FRONT AND CENTER

Learning Twice

Sometimes our students become our teachers. During a Summer dance camp that I was teaching, a talented but brash young man said to me, "I see you are teaching in the advanced hall. You and advanced... I don't see it." After my immediate reaction to his display of what I felt was total disrespect, and an impromptu need to launch into every tricky advanced step I knew, I covered the embarrassment of the situation with a joke and accepted the apologies of all those within earshot who bolstered my ego with hearty praise of my dancing skill.

But the words stayed with me. Isn't it something how an avalanche of praise will digest so quickly and one negative comment burn in your gut like so much spicy food? Why would someone say that they couldn't see me teaching anything more than easy to intermediate clogging? Well, maybe it's because they never had.

I've been clogging for nearly 25 years and teaching for more than twenty. As a workshop instructor, you tend to choreograph for the mainstream of festival goers and to have a repertoire of material at any given time in a range of levels. Certain teachers gain a reputation for certain types of choreography or are asked to present more easy routines or more difficult. I always prided myself on trying to have material at most all levels – including some advanced – and to even challenge line dancers with interactive routines that had dimension and formations. Somewhere along the way though, between aching knees, fatigue, burn out and the ease in just presenting the material in a fun and light atmosphere, I sometimes forgot that the best way to teach dance is to dance.

"To teach is to learn twice," said French essayist and moralist Joseph Joubert. I think I got so caught up in the act of presenting, sometimes I forgot to learn with the dancers. By sharing the experience of the dance, you relate it more fluidly. The feet and the body are much more expressive than the most articulate speaker or the most entertaining presenter.

So, I owe an apology to one obnoxious — but honest — young man. Looking back at my own experiences, the teachers that made the biggest impression on me were the ones who challenged me to achieve through their guidance, wisdom and example. Like the old proverb, they opened the door, but I had to go through it on my own. Looking back, even though I went the distance, I honor them for the journey. The sad thing about teachers is that their legacy isn't an audacious one. There are few monuments to teachers except in the collective memories of the students they reach through the years.

Maybe a 40 plus clogging instructor with teenage students shouldn't worry if the kids don't see them as an advanced dancer. That's mid-life for you. What I hope is that someday a group of cloggers will be talking about memorable teachers, and if my name would happen to come up, someone might say "Yeah, I see it." I guess I've still got a lot of learning to do.

Happy Clogging, Jeff Driggs, Editor

Your letters, faxes and e-mails

Keeping the Faith

I was going to give up all hope of ever clogging again because of Sciatic Nerve Syndrome and loss of hearing loss, meaning I would not be renewing my subscription.

I still love to try to clog and do it until it hurts, but to give up the Double Toe Times means throwing in the towel!

I have had an operation on my ear that might help improve my hearing with the use of a hearing aid and -- with therapy -- the Sciatic Nerve problem is getting better, so I will continue to keep my faith and hope and keep the Double Toe Times coming.

Lauretta Getchell

Editor's Note:

God bless ya Lauretta! I am so sorry to hear about the problems you have been having and I hope that you will continue to improve and be able to clog for a long, long time. Just like others who have shared their courageous stories here in the Double Toe Times, we are so proud to have you as part of the clogging family and you know that even when we are not able to be on the dancefloor, we are always clogging in our hearts. A gift is on the way from us and we wish you all the best!

One For You...

Thanks so much for the copies of the Double Toe Times for the girls (January Issue - Reno Clogfest).

They were all so surprised to get their own copies. You made our year!

*Sharon Lopeman
Lynx Creek Cloggers
Prescott, AZ*

Editor's Note:

We are glad to send you the copies! People who send us articles or pictures often request additional copies to give to their team members and most offer to pay for the copies, but I appreciate the effort so much of people who contribute to the content and we gladly send them out. Please keep up the great work and thanks for letting us feature you here in the Double Toe Times!

Desperate

This is about the fourth notice I've received about renewing my subscription, so I assume you are desperate for customers. This is why I am not renewing:

1. For the money ($2 a month), there is very little information in the magazine that is not on the internet..
2. The articles are boring.
3. There is very little about how to make a clogging group work, or how to choreograph or how to buck-style clogging steps, etc. etc.

I don't mean to be rude, just frank. I have been to many of your classes at workshops and I love your teaching style and choreography, but let's face it... your passion is not in this magazine. When it (your passion) finds its way back into the Double Toe Times then maybe I'll resubscribe. I'm sorry to be so frank.

*All the best,
Sharon Isaacs*

Editor's Note:

I appreciate your frankness, Sharon. I'm sorry that you do not find enough info here to keep you reading. We depend on our readers to provide us with articles and have enlisted the help of some talented writers to begin doing some features and put more human interest and clogger profiles in the magazine. I, personally, have never found what cloggers share about their events, classes and teaching methods to be boring.

The internet is a great resource, and it should be able to keep you informed of upcoming events and happenings in the clogging world. You can even find events, articles and listings at our own website at www.doubletoe.com at no charge.

Please send us your emails, letters, faxes, stories and photos and choreography!

The 2003 Nickel City Festival

By Elaine Brock

Western New York Cloggers Association

The promise of spring was in the air over the April 10th -12th weekend, as over 700 cloggers and visitors began arriving in Grand Island, New York, in anticipation of another fun-filled Nickel City weekend. The Holiday Inn Resort and Conference Center, overlooking our mighty Niagara River, was the setting for the 17th Nickel City Clogging Festival, which is presented annually by the Western New York Cloggers Association. Visitors travelled from as far away as Arizona, Michigan, Maine, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, and Virginia, and closer to home, those from Pennsylvania, and Ontario, Canada, and many cities in New York State, all joined together because of one thing —the love of clogging. What a great brotherhood we have in clogging!

The weekend was a superb workshop and the Western New York Cloggers Association welcomed this magnificent staff of instructors: Sallie Adkins, Nick Bailey, Scotty Bilz, Charlie Burns, Jeff Driggs, Shane Gruber, Jim Naylor, Dorothy & Joanna Hoar, and Sandy Holdway. Also lending their talents to this impressive group were: Dale Burl, Johanna Dash, Sonya Gelster, Rick Smith, and Lynda Vaadi, who together presented many new and entertaining routines that everyone had a great time learning! Two of our returning instructors had comments on our workshop. Jim Naylor stated, "This is my 2nd year here at the Nickel City Festival. Everything is good here, the atmosphere, the great dance halls, and all the people. I am looking forward to returning again in the future!" Returning Instructor Nick Bailey added, "This is my 2nd year here at the Nickel City Festival. I have cut back on festivals and workshops, and only do three a year. I chose to do Nickel City because of the wonderful organization, and besides, it is lots of fun!" A special moment for the Nickel City Festival was the presentation of the 3rd annual Western New York Cloggers Association Hall of Fame Awards, which purpose is to recognize individuals who have contributed significantly to the perpetuation of clogging in the Western New York region. This year we were proud to honour Sallie Adkins and Charlie Burns, who have been such loyal supporters of our Festival for many, many years and have become adopted members of the Western New York community. We thank them both for over 15 years of helping clogging in this region, and for the joy, laughter, and happiness they brought to all of us! Also receiving Hall of Fame Awards this year were Bonnie Linhardt and Norm Gelster, whose many "behind the scenes" contributions to Nickel City have helped to keep things running smoothly over the years. Congratulations to these outstanding and very deserving individuals! Honouree Charlie Burns commented, "I have been involved with Nickel City in Buffalo and Grand Island now for 16 years. I said it before, and I'll say it again, this is the best workshop that I (or anyone else, or everyone here) have ever attended. If you don't believe it, just come and attend the Nickel City Festival!"

Events began Thursday and continued throughout the day on Friday, with a variety of dancing activities. Sandy Holdway taught Canadian Step Dancing, while Lynda Vaadi, and Dorothy and Joanna Hoar, continued with teaches of easy and intermediate songs. Friday evening was bustling with loads of activities from a brisk vendor business in the hallways, to dancing in the two available halls. Our welcome Trail-In Dance and general fun time on Friday evening in the Ballroom was enjoyed by a large crowd and afforded everyone the opportunity to meet and dance with our featured instructors and other cloggers. Also, ongoing in the Settlement Room, were request dances offered by our staff instructors.

Despite a bad case of laryngitis, Sallie Adkins was very successful teaching Friday night by using lots of sign language! Sallie stated, "Once again I am ecstatic to be back with my Buffalo family. I was very honoured to be given the Hall of Fame Award. Just because I talked funny, I could not make my acceptance speech! Thanks to Elaine from Ontario, Canada, for her miracle vegetable drink, plus many throat lozenges from many cloggers, I was much improved and feeling better on Saturday. I am already looking forward to next year at Nickel City!" During the Trail-In Dance, Jeff Driggs ran a medley of "do you remember these..." songs and dances from the past, and challenged anyone who could remember the tunes or dances to get up and "rise and shine" to the occasion. He thought he could stump the audience with "Time Warp," from the Rocky Horror Show, and said he would "kiss the clogging shoes" of anyone who could remember the song. Sure enough, a clogger actually came forward and danced to the song, and sure enough, Jeff paid his bet — he kissed her clogging shoes! Later, Jeff remarked, "I'm so glad to be back here in Western New York. I enjoy the enthusiasm of all the cloggers, dancers, just everyone! This is the first time that I am able to see the show from the audience as I am taking a break from helping out, and it will be a treat! The weather here is great — and I did not have to jump over any ice this year!"

Bright and early Saturday morning the halls were filled with cloggers busy greeting other dancers and selecting which workshops to attend. Dancers had the pleasure of choosing between the five separate halls that offered a huge variety of clogging choices ranging from beginner workshops to advanced classes, with every type of song and pace of dancing in between — country, bluegrass, pop. Irish step dancing, etc. — it was all there to be enjoyed!

Also, during the weekend, the annual Phyllis Antos Scholarship was awarded to Tim Mort, our Nickel City sound technician. The Western New York Cloggers Association scholarship was awarded to Karen Millis —both Tim and Karen have clogged with the Backwoods cloggers in the past. Congratulations to both of you, and good luck with your schooling!

As the Saturday workshops concluded, we all geared up for the highlight of the weekend —the Saturday evening presentation, "Apple Pie - A Slice of American Ingenuity," celebrating some of the greatest innovations and inventions in history from the rocking chair to the World Wide Web! This song and dance tribute was written by Pam Brody, and directed by Cheri Truax. A special clogging dinner show was followed by a sold out "show only" presentation, which were viewed by a combined audience of over 600 spectators! Approximately 200 cloggers, actors, and singers, (representing 13 teams), participated, and an impressive display of talent was exhibited by all the participating groups which contributed to the enjoyment of the crowds. The Riverview Room was also open during and after our shows for anyone who had the energy for more dancing!

In addition to the fine workshops, there is so much to do at Nickel City. Our clogger's pool party on Friday evening was filled to capacity, the vendors set up shop early and were kept busy all weekend, the Holiday Inn's Fitness Center, sauna, and Jacuzzi were all occupied, and anyone with time to spare could visit the nearby outlet malls, museums, spend some time at the Casinos, or just do some sightseeing of our famous Niagara Falls. We are so very fortunate to have such a well-rounded group of instructors visit us each year. Scotty Bilz declared, "This is actually the biggest workshop I have done since the C.L.O.G. National Convention. It is always exciting, the people are really friendly —even though they are Yankees!" Shane Gruber added, "This is my 3rd year here and it is great to be back! It is a workshop that I look forward to each year, and is the workshop to attend. Everything is wrapped up in one package —plenty of rooms and plenty of dancing. The people are outstanding, so friendly, and they make me want to come back again —I am very happy to be here! I felt badly that Steve Smith was unable to make it this year and hope he returns soon."

Many, many special thanks go out to Ken and Linda Haley and all their hard working committee people, volunteers, and all the participants who did a fantastic job coordinating this year's festival. This event would not be a success without their service and dedication. Thank you to all who attended and supported our Nickel City Festival. Come and meet our New York family at Nickel City next year, on April 15, 16, & 17, 2004, again at the Holiday Inn, Grand Island, New York. Be sure to mark your calendars! You are all invited to join us for another exciting weekend, and a very warm welcome awaits you!

Memorial Day Dance Spectacular and Midwest Clogging Championships

The annual workshop and competition celebrated it's twelfth year in Columbus, Ohio at the Holiday Inn Worthington.

Friday night offered a trail in workshop featuring Sallie Adkins, Rob and Sheryl Keller, Charlie Burns, Trevor DeWitt, Jeff Driggs and Buzz Venhuizen. Saturday, there were workshops in all levels in four different halls featuring Scotty Bilz, Sherry Cox, Stan Webb, and more of today's favorite workshop teachers!

This workshop has gained a reputation for having a wild Saturday night fun dance and this year did not disappoint! In addition to non-stop cued and requested routines, there was a lights out laser dance with over 600 glow lights in the crowd and an instructor challenge that pitted the guys against the girls in a hilarious relay race that the girls won!

Sunday's competition brought teams from throughout the midwest, including T'Nacious, Clogging Premier, Hoosier Pride, Rise And Shine, Rhythm Sensation, Breakout, Fancy Free, American Pride, Minnesota Motion, 'N Step Dance Troupe, Indiana Dance Force, City Clickers, Teays River Cloggers and more. A crowd favorite was the show routine from Minnesota motion that featured "Thriller" tombstones with the judges names on them. T'Nacious from Nebraska took home the 7 foot overall trophy and $1000 cash!

Winners included:

Over-all Challenge Team: T'Nacious, Nebraska

Over-all Amateur Team: Critical Impact, Kentucky.

Over-all Solos: Mike Curtis, Carleigh Gentry, Brian Hendershot.

Over-all Duo/Duet: Mike Curtis & Kelly Goodpaster.

Traditional: Bryce Suite, A Capella: Drake Elkin

Plans are already underway for the lucky 13th year! More great clogging workshops and competition is planned so mark your calendars and keep Memorial Day free for a great time!

An Inspiring Clogger

Submitted by: Bob the clogger
The THUNDER FLOOR CLOGGERS, MI

Roberta E. Klingbeil is an amazing person. Living on small Mitchell Lake North of Sheridan, Michigan for thirty years. At 71, she has three of her six children and their families living in their own homes a stones throw away from hers, all tucked in the woods of that little lake. Her husband built their first home after the original one burned. Building another one, her son and daughter-in-law Brenda moved into the first he built. Brenda got her mother into clogging with us 2.5 years ago. Brenda's enthusiasm won her over.

Her family and clogging are her life. In October 2002 she had a hip replacement. She knew she needed the other one done and it worked out that the doctor called in a short time and asked, "What about next Tuesday to get the other one done?" So she had the other one done in November. Nothing like planning is there.

Roberta says "I have to do things for myself. I don't want to be a burden to my children. (Believe me, I don't think any of her kids would ever think her as a burden). Roberta's attitude is the best that it can be. She came back to clogging in January 2003. She has been an amazing inspiration to Lynda and I and the rest of the cloggers. She comes to our classes on Sunday night in our barn in Lake Odessa, MI. What a wonderful dancer. She shows that no matter what the deal in life can be, as long as a person has a good attitude a person can do what he wants to do.

What to do with all of those Tshirts you've accumulate!.

Bobbi Boyce, Texas Clogging Council
cloggiebee@austin.rr.com

When my T-shirt closet began to overflow, I had to come up with something to do with them. I had been collecting them for a long time with the idea of making a T-shirt quilt. I had seen several at various crafts shows, but all of the pictures or logos on my shirts were too large to fit on a single quilt square. After literally years of cogitating about how to make it, I finally decided on a way to use them: I cut 16" squares, ironed on the T-shirt logo in the center, and then cut the squares into four 8" squares. (I used a machine quilting stitch around the edge of the T-shirt pieces so it would LOOK like I sewed them on.) Then I laid out all of the 8" squares so that I could plan the placement of additional logos on other adjacent comers. It was quite a puzzle to put it all together. Sewing the sashing on, then the blocks into columns and the columns into a quilt was the easy part. For someone who has never made a quilt before, I am very happy with my Texas Rally quilt. Let's see, now I can also make a "My Teaching Career" quilt, a "Places I've Visited" one, a "Concerts I've Attended" on... As I said, my T-shirt closet is overflowing!

(If you would like additional information about the construction of the quilt, email or call. I'll be glad to try to help.)

Choreographer's Corner

The future of clogging belongs to a new generation of dancers who can shuffle to a good hoedown, mix footwork and jazzy hands to make a high-energy step dance mix, and percussion to beat the band. This advanced routine by Bryce Suite of Lexington, Kentucky and Andy Schierman of Tipton, Indiana features all of the above! Not only are they great choreographers, but the duo does a great job of breaking down the complex steps while teaching.
