FRONT AND CENTER

Thankful Soles

I love the Thanksgiving season because it gives us a reason to stop and ponder the great wealth of our nation. We honor that prosperity in our families by filling the table with a bounty of food and being thankful all day until we can't be thankful anymore, then we divvy up the bounty to continue to remind us for a week of the blessings of turkey and dressing. I would add gravy to that list, but the gravy always seems to run out by Friday evening. You can judge a society by it's poorest members, and Americans -- if anything -- feed our least fortunate. Sometimes we are terrible in our efforts to get that aid to those who need it when they need it, but when there is a need, Americans are incredibly generous and find a way and I am thankful for that.

I am thankful for living in a country that believes in extending the blessings of liberty around the world. I am thankful for the freedom of speech to disagree with our government if I chose and also to disagree with those who disagree. I am thankful for the freedom to worship in any way I choose or go to any church I like and put bumper stickers on my car that say Jesus is my co-pilot, or There is no Dog!

I am thankful that I have not had any major problems this year... so thanks for NOTHING... nothing BAD happening! Thanks for no job security problems, thanks for health insurance, thanks for no late fees.

I am thankful that my sound equipment made it through one more year, and the pieces that didn't all broke right after I bought a back-up or while someone else in the building had a spare set in their car.

I am thankful for the privilege of spending another year traveling around the world teaching clogging. I am thankful that my knees held out, even when my patience didn't, and I am thankful that when I didn't feel like I was giving my best that dancers had the grace to smile and make me feel like I had them fooled. I am thankful for 38 weekends of safe travels and only two weekends of lost luggage. I am thankful for the frequent flyer miles to send my retired parents on a vacation to thank them for all they have done for me. I am thankful for the new friends I have made this year and for the countless friends I look forward to spending time with.

I am thankful to those who took the time to say "Thank you," and hope that I extend the same courtesy to those who help me so much. When I look at the table of bounty in my life, I am truly blessed. I hope that you, too, have had a blessed year and that we all have the means, friends and faith to make it through another year. Anything else, as they say, is gravy!

Happy Clogging, Jeff Driggs

Readers's Forum

Your Emails, Letters and Faxes

Hello from North Dakota!

I started the Capital City Cloggers in 1983 with five square dancers and the club is still going strong with 15 members, nine of whom perform in exhibitions! I have enjoyed clogging all these years. I have dancers who have been clogging for 10 years! There are only three clogging clubs in the state of North Dakota, the Capital City Cloggers in Bismark, the Cloghoppers in Fargo (200 miles East) and the Fiddlekick Cloggers of Dickinson (110 miles West).

I had to write and tell you how much I enjoy reading your "Front and Center" column each month. I also enjoyed and appreciated the August issue with all of the wonder teaching tips and lesson plans. But back to "Front and Center"... You are really such a "wise guy." Your editorial each month is so real and down to earth and – yes – wise! I have made copies from past issues and handed them out to my cloggers. Keep up the good work!

I am currently recovering from a car accident three weeks ago en route to a town 80 miles South of Bismark to start a six week clogging class. Swerving to avoid an accident on the interstate, the car rolled and was totaled. Three of my dancers were with me, but thanks to seat belts and guardian angels we did not end up with life threatening injuries. I have a compression fracture in my lower back and cannot clog for three months. One of my dancers had a concussion and sprained neck and shoulder muscles. Another has a compression fracture in the 4th vertebrae in the neck and is wearing a brace for now. Thankfully, the fourth passenger is just fine.

I remember the day so well and I feel the Lord was with me the whole time. I am so mindful now that He must have something left for me to do here.

Clogging has such an enjoyable part of my life for so many years. My husband, Ernie, does not clog but he has been my main support for all of these years. Each new set of lessons we are excited wondering who will come out, what the end result will be in six weeks, and who will need some extra attention while struggling to get that dang double toe!

My group is a joy as well. We perform about 25 times a year and are regular performers at several care centers every season. One event we always look forward to is called "Chords, Keys and Clogs." We dance to live swing music and I put together a special dance each year. The final number is performed with the Dakota Keys Accordion Club and Swing Band doing a polka. It is wonderful!

Once in a while the three clubs in the state get together and perform as the I-94 Cloggers. That is always a treat.

I enjoy the Double Toe Times so much. The routines are good. I have used them, and it really helps out to have this choreo that I can use or change slightly to meet the level of my dancers.

Keep up the good work. I am 64 years old and feel really great to be a clogger!

*Patty Vollan, Capital City Cloggers
Bismark, ND*

Dear Patty:

I am so glad to hear that you and your dancers are all recovering from your accident. I think God must have some very special guardian angels to watch over cloggers. We are very blessed to have so few accidents, and those that happen remind us how precious our clogging family is to us. I wish you all continuing good health and a full recovery.

Thank you for your kind words about the editorials. After having written nearly 100 of them since taking over the magazine, I sometimes worry that I don't have anything relevant to say. I tend to srite about whatever is on my mind at the time and am glad you enjoy reading!

Thanks Double Toe Times

My friend and I had been clogging 4 years and didn't know there were workshops out there until we received the Double Toe Times. We attended our first workshop from information in your upcoming events and I told the instructors and organizers how helpful the magazine was and filled with information. I asked the instructor what other magazines were out there and he said DTT was the only one worth getting! Thanks for a great read each and every month!

*Tracy Mullaney
LaCrosse, WI*

Dear Tracy:

There are other mags out there, but we are lucky to have the BEST readers in the world... like you!

Cruise Control

Clogging & Xtreme Dance Competition Cruise

What happens when over 300 cloggers, xtreme dancers and their families board a cruise ship for a weekend of fun, sight-seeing and competition? They rock the boat with great dancing and fun!

The cruise was hosted by Jeff Driggs and Kevin Parries and coordinated by Lee Adams Cruises of Ohio and sailed from Port Canaveral (near Orlando) Florida to Nassau in the Bahamas. The event offered a full slate of clogging categories and also Xtreme dance categories (acrobatic, jazz, tap, hip-hop, etc.).

Teams and dancers from Florida, Kentucky, Ohio, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia attended this first competition cruise and brought more than 40 clogging dance team events, 40 xtreme teams, 25 duos and duets and over 100 soloists. The group filled the ornate show theatre of the Carnival Fantasy vessel and provided a great show for the families in attendance as well as fellow cruisers. Competitions were held while the ship was at sea on Thursday and again on Saturday with awards following. The competitions were spaced so that families could also enjoy the many great features on the ship, as well as the gourmet dinner each evening and a full free day in Nassau to hit the beach or the shops or go on one of many shore excursions offered by Carnival. Taps in Motion of Kentucky won top clogging honors and tapper

by Lou Maiuri, America's Clogging Hall of Fame

The fifth annual Grand Lake National Clogging Contest was held on June 11, 2005 at the Grove Civic Center in Grove Oklahoma. The event is held each year in connection with the American Heritage Music Festival.

This years festival was a huge success with 22 teams and over 200 dancers competing for $6000 in prize money. Teams from Oklahoma, Missouri, Arkansas, Colorado and Minnesota competed in the event.

Shockwave from Coweta, Oklahoma was the dominant team this year winning the $1000 grand prize. This is the second time the Shockwave has won this award in the past five years. Last year, the Clogging Sensation from Ozark, MO won the award. A complete list of winners is attached.

Judges for this years competition were Lib Mills, SC, Cindy Noe, NM, Garland Steele, WV, Heather Poteat, NC and Ann Moore, TX. Eddie Caruthers from VA was the scorekeeper. Dianne and Linn Loftin were the stage managers and took care of registration and team lineups. Ken Beach From Broken Arrow, OK took care of sound and music. Pat and Kathie Aggus from Grove managed the stage decorations and setting up the clogging side of the event. Lou Maiuri of Summersville, WV was the Festival Coordinator.

Stadel Charon 1924 – 2005

Stadel loved to dance! Contras, Square Dancing, Big Circle, Little Circle, Nine Pin, Rise "n Shine - he did it all. He was a dancer, a caller, and an Instructor. The last few years of his life he danced and performed with the Cross Creek Cloggers from Micanopy, Florida - one of the very few (if not only) Green Grass style groups in Florida.

Stadel was a master wood carver. He carved canes or walking sticks with handles shaped like horse heads, dogs, panthers, flying ducks, snakes, alligators and pigs. One hog producer ordered six pig canes as Christmas gifts.

Stadel joined the Navy at 18, during WWII serving first aboard a destroyer, DD426, which was sunk off Algiers shortly after he was transferred to land duty. Later he served in the Pacific. After the wars end, he worked as a carpenter, a boat builder, and at other jobs all connected with wood. He cut down trees in Vermont, repaired sulkies for harness racing, and built movie sets in Hollywood for the Red Skelton Show. He crafted beautiful lap dulcimers, and played them too. He built a stand-up bass fiddle that had an unusual square body and played with a small bluegrass band. He is survived by four daughters. Stadel was a very dear fiend and I miss him. With love, Bobbie Adams

In addition to clogging, Betsy loved to bowl. She is survived by her husband of 51 years, Earl Farlow, two sons, 8 grandchildren and one great grandchild.
