FRONT AND CENTER

What are you Googling at?

Isn't GOOGLE an amazing thing? Now we don't even have to think about what our New Year's resolutions will be. We can type in "top ten resolutions" in our computer's search engine and instantly be connected to the wisdom and resolve of millions of people around the globe -- just like you -- who hope to make the new year an opportunity to improve their lives.

My particular GOOGLE search brought up the following results:

- 1) Spend More Time with Family & Friends, 2) Fit in Fitness,
- 3) Tame the Bulge, 4) Quit Smoking, 5) Enjoy Life More,
- 6) Quit Drinking, 7) Get Out of Debt, 8) Learn Something New
- 9) Help Others, 10) Get Organized

Most of the choices are not surprises. Considering that more than half of Americans are overweight, and that we are becoming more and more aware of the importance of exercise. Of course, the New year is always the time to dedicate to quitting smoking or drinking or gambling or just about any other vice that needs a yearly reminder of it's negative effect on our lives.

What I found myself mostly intrigued by with this list is just how much of the resolutions can be addressed with a simple tap of a clogging shoe. Looks like we have a great marketing plan for clogging right here in folks most wished for life changes.

Clogging is one of the few dance activities that families can become involved in together. Much of the dancing does not need a partner and all music styles are used. Clogging can be as aerobic as you make it and you don't need any special equipment, infomercial kits or endorsements to learn it. Sounds like a fun activity to add to a plan to tame the bulge.

Most every clogging group I know doesn't not allow smoking, drinking or drug use, and most clogging events are about as family-oriented as you can get.

I'm not sure how clogging can help you get out of debt except to say that clogging is by far the least expensive dance activity I know of. Our classes and workshops are a fraction of the cost of other dance forms and our workshops and competitions are very reasonable when compared within the dance community. Spending three hours a week at clogging classes is bound to keep you out of the department store, QVC or the local lottery dealer.

Helping others? Well, sure! You know the people around you would love a helping hand or a set of feet to watch. Who knows... you just might learn something new for yourself!

So get yourself organized and make some new flyers for your club and classes so you can take advantage of all this resolve and enjoy life more!
Happy Clogging, Jeff Driggs

Suncoast Jamboree

By Dee Gallina, Director
Suncoast Jamboree

The SunCoast Jamboree celebrated its 26th anniversary at the Hilton Hotel in Dayton Beach, Florida August 25 - 27, 2005. Thursday night was the trail in dance for both the cloggers and line dancers. There are those that get in as much dance as they can!!!!

I received many good reviews on our instructors. They are the cream of the crop and enjoy being a part of the Jamboree. Clogging instructors Dieter Brown (NC), Scotty Bilz (GA), Ronnie Doggett (AL), Jeff Driggs (WV), Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle (IN) were our National Instructors and Jamie & Becky Conn (FL), Sandy Smallwood (FL) along with introducing Debbie Claxton (FL) and Greg Dionne (FL) were our Florida instructors. Tracy Foxworth (FL) — as usual — did a terrific job with the kids as “Tracy’s Troupe” in the Saturday evening program. Tracy also does our “HIP HOP.” She sure can move! Tracy’s talents have added a lot of flare to the Jamboree over the last 6 years.

The line dance instructors, also the cream of the crop, were Stella Cabecca (FL), Bill McGee (FL), Marilyn McNeal (FL), Junior Willis (TN) and Arline Winerman (FL). Debbie Sweet (IN) as usual was there to coordinate the hall and steps in to help with whatever needs doing. Her number one job seems to be to keep me laughing.

I am so thankful for the many great volunteers that man the tables during the Jamboree. (Cont. on page 12)

Photos: Top: Dancers from Florida’s Clogging Connection, directed by Jamie and Debbie Conn, don raincoats for a fun clogging show routine to “It’s Raining Men.”

Middle: Emcee Dieter Brown enjoys the exhibitions prior to his hosting the fun dance with Scotty Bilz.

Bottom Country Line dance Instructor Bill McGee and his dancers from Florida perform an amazing show routine featuring dancers on stilts, the statue of liberty and more patriotic symbols. The routine was a real crowd pleaser!

Thanks to the Cloghoppers of Lady Lakes, Betty Willis of Daytona, Naomi's daughter Kelly, Harold from Minnesota, Jan Mathis and Debbie Sweet for all of your help!

I have received many emails, phone calls and face to face compliments regarding the Jamboree and I thank all of you for the support the Jamboree.

On Friday night Jeff Driggs and Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle hosted the hall. As usual, they did a terrific job. Much fun was had by those attending. Anne Lanier and Matt Koziuk did a smooth and clog routine.

Saturday evening the program went off with out a hitch. Tracy Foxworth opened the program with the pledge of allegiance and belted out the National Anthem like I had never heard it before. It left me with goose bumps. She is a very talented person!!!!

I sent exhibition forms to all of last year's exhibition teams and anyone that wants to exhibition is certainly welcome. These are the teams that responded and were extremely good. Kaley Conn performed her hip hop routine and she really does an excellent job of performing. She is multi-talented. Next was Critter Cloggers, Orlando Cloggers, Calico Coyote Cloggers, Wizzbang Cloggers and the last exhibition was Clogging Connection and emcee Dieter Brown let it be known that they did a great job at the Junior Olympics. A very nice surprise exhibition was done by line dance instructor Bill McGee and his group. The group danced on stilts! Line dance instructor Junior Willis did a great combination of both line dance and clogging for his exhibition. Then the line dance attendees got up and did a number they all knew and it was so nice to see their participation.

Our plaque winners this year were:

Youngest Clogger: Gabby Tolento - Calico Coyote Cloggers age 5, Oldest Clogger: Lori Sheldon - Sheldon's Village Stompers age 75, Largest Exhibition Group: Clogging Connection, Individual Clogger Traveling Longest Distance: Tennille Clemens & Samantha Steinmetz 1528 miles from Bar Harbor, Maine

Exhibition Group Traveling Longest Distance: Clogging Connection

Saturday night Dieter Brown and Scotty Bilz emceed the fun dance hall and many appreciated doing Parrott's Hoedown taught by Greg Dionne and Chocolate by Sandy Smallwood and demonstrator Anita McClure.

Long-time Suncoast Jamboree supporters Tracy and Evon Johnson came for a visit and many were very pleased to see them there. Tracy did our logo this year. He and Evon are still in the background giving a hand with the Jamboree when they can. I appreciate their input and help.

To close, I have to say that after being in the closet for two hours with hurricane Charlie I know some of the issues that are facing the hurricane victims from 2005. The risks involved in producing a workshop are minuscule and therefore I feel very blessed to have had the opportunity to continue with the workshop.

Photos: Dancers at the Suncoast Jamboree workshop learn fun routines in all levels of clogging and country western line dancing from many of Florida's and the nation's top instructors.

Stompers and Stompettes Cloggers

In the 90's a gentleman named "Russ Hansen", along with his wife Opal, moved to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa from Arizona. Russ had been a square dancer caller for over 50 years and a clog dancer for a number of years while living in Arizona.

Soon Russ started teaching clogging in Mt. Pleasant. He put together a group of cloggers named "The Henry County Cloggers". In 1999, Patricia Johnston moved to Burlington, Iowa from Nevada. She heard of Russ & his clogging dance group. Patricia immediately looked them up and became one of the team members.

Around the age of 80 Russ decided he wanted to retire from dancing, so he asked Patricia if she would be interested in taking over the his team of clog dancers. Knowing Patricia had been an instructor in Nevada for 10 years, Russ felt he was leaving his team in good hands. Confident that Patricia was someone who would not only keep the team going but would build the small team of dancers by promoting clogging in and around the Mt. Pleasant area, Russ & Opal returned to the Phoenix area where they are enjoying their golden years with family and friends.

The name "Stompers & Stompettes Cloggers" came about in 1988 when Patricia opened her first clogging dance studio in Nevada. Attending as many workshops as possible and teaching several workshops herself, Patricia soon realized how many active cloggers and teams of dancers were in and around the U.S.

Many people have never seen or heard of clogging, so Patricia made it a goal to educate as many as possible on the subject of clogging and to build the team up to 100 cloggers. So far the teams has grown to 30 plus dancers, mostly performers and a few non-performers.

Cloggers Take Thunder to Ireland

Ireland?! You want to take the whole group to Ireland?!?

That's pretty much how the idea was received when it was proposed in the spring on 2004. Everyone thought it would be wonderful. Few thought it was possible. After little more than a year of fundraising, the trip became a reality. Out of our 60+ dancers, not everyone could go. Schedules and commitments prevented some from traveling. But every performer who wanted to earn their way was given the opportunity to do so. We were determined not to let money be the reason one of our dancers missed this trip of a lifetime.

Aside from the usual car washes, bake sales and raffles, Blue Ridge Thunder Cloggers (BRTC) held a tricky trade BBQ dinner, sold wristbands and T-shirts, applied for grants and wrote hundreds of letters to friends and family asking for donations. After a year of scrimping, saving and begging, we jokingly dubbed "fundraising" as the "F-word" and banned its use in our presence!

But all the fundraising was a fading memory when we gathered on a hot August day to start our journey. Even a five-hour delay at the airport couldn't dim the spirits of these travelers. We pulled out our playing cards and made friends out of strangers as we played games to pass the time.

We had been warned repeatedly that Ireland would be wet. We took our rain gear, but rarely had to use it!

Photos: Top: The Blue Ridge Mountain Thunder Cloggers visit Failte, a busy tourist town at the eastern end of the Ring of Kerry. The town is packed with souvenir shops and popular spot for tourists exploring the Ring of Kerry and the nearby Killarney National Park.

Bottom: The Blue Ridge Mountain Thunder Group poses on the well-known cliffs of the Emerald Isle.

Out of 10 days on the Emerald Isle, we only had two half days of sprinkles! The Irish accused us of bringing them a drought! We savored each glorious day that peaked in the high 60s while those at home were suffering through a summer heat wave...

Our travel focus was on the southwest portion of Ireland – Killarney and Killorglin. We stayed in thatch-roofed cottages and visited castles, gardens, and the Dingle Peninsula. We rode in jaunting carts (horse-drawn carriages), boats, and taxis. Some of us even managed to take tours on horseback! We attended a performance of “To Dance on the Moon” (a River Dance-style production) and the CD launch concert for an Irish group – Benny O’Carroll. Everywhere we went we met friendly people who were thrilled to share their culture and hospitality with us.

Through research and advance planning, BRTC was able to co-host a dance workshop with a local Irish dance group. They taught us Irish dancing, and we taught them clogging. It was quite comical at times, but built a bridge across the cultures. We found we shared a love for dance and a lot of laughter!

Surely the Irish must have thought the American Paparazzi had landed. Our group of 29 travelers took well over 6000 pictures!

We were able to perform three times during our stay in Ireland. Our pre-planned exhibitions were for the Irish dance group and the Puck Fair — the oldest fair in all of Ireland. We were thrilled to perform for the Puck Fair and found many international travelers in the audience, including several from the U.S.! Our surprise performance was at the Ireland National Event Center, where we were pleased to be the opening act for an Irish concert. Our audiences were gracious and interactive – and ever intrigued by what we (as Americans) had done to their dance form.

BRTC would like to thank the many cloggers who helped to make our trip a reality. Your support meant the world to us – literally! We’d also like to encourage you to dream big for your clogging group. This trip to Ireland has been a bonding experience that we will treasure for years to come. It helped us get to know each other better and brought us closer as a group.

A Gift for You for Your Students

The Double Toe Times is proud to help you recognize the hard work of your clogging students to complete a series of classes by giving you a supply of "clogging diplomas" to hand out at your graduation night. The diplomas are on glossy paper stock with a colorful diploma design that features a clog dancer, a place for you to sign, and the following wording:

Diploma of Graduation
This certifies that has satisfactorily Double-Stepped, Rocked, Shuffled and Brushed through a course of study prescribed for graduation and is therefore awarded this Bachelor of Clog Dancing Degree

Just drop us an email or letter, fax or letter to let us know how many diplomas you will need. Please make sure you allow at least 2 weeks to make sure we can get the diplomas to you through U.S. regular mail. Canadian and foreign readers allow 4 weeks.

These diplomas are not made available for resale to vendors, and are intended for use by clogging teachers to provide to students only. You must be a subscriber to the Double Toe Times to be eligible.

To order graduation diplomas for your classes, write, fax or email us at:
