuer and following instructions leaving little time to worry, also relaxes mind and loosens tense muscles.
- 6. An alcohol free environment - drinking and dancing do not mix, your reaction to cues must be sharp. Drinking before or during a dance is strictly prohibited.
- 7. Chases away the blues - You'll never be lonely at a clogging dance.
- 8. Clogging Dances are held in modern facilities - It's a myth that dances are held in barns or haylofts.
- 9. Everybody welcome - Children, single people, couples, families, we all have good clean fun together.
- 10. Classes include line and round dancing - a pleasant diversion from dancing as couples.
- 11. It is an American Heritage - The National Dance for over 200 years.
- 12. Also an international activity - Clogging is in foreign countries.
- 13. All age groups welcome - Children 8 to adult (younger kids may try)
- 14. It's easy - If you can walk, you can clog!
- 15. Clogging is rewarding - you graduate with a degree and can dance anywhere, even while on vacation.
- 16. It is available here in your community & surrounding towns.
- 17. Square Dancing is fun for all ages - 8 people work as a team in a square.
- 18. You get to wear comfortable clothing - long sleeved shirts for the men, comfortable flat heeled shoes or cowboy boots for men and women.

Of course if I was making up the list myself, I would have added at least one more:

19. The People, the people, the people - you get to meet the best people in the world who will welcome you like family, feed you like company, and dance with you until your knees are weak.

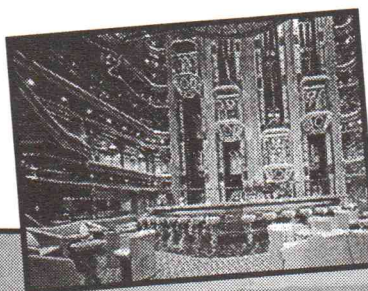

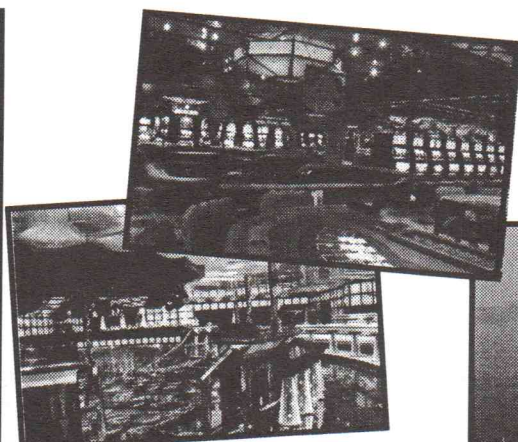

Happy Clogging, Jeff Driggs, Editor

TV Guide

The April, 2003 issue of the Double Toe Times arrived in May (yes MAY) just in time to let me know about the Shockwave Cloggers of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma being featured on Star Search May 14th. Not having watched television for the past seven weeks (brag, brag), I had to tune in to see this talented group clog; they were EXCELLENT! What a lovely group of young people.

They may not have won first place on Star Search this evening but they certainly deserve blue ribbons for a wonderful performance.

Editor's Note:

I am so glad that the magazine helped you find out about the groups appearance on television. As I am sure you have seen, we have continued to have problems since 9-11 with getting the magazines through the mail in a timely fashion. I am attending a seminar in September to address periodical mailings and hope to find a solution so that we can get news to you when you need it... now!

The beat will go on, thanks to Chesapeake, Virginia clogger Bob Johnson.

Compiled from News article by Toni Guagenti, Hampton Roads Virginian-Pilot, www.clogdancing.com, and contributions by Double Toe Times readers.

From Florida to Maine, Robert "Bob" Johnson kept the rhythm flowing.

When his feet couldn't tap a tune because they had to be on the gas or brake, he'd belt out bluegrass and gospel with his baritone voice for a bus filled with dances and musicians.

The Flatland Cloggers, on their way to another competition, should have been sleeping, but they would stay awake to join in Johnson's revelry.

He was their director, choreographer, father away from home.

"He provided guidance and direction and never expected anything else in return," said his oldest daughter, Terri Harmon.

Cloggers around the world are mourning the loss of this dance pioneer, director and friend, who died in an accident on March 27, 2003.

Johnson couldn't have known the legacy he'd create when he and wife Myrtle started taking clogging lessons in 1975. Two years later, Johnson's fledgling Flatland Cloggers, children ranging from 5 to 17, won the world championship.

Daughters Harmon and Andrea Smith clogged on the team, dressed in sparkly outfits and shoes with taps. Their father taught them to move their feet like cake mixers and to smile, smile, smile. Under Johnson, the Flatland Cloggers became a dream team winning more than 150 grand championships. At its heyday in the early 1990's, the group had more than 75 members, from children to adults.

Johnson eventually was inducted into America's Clogging Hall of Fame, its youngest inductee.

In recent years, Johnson curtailed his travels with the Flatland Cloggers, which is now a more modest-sized group. Harmon guarantees the group will go on because of her father, who helped spawn other Hampton Roads clogging groups. "He only asked for our best," said Richard Long, who clogged with Flatland during the '80's. "He taught me everything I knew."

Johnson also got Long into singing gospel bluegrass. Long would sit on a cooler in the front of the bus, Johnson behind the wheel, and they'd harmonize to one of Johnson's favorites, "Children, Go Where I Send Thee."

Some of his dancers say that when they're clogging they can still hear his baritone voice, calling out his favorite phrase: "Dance, children, dance."

Cloggers and friends remember Bob Johnson:

Lou Maiuri, Summersville, WV

America's Clogging Hall of Fame

"I'm 74 years old and during my life time there have only been a very few people that have influenced the things you do in life. Bob Johnson was one of these people and for that I'm truly thankful.

He was the first person to ask me to teach a dance workshop, he was the first to ask me to take an office in the ACHF and was instrumental in getting me elected and he was the first person to ask me to call a square dance at the Stompin' Ground.

But the thing I remember most about Bob Johnson was the nice way he always helped the young dancers. He would always have something nice to say that would bring a smile to their face.

I remember once when my granddaughter was only 6 years old, we were at Fontana for a workshop and Bob asked her to square dance, it really thrilled her. She's 26 now and she still talks about that. After the dance she came over and sat beside me, looked up at me and said, "Pa Paw, we're making memories." I said we sure are honey.

Bob Johnson left me with a lot of great memories and I will surely miss him. Not only for the impact he had on me as a dancer, teacher and caller but also because he was a great human being."

Lesley Meadows, Director

West Virginia Kickers, Charleston, WV

"Memories are good ones about Bob Johnson. I remember when the end of August would roll around and the WV Clogging and Hoe-down Competition hosted by Butch Steele would get in to full swing, the bus from Virginia would be parked outside and many Flatland cloggers would be getting off or be hanging around already dancing. We use to say they "got off dancing and got back on dancing." The audiences in Charleston were amazed at the talent that Bob Johnson brought to dance. They were the best team I had ever seen at hoe-downs. The crowds went wild and came back year after year to see them and the other teams. He will be missed greatly in Charleston, WV and by all in clogging."

Chip Harrison, North Carolina

TNC Elite Cloggers

"The clogging world will miss Bob Johnson. I always remember traveling to Maine and Florida with the Flatland Cloggers. They were a family of cloggers like no other. They put friendships and fun over competition, and enjoyed life. There are very few things in clogging as pure as the drag slide sound Flatland produced when they were onstage."

Earl Powell, Horshoe, North Carolina America's Clogging Hall of Fame

"Bob Johnson had the most control over his group of anyone I have ever met. His gentle way with them commanded their respect and his team rewarded him with great clogging and great friendship."

The Shinn Family, New Jersey

Renegade Cloggers

"We had the honor of traveling with Bob and Myrtle and the Flatland Cloggers and the memories of those times remain some of the most fun and best learning experiences for me and my dancers. Bob had a way of making everyone feel equal and special at the same time. We are happy that we got to know and travel with this special man."

Airman First Class Tanner L. Ike, USAF, California

Former Flatland Clogger

"As a former Flatland Clogger, I knew Bob Johnson personally. He was an awesome man. I would like his family to know that they are in my thoughts always. Terri and Andrea made me the clogger I am today. Myrtle has always had a kind heart for me, and Jessica has always been a best friend. I love you all dearly."

Jeff Driggs, Editor

Double Toe Times

"For quite some time, I have been talking with cloggers and trying to put together a fitting tribute to someone who influenced me so much as a teacher and inspired me so much as a man.

When I first began clogging in the early 1980's, my first exposure to team dancing was at the competitions held each fall in Charleston, West Virginia. The Flatland Cloggers were a fixture at the event and always energized the crowd with their amazing footwork and sound. "Bigger than life" seems fitting to describe the presence of Bob Johnson with his beloved Flatland Cloggers. Even in the numbers that he did not dance in, Bob stood at the side of the stage by the band or in the wings and you couldn't help but watch him as much as you watched the dancers. With his foot tapping and his head nodding approval, Bob's mere presence echoed his approval and his sheer joy in seeing the children dance.

Bobbie Adams of Florida once hosted a traditional workshop and I had the pleasure of spending time with her and Bob and Myrtle Johnson in Bobbie's home. One evening Bobbie brought out her collection of Limber Jacks (I call them stomper dolls) and Bob and I and Bobbie's guests spent some time trying out the different dolls to hear the sounds and see which ones had the most action. After a while everyone headed back into the kitchen for more refreshments and chatting, but Bob and I stayed a while and played with the clogging dolls. What a wonderful memory to spend that time with someone who means so much doing what you love to do."

Country Rhythm Cloggers perform at Disney World's Magic Kingdom

The Country Rhythm Cloggers, under the direction of Pat Bedingfield, performed an outstanding show at the Magic Kingdom

Cloggers who performed were Amy Yeomans, Cassie Ricks, Amber Pharis, Katie Fromm, Miesha Pharis, Britney Whitman, Jessie Backus, Jesse Whitman, Darian Leschewski, Shelby French, Amber

Hamric, Abby Arnold, Shelby Williams, Cassidy Pascher, Cindy Hill, Myaa Rickards, and Leah Peacock.

In June, 2004, the Country Rhythm Cloggers will be performing at King's Dominion, Doswell, VA, where they will be performing two shows.

Blue Humor

Entertainment Group Blue Man Group pokes good-natured fun at cloggers in its most recent ad campaign. Blue Man Group is best known for its award-winning theatrical productions which critics have described as "ground-breaking", "hilarious", "visually stunning" and "musically powerful." These performances feature three enigmatic bald and blue characters who take the audience through a multi-sensory experience that combines theatre, percussive music, art, science and vaudeville into a form of entertainment that is like nothing else. People from all over the world, from all walks of life and from all age groups have become fans of Blue Man Group's show in New York, Boston, Chicago and most recently Las Vegas.

Choreographer's Corner

As hundreds of cloggers plan next month to fly to Hawaii for the International Clogging Expo and Parade, you can get the feel of the islands with this fun routine by Gary Laresn of Utah. A professional dancer and choreographer, Gary is a teacher at BYU in Provo, Utah and has performed in shows around the world.
