JIG, CLOG, AND BREAKDOWN DANCING MADE EASY, WITH SKETCHES OF NOTED JIG DANCERS.

JIG, CLOG AND BREAKDOWN DANCING MADE EASY.

ATTITUDE.

Hold the head well up, standing erect; do not look at the feet at all, as that has a tendency to stooping, which is a very bad and ugly habit. Let the arms, the hands being open, dangle perpendicular and without straining at the sides. It is necessary to observe an easy balance, with all parts of the body free to act as may be required in dancing the various steps.

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS.

The Strike is made by striking the floor firm and sharp, with either toe, heel, and letting the foot rest at the spot the foot is to be in.

IN THIS ISSUE:

Updated Event Listings, Choreo by Brian Tucker and Brian Hendershot of Michigan, Stan Webb of Missouri and Cindy Noe of New Mexico, Editorial: "You're Dancing Spirit", Workshop and Competition News from Pennsylvania, Michigan and Kentucky, Remembering the MO Klogghoppers "Uncle" Don Keeney-Instructor Profile: Greg and Maria Tucker of Utah, Cloggers in the Spotlight from Wyoming, Indiana and Kentucky, plus our exclusive Instructors and Dancers Directory with listings from across the United States, Canada and abroad, Clogging Supplies, Music... and more!

Clogging Breakdown

This turn of the century booklet on jig, clog and breakdown dancing advises dancers to stand erect and not to look at the feet at all, as that has a tendency to stooping, which is a very bad and ugly habit.

FRONT AND CENTER

You're Dancing Spirit

Dance is bigger than the physical body. Think bigger than that. When you extend your arm, it doesn't stop at the end of your fingers, because you're dancing bigger than that: you're dancing spirit.

—Judith Jamison

Spirit: essence, feeling, intent, meaning, purpose, quality, substance, temper, tenor, timbre, tone

Spirit: air, animation, ardor, backbone, boldness, breath, character, complexion, courage, dauntlessness, disposition, earnestness, energy, enterprise, enthusiasm, essence, fire, force, gameness, grit, guts, heart, humor, jazz, life, life force, liveliness, mettle, mood, morale, motivation, nerve, oomph, outlook, psyche, quality, resolution, resolve, soul, sparkle, spunk, stoutheartedness, substance, temper, temperament, tenor, vigor, vital spark, vitality, warmth, will, willpower, zest

There are many ways to define spirit. Once the music starts and your feet begin to move, only you can find that unique sense within yourself that is your dancing spirit. It can be bold and purposeful, or subtle and artful. Don't worry that if you don't see in your persona what you admire in others. Often, to reach out to an audience we must look inside ourselves.

In a world of exhibitions and competitions when uniformity is judged, packaged and practiced, cultivate within yourself and your dancers that spirit that extends beyond themselves. Steps, hand moves, figures and formations are the easy part of the performance.

Think bigger than that.

Happy Clogging,

Brady Bunch

I just wanted to let you know that on January 26 of this year I was in Los Angeles and got to be on the Wayne Brady Show (aired 1/26/04). I was honored in being asked to introduce Wayne Brady and I was given the opportunity to be on stage with him. I even made up a Wayne Brady clogging step, and he genuinely seemed impressed. He is such a personable guy and I simply adore him. I used the step in choreography to "Amazing Grace" and taught the Wayne Brady clogging step during a Georgia Clogging Leaders Association workshop in February.

Gail Hardison, GA
gdhardis@bellsouth.net

Editor's Note:

Congratulations, Gail, on your appearance on the Wayne Brady Show. Wayne is one of many people in the media lately who have been great allies to this art form and shown it in the positive light that it deserves. Naomi Plye of Indiana and Amy Shinn of New Jersey have both had the honor of clogging on Wayne's show and both agree with you that he is one of the kindest and most genuine people in the business.

This month, clogging twins from Arkansas were featured on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno. Even though the bit was intended somewhat tongue in cheek, the girls did an amazing job clogging and really made a great impression.

It is exciting to see such a positive impact on our dance with this media exposure. Great job!

Thank you for a great publication!

Thank you for publishing the Potomac Double Down article and pictures in the Double Toe Times.

To the Letter...

One of my clogging students took a lot of the songs that we have been doing and wrote me this cute letter. I thought I'd share it with your readers. Her name is Ann Haaser.

Gloria:

I saw Absolutely Everybody, Down by the Station. Old MacDonald was doing the Bristol Stomp with Cluck Ole Hen. He was looking for someone to Swing the Mood with. He was All Shook Up when she asked him to Rock Around the Clock. The band was playing Twelve String Rag. He said "That's the Way I Like It." I want to Love Somebody Like You.

Love is our Business. Will you Marry Me? She said "Yes." They live Down on the Farm.

Yankee Doodle has moved to Wolf Creek. He has lived on Sourwood Mountain. It was So High that he felt like he was Upside Down when he was going Up, Up, Up. Last Night he was Comin' 'Round the Mountain to go Fishin' In the Dark.

Mr. Sandman has met a girl he calls Pretty Little Angel Eyes. They met at The Movies. They watched Old Time Rock and Roll and Rocky Top. Rockin' Robin is Working on the Railroad. He told me that rather than riding Trains, Trains, Trains, he likes to Fly.

Sincerely,
Connemara

I've also attached a photo taken of the Country Crossroad Cloggers taken at a nursing home where two of my cloggers's mothers live. Ann is in the back row, third from the left.

Thanks for letting us share in the Double Toe Times.

Cloggers in the Spotlight

Clogging Heros

Thomas Lopeman of Arizona and Brittney Murphy of Indiana are proof that true clogging comes from the heart! Tom joins his family's Lynx Creek Cloggers - wife Sharon is Director and Katrina clogs with the group - in exhibitions, and joins them at workshops and competitions.

For the past 20 years the Lynx Creek Cloggers have provided that recreational exercise for hundreds of Tri-City residents. Tom's illness didn't stop him one bit. In the picture at the left, Tom participated in the 23rd National Veterans Wheelchair Games in Long Beach California, and made the cover of a national magazine.

Dancing Dream Clogging Instructor Jeff Parrott lived out a boyhood dream when he joined the world-famous Opry Square Dancers recently for an evening of shows. Parrott has been a fixture on the workshop circuit for years and lives in Lexington, Kentucky with his wife Emilee and three daughters.

ON THE BEAT

Pennsylvania Harvest Stomp a Huge Success!

By Gail Binns
Lehigh Valley Cloggers

The Lehigh Valley Cloggers held the 3rd annual Harvest Stomp workshop on November 1, 2003. It was held at Comfort Suites in historic, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Josh "The ClogDog" King had the rooms rocking! The event was well attended by approximately 100 cloggers. Among those who pre-registered were: Appalachian Expressions, Blue Ridge Thunder Cloggers, Burlington County 4-H Cloggers, Carroll County Cloggers, Country Bear Cloggers, Covered Bridge Cloggers, Happy Feet Cloggers, Keystone Cloggers, Klick Silver Cloggers, The Shore Fire Cloggers, Wyoming County 4-H Country Cloggers, and Lehigh Valley Cloggers.

Brendan McCarthy, Mary Snyder, and other members of the Lehigh Valley Cloggers did a fantastic job in pulling this event together. The rooms were great and the dance floors were awesome. Special thanks go to several people who helped assemble the stages and floors the night before. Brendan McCarthy, Stew Granger, John Fuchs, Mark Wilson, Mary Smith, and Joyce Guthrie all played key roles in the construction process. It wasn't too unusual to see the guys hard at work with hammers and saws, but it was a sight to see Mary and Joyce get right in there and hammer away! No camera!

Everything about the day was well orchestrated and the day ran relatively smooth. The attendees picked up some great new routines from Josh King, Mary Smith, Mark Wilson, Mary Snyder, and Brendan McCarthy. Sally Adkins from Heritage Clogging Supplies came from Ohio to supply us with her wonderful Clogging merchandise. Connie Fuchs and Kathy Granger did a fantastic job with registration and Gail Binns had lunch under control!

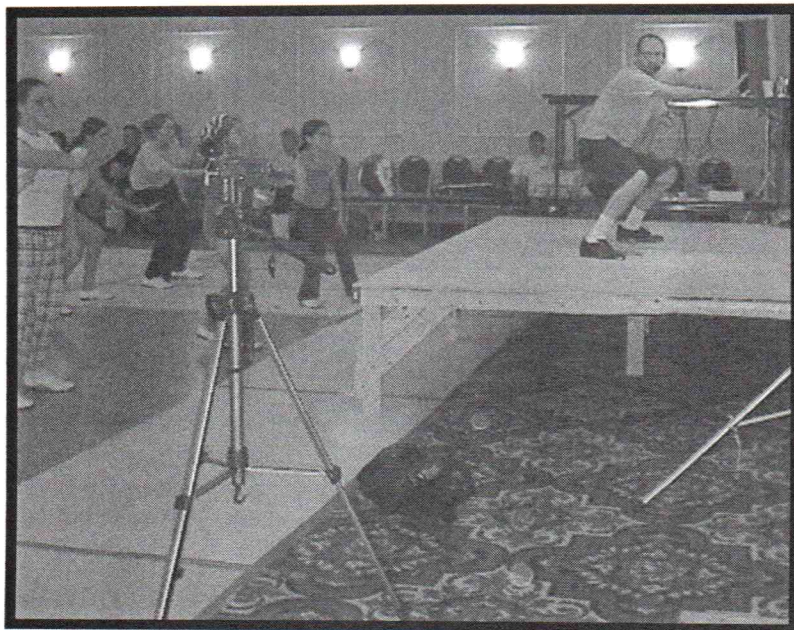

We are looking forward to next year and hope to see all of you at the Lehigh Valley Clogger's 4th annual Harvest Stomp! We are already planning next year's event and anticipate an even bigger crowd. It will be held at the Clarion in Phillipsburg, NJ. The date is November 6, 2004. Mary Snyder and Brendan McCarthy achieved CCI this year, so along with Josh "The ClogDog", we will have two new certified instructors next year.

Tribute

In Loving Memory of “Uncle” Don Keeney

Submitted by Missy Shinoski, Kansas City, MO

The clogging community has lost a long-standing member. Don Keeney, of Kansas City, Missouri, died tragically in a house fire on January 19th, 2004. He was 65 years old & a long-time member of the Klogghoppers of Kansas City. Don is survived by his wife Shirley & his grandson Scott who also cloggers. We wanted to share how people remember him & rejoice in his life. Below are just a few of the entries that are posted on www.kcstar.com obituary guest book for Don J. Keeney.

Uncle Don was a wonderful & caring man. He was a member of the Klogghoppers for close to 20 years & a good friend to myself & family for just as long! Every week he would greet me with a hug & a kiss on top of my head & say “How are ya babe?” He was our official greeter of the Klogghoppers & he made each person feel welcome. We had our first club meeting of 2004 just a few days after his death & I closed my eyes every once & a while & envisioned Uncle Don clogging away to some of his favorite songs. One of his favorite team trips was to Branson where we performed at Silver Dollar City for a week. I remember on the drive down to Branson, he stopped along the highway to save a turtle that was getting ready to cross in to traffic. If you knew Uncle Don, this would not surprise you, it was just the way he was & still is in our hearts! Kind, loving, caring & someone you could count on no matter what. He helped me change a tire on the way to work one morning at 6 am. He was always a great help at our workshop & competition. From helping with loading a dance floor, to offering encouraging words to dancers as they went on stage, or helping entertain an out of town clogger at the casino ...he was there...all you had to do was ask & he was happy to help. He was a true friend & the Klogghoppers, my family & I will greatly miss him. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Shirley & family & all who loved him! Love, Missy, Bill & Lauren Kate Shinoski & the Klogghoppers (Kansas City, Missouri)

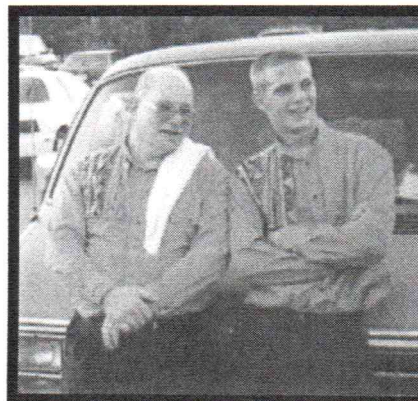

What a great loss for Shirley, family, friends, and especially those that had yet to meet this amazing man we fondly revere as our “Uncle Don”. Although not actually my Uncle in legal terms, Don became a loving member of our family and so many others through his selflessness and sincere ability to love others. He touched us all in a very special and personal manner that we will all miss, but never forget. His influence will continue to dance in our minds and attitudes. He shared so much with us and helped create so many happy memories. To this, I can only say thanks to God for allowing our lives to connect during Don’s abbreviated time on earth.

My memories of Don are all inspiring. He was always available to provide assistance and support. I can’t recall a time when he was not offering to go out of his way to assist with something! With his contagious warmth and gentle nature, Don became a group favorite and one of the unique personalities everyone looked forward to encountering weekly at dance practice. He was a character that made group gatherings enjoyable, trips memorable and hoedowns priceless! I will never forget his unique hoedown calls when he would take creative license to rap off some traditional square dance moves with his own comedic chatter sure to make everyone crack up. He had a way of making people around him relax, smile and comfortable. Nor will I forget the many trips and outings, whether to compete at Silver Dollar City, dance at numerous exhibitions or to relax at the lake. No matter the setting, Don was always consistent in his warmth, energetic personality and support for those around him. I can’t help but smile when I think of him!

Although Don’s departure isn’t easy to reason, I find solitude in knowing that he has assumed the role guardian

Instructor Profiles

Greg & Maria Tucker, Utah

By Theresa MacArthur, Michigan

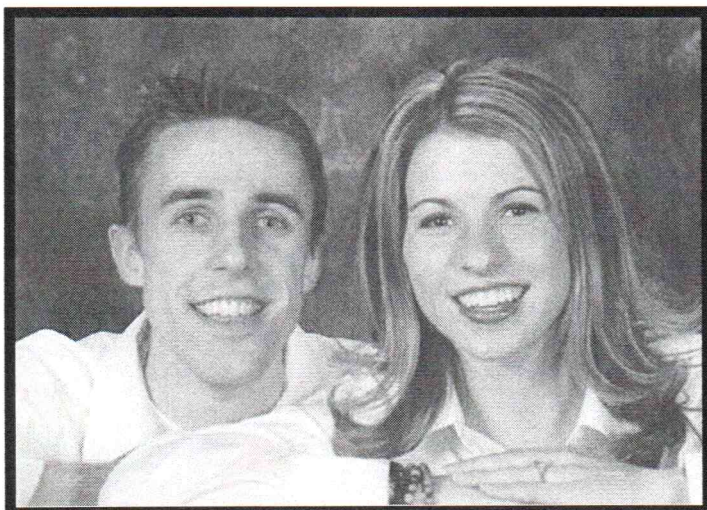

Clogging Instructors Greg and Maria Tucker are from Orem, Utah. They run a studio together, called the Rocky Mountain Express. The group I top notch, with dancers from the very young up to the very old. In addition, they have a new dancer of their very own – Maria delivered their first child, Bailey Hannelore Tucker, on September 30 of 2003. We can always use more cloggers in the world!

Their group hails from Orem, Utah, which is very near to Salt Lake City. If anyone saw the opening and closing ceremonies of the 2002 Olympics, you not only saw Greg, Maria, and many of their dancers, but also witnessed some of their choreography! Greg and Maria served as co-choreographers for the clogging section of the Olympic ceremonies.

In competition clogging, there are four sanctioning bodies, including the National Clogging And Hoedown Council (known as NCHC), the Clogging Champions Of America (known as CCA), and America On Stage. Greg and Maria are the current Mixed Duet/Buck & Wing Duet title holders for all three organizations, and are the only duet to ever hold all three titles at the same time!

Greg and Maria also had a group recently return from performing at Silver Dollar City in Branson, Missouri. Performing at Silver Dollar City is by invitation only. Your group not only has to be able to clog, but perform other types of dance as well! Rocky Mountain Express has sent groups several years in a row, and visiting their website will tell you that it is a real experience!

The Rocky Mountain Express Cloggers have had groups perform at Disneyland in California, Silver Dollar City in Branson, Missouri, the NCHC National Championships in Atlanta, Georgia, and the CCA National "Showdown" in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Greg toured with a group called Cloggers West, and brought clogging to France, Belgium, Holland, Israel, Denmark and Sweden. Also, Greg and Maria both brought their talents to the Disney movie "Luck Of The Irish". Check it out and see them in action!

If you visited the CLOG National Convention in Las Vegas, Nevada in November, 2003, you had the chance to see Greg and Maria and their talents at work. Greg and Maria have been invited to be the first married couple to guest instruct for the Michigan Clogging Instructors Council workshop, to be held on October 2, 2004.

You can check out Greg And Maria's group, Rocky Mountain Express, on the internet at <http://www.rmexpress.00go.com/>, and the Michigan Clogging Instructors Council is online at <http://www.clogging.tk>.

Remembering "Uncle" Don Keeney

angel and is continuing to watch over those he loved. My sincere condolences to Shirley, family and friends in this time of loss. Rest assured that although Don has left us in physical presence, he has not left our spiritual lives. He continues to inspire... Don, we love you, cherish you and celebrate you! Truly inspired, Matt Pearson (Phoenix, Arizona)

I'm going to miss Uncle Don so much, Klogghoppers will not be the same without him. In the 5 years I've known him, he definitely lived his life to a Lee Ann Womack song "When you get the choice to sit it out or dance..... I hope you dance."

Love you Uncle Don!

Kendra Looten (Jefferson City, MO)

To Uncle Don. You were loved by all who knew you, even those of us who only saw you once or twice a year. I remember the smile, the always-ready-to-help and do-whatever-it-takes winning attitude. You were always there with the right things to say and your behind-the-scenes support was unmatched. I remember a rescue from the amusement park followed by an amusing trip to an auto parts store. Uncle Don, you are gone but never forgotten. Save a place in heaven for the rest of your clogging buddies, family, and friends. I know by the time we all get there, heaven will be dancing in the hoedown category! Love/Char (Charlene Burton – Texas)

High on the Hog

by Bob Warner, CCI

The 4th Annual Mid-Winter Hot Dog Clog Hog was held January 10th at Historic Bowens Mills north of Gun Lake, a mile and a half north of M-179 on Briggs Rd in the Gathering Place, a large gambrel roofed entertainment center. The festival is always open to the public and held in January. It is the main fund raiser for the Thunder Floor Cloggers who are based out of Lake Odessa, MI. Cloggers from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio came to join in the fun of clogging to lots of different kinds of music and learning some new routines and steps. Included in the group were a lot of non-dancers who saw the ad about the clog hog in the paper and came on out. They looked like they were having a good time.

Heritage Clogging Supplies of Columbus, Ohio was there with five tables of clogging paraphernalia and lots of smiles. The festival registration started at 8am and the Clog Hog got underway at 9am. Our U.S. flag was brought out by Ken the clogger of Kalamazoo, and all present recited the Pledge of Allegiance to The Flag of The United States. An article was read by Bob Warner, head instructor of the Thunder Floor Cloggers, about what happened to the 56 men who were brave and God fearing enough to give us our country by placing their lives, possessions and families in great danger, when going against their own government as British subjects they signed for all of us, the Declaration of Independence. Resulting in paving the way for the writing of our Constitution protecting us from any abuse from our servant government. It was evident by the applause from the audience that the bravery of our founding fathers is appreciated.

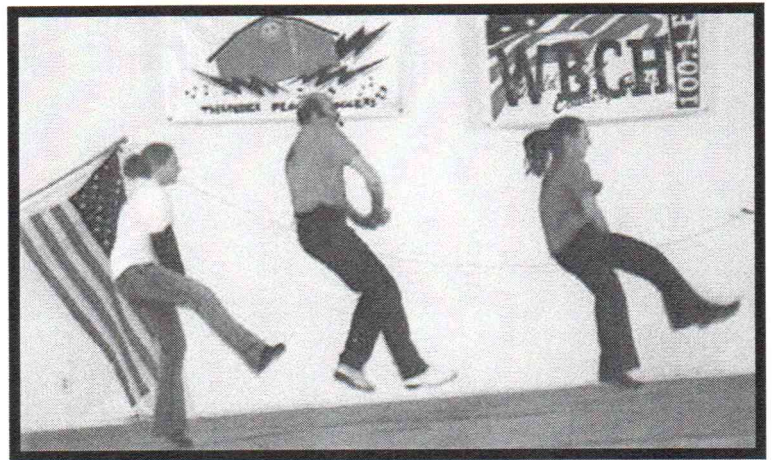

At 9:15am Bob Warner started to cue songs for the dancers. Teaches were done by John Tinsley of South Bend, IN; Trina Taylor of Haslet, MI; Debbie Snell of Kalamazoo, MI; Sallie Adkins of Columbus, OH; Bob Warner of Lake Odessa, MI. Clogging groups present were the Corunna Country Kickers, Corunna, MI; Thunder Floor Cloggers, Lake Odessa, MI; Gull Creek Cloggers, Richland, MI; Michiana Cloggers, Niles, MI; Celery City Cloggers, Kalamazoo, MI and the LA Cloggers, Haslet, MI.

It was fun to see the Grand Rapids press there taking pictures and interviewing people for three hours, including the two spoon players, Sheila Huis of Hastings and 91 year old Alvina M. Warner of Lake Odessa and public access TV CH 2 out of Hastings was there taping the dances. Also one could see Robert Hudson of Ada, playing the bones as he flatfoot clogged a little. There were performances starting at 2:30pm by the Michiana Cloggers, Celery City Cloggers and the Thunder Floor Cloggers. There were people of all ages at the clog hog. It was nice to see all the younger people mixing with the older ones. The individuals and families who take part in the American step dance, or as it is sometimes called, power tap, enjoy each others company and when they are in a room together there is an air of helping each other. For most of the dancers it is an extended family situation and it really is a clogging community, watching and looking out for one another.

At 4pm the silent auction was closed and the bidders went around to see who won the items donated by some 66 businesses from Lansing to Lowell, Gun Lake to Belding and Ionia. The auction has been a yearly fun time at the clog hog to raise money for the hosting Thunder Floor Cloggers portable stage and expenses.

5:30 pm came around too soon and the closing ceremonies were held. The person coming the farthest besides Sallie was the winner of the Hog Bank, John Tinsley of South Bend, IN. The people gathered around and sang God Bless America. By 7pm the lights were out, the music was hushed, the Great room was empty. One could only hear the big horses shuffling in the barnyard. Next year in the middle of the winter, once again the walls of the Gathering Place will vibrate with the sound of cloggers feet and the sound of good wholesome music will float through the walls and drift to the ears of all who will listen.

The Hills Are Alive With The Sound Of...Clogging!

Hills Of Kentucky Turns In Another Great Year

By Theresa MacArthur, Michigan

With the memories of turkey in our heads, and the fear of christmas shopping in our hearts, we did what any fine cloggers would do...we clogged!

November 28, cloggers converged on the Drawbridge Hotel, in Fort Mitchell Kentucky, for the Hills Of Kentucky Clogging Competitions. Teams were represented from Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Minnesota, and North Carolina.

The night started with the Show Duet competition, then moved in to the Duet, and finally, the Duo competition. The competition was fierce as ever, and ended with Caitlyn and Alyson Vincent being named Overall Duo/ Duet.

Then, the night moved to the solo competition. As anyone that has been to a clogging competition before can attest, you'll often see some of the highest flying feet of the event in the solo competition!

Coming out on top were Shamus Riley in the Traditional solos, Tyler Hartman as the Amateur Male, Breana Chitty as the Amateur Female, James Venhuzien as the Challenge Male champion, and Heather Grissom as the Challenge Female champion.

That ended the competition for the evening. Tired from the evenings events, directors took their teams back to practice and prepare for the following day.

Back rested, refreshed, and practiced, the dancers returned to the hall at 3:00, for the team events.

The day started with the Amateur events. In a move seen in few other competitions, all amateur team events were danced first in the day. The "buzz on the street" is that this was a much appreciated move by the dancers.

The Amateur team competition was tight – The Rhythm Sensation, from Jackson, Michigan took Overall Amateur Open Line, and Exhibition. Displaying their fine hoedown skills, Junior Taps In Motion took Overall Amateur Hoedown, Precision and Standing Line. American Pride Classics rounded out

If anyone thought the team competition was tight, then they were going crazy during the dance-off! Every team involved put their finest work on the stage, and had the other teams involved on the edge of their seats, but in the end, The Rhythm Sensation prevailed, taking Overall Amateur Team, with their Exhibition.

The Challenge team competition was even tighter – there were some teams on the stage that were making the floor burn! Taps In Motion, under the direction of Jamie Conyers-Vincent moved on to the dance-off for their Open Line, Standing Line, and Artistic Expression. Bailey Mountain Cloggers, coming in from North Carolina moved on with their precision, Clogging Premiere Senior made it with their hoedown, and Clogging Premiere won Overall Challenge Exhibition.

The crowd had thinned, but those that remained got to see some of the hottest dancing this side of the Mississippi River! In the end, Taps In Motion prevailed, dancing their standing line.

The competition was tough, and with Mr. Kevin Parries serving as MC, we moved along at a nice pace. For the Saturday evening competition, the Amateur competition began at 3 P.M., and was finished, with all the awards handed out, by 9. An impressively run competition, to be sure. Fonda Hill and her group put on a fabulous event, and did a great job of making everyone comfortable. If you weren't in Kentucky this year, I highly recommend packing your clogging shoes and heading south. It's an event not to be missed!
