Chicken Soup for the Sole

If you ever feel like your efforts as a clogging instructor have little effect on your students outside of the clogging hall, think again. You never know when someone is going to pay tribute to your labor of doubletoes and drags in a most unusual way.

My Utah friend Jana Fox named a chicken after me. I don't quite know the reason, and maybe I don't want to know, but I hope it has something to do with strength of character and free spiritedness instead of a "fowl" mouth.

In any case, throughout my twenty-some years of teaching (besides "Jeffrey" the chicken) I'm aware of a poodle named "Ida Red", a hamster named "Jeffy" and a horse named "Drigger."

In retrospect, I guess I could have hoped that someone would name a step in their routine after me or nominate me for some big award or honor... but I am even more flattered that fellow cloggers have enough fun dancing that they would want to carry that energy over into their day to day lives and their other hobbies and even their pets.

So keep plugging away at those classes and routines and cherish the wonderful friendships and connections you are making and let's do the CHICKEN DANCE!

Happy Clogging, Jeff Driggs

NICKEL CITY CLOGGING FESTIVAL

One of the USA's Longest Running Workshops Celebrates 21 Years

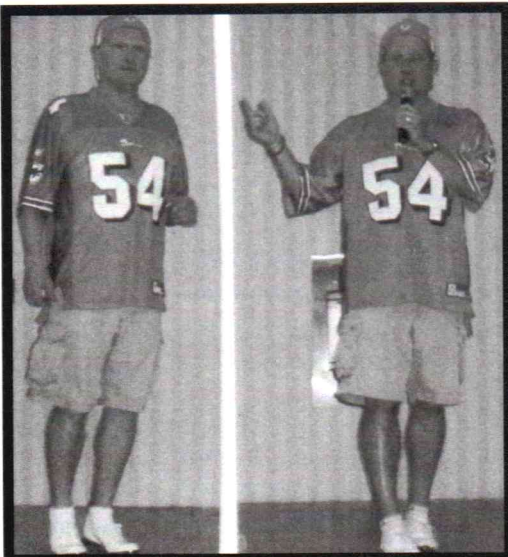

by Elaine Brock, WNYCA

WOW!! What great weather - - for a clogging weekend, and WOW!! - - What a GREAT Nickel City Festival!! April 19, 20, and 21, heralded in the 21st Nickel City Clogging Festival which was again held at the Holiday Inn Resort and Convention Center on Grand Island, N. Y. Our warm Spring weather was in sharp contrast to the chunks of ice that were floating down our Niagara River, passing by the Holiday Inn on their journey to Niagara Falls. It did make for a very picturesque sight! The theme for the weekend was "Shuffle Off to Buffalo" - - a tribute to Buffalo, the "City of Good Neighbors." Visitors arrived from 15 states, as well as our many friends from Canada, in anticipation of another fun-filled Nickel City weekend.

commented how fantastic Nickel City is, with lots of good dancers that are hard to slow down! Lending their talents to this impressive group were our own regional instructors; Herb Brock, Dale Burl, Hanna Dash, Karen Elder, Nick Gunner, Tricia Profic, & Michelle Rohring. What a choice of top notch instructors to choose from - - Nickel City strives to satisfy everyone's style and taste in music and routines.

Activities soon got underway Thursday in the Settlement Hall with a fun night of request songs, easy teaches, and mixer dances. Shane, Stan, Missy, and Scotty who is always surrounded by a group of his mini-fans, got the dancing going with the many cloggers who had arrived early to get a head start on all the clogging fun. As the Nickel City Festival is one of Missy Shinoski's favorites, she was looking forward to enjoying every minute of it! Shane Gruber brought along many of his "Shane Gang" crew and added, "Nickel City is the place to be, and I am having a great time!" Workshops began bright and early Friday morning and the halls were filled with cloggers busy greeting other dancers and selecting workshops to attend for the day. Also available were seminars presented by Scotty, Jeff, and Missy, as well as step workshops by Judy Waymouth and Stan Webb. Friday evening found the Ballroom open for a trail-in dance highlighting our national instructors and a Request Hall staffed with our local instructors. Wait a minute, - - - are there two Scottys here at Nickel City - - with identical orange shirts and baseball caps? Why no, it's just Scotty & friend Morgan Hudson pulling a twin prank on the crowd with a slick switcheroo during Scotty's teach. Took a while for many of us to realize that it was not Scotty who had returned on stage, but Morgan!! Back for a 2nd year visit were Matt Sexton and Trevor DeWitt, and arriving for her first Nickel City visit was Stacy DeWitt, and all were impressed with the great Nickel City set-up. Later Friday evening a pool party was held exclusively for cloggers and their families to enjoy. Of course, if anyone had some spare time, they could visit the nearby outlet malls, museums, spend some money at the Casinos, or just do some sightseeing of our famous Niagara Falls, which is only 15 minutes away!

Special recognition was given to Nick Gunner, and Stacey Edwards, who are both members of the Backwoods Cloggers, for receiving honors as scholarship recipients this year. Nick won the Phyllis Anton Scholarship award and Stacey received the Western New York Cloggers Association Scholarship. Congratulations to both of these outstanding individuals and good luck with their future education! This was also Nick's first year teaching here at his own hometown festival. "I love teaching clogging and also clogging here! I would love to travel and teach at more festivals!"

Saturday morning began with almost 550 cloggers hurrying back and forth trying to choose, from our 5 dance halls, a routine they wished to learn!

Every level of clogging and every type of music were again available to be enjoyed. All the vendors were doing a brisk business, while door prizes and basket raffles were available to anyone who wanted to "try their luck." Sally James, while busy selling shoes, stated, "Again I am so happy to be back with my Western New York family. Next to going home to momma, I love coming here! We're enjoying the good weather here - - we must have brought it from Ohio!" Jeff Driggs joined in with the cloggers on the floor during his team routine teach to "Grassy Creek," and not "Gassy Creek," which was a misprint in the schedule! In addition to a career as a national clogging instructor, Jeff is branching out into the recording industry as a vocalist, as he was asked to sing with the Tilby Williams band, the artists from Utah who were featured on the Grassy Creek CD. Hope it goes platinum, Jeff!! Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle had a full house with her "Candyman" teach and was so glad to be back at Nickel City again - - "What a great festival with lots of people, good energy, and an absolute great line-up of instructors that are treated like kings and queens!" Nickel City is also a favorite of many of our local and regional instructors. Hanna Dash commented, "I am more than a little biased in saying that this is my favorite workshop. It's home, and for me, Nickel City is my annual clogging family reunion!" Dale Burl also stated - - "I love this festival - - I have been teaching 6 years now and everything is running so smoothly." Karen Elder added that Nickel City is the best festival that she has ever been to - - so very well organized! Clogging fever was everywhere - - even behind the registration desk in the hallway as multi-tasking Linda Haley signed people in while clogging along to the songs being taught in the Ballroom!

Our door decorating contest was back again this year with more and more super "Shuffle Off to Buffalo" theme posters. The variety and originality made it so difficult to choose winners. Finally, the Gunner Gang was awarded first place honors for their "Buckin' Buffalo" decorated door, complete with a genuine wooded rocking (buffalo) horse! Great job to all who joined in the fun and made the treks back and forth to our rooms so very entertaining! Many dancers also took a stroll down memory lane as they visited the history and photo displays of past Nickel City Festivals which is set up annually by our historian, Bonnie Linhardt.

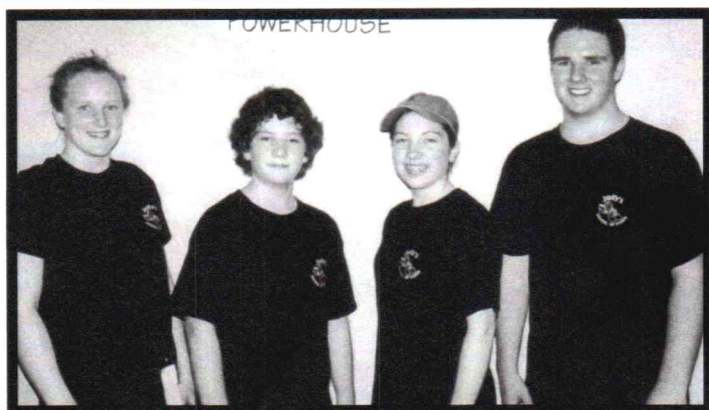

As the Saturday workshops concluded, it was on to a wonderful "Buffalo Style" country buffet with bluegrass music supplied by a local popular band, "Creekbend," followed by fun and relaxation with team exhibitions, and more clogging in the Ballroom. The large audience was entertained with performances by the Still Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Stompin' Em Cloggers, Powerhouse (Canadian Step Dancers), Tensations, Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Simcoe County Cloggers, Judy Waymouth School of Dance, and Kickin' Rhythm Kids and Teens. Everyone enjoyed the marvelous Irish performance of Judy Waymouth and her dancers. Judy, who had a full house for her "Irish Stew" teach earlier, stated that she loves coming to dance at Nickel City. "More and more of my cloggers attend each year. It is such a fun weekend with tons of dancing (and the shopping is great!)" Clogging fun continued into the evening as Jeff remarked, "The festival is consistently good. You can tell by the faces on the cloggers, and the fact that they do not want to quit dancing after the fun dances are over!"

Many, many special thanks go out to Ken and Linda Haley and all their hard-working committee people, volunteers, and all the participants who did a fantastic job coordinating this year's festival. This event would not be a success without their service and dedication. Thank you to all who attend and support our Nickel City Festival!

Next year's Nickel City Festival will feature "Mystery" as its theme which should prove to be a very interesting weekend. Be sure to mark your calendars for April 17, 18, & 19, 2008, and join us for another exciting weekend featuring six halls of clogging! We'll be looking for you!!

Grand Lake National Clogging Championships

by Lou Mairui

The seventh annual Grand Lake National Clogging Championships took place on June 10, 2007 at the Grove Civic Center in Grove, Oklahoma. The event was a qualifying competition of the America's Clogging Hall of Fame circuit (ACHF) and attracted over 200 dancers, who competed for more than $6,000.00 in cash prizes and awards. Teams from Oklahoma, Arkansas, Nebraska and Missouri took part in the competition.

The Shockwave Cloggers from Coweta, Oklahoma were the highest scoring team of the day and won the $1,000.00 grand champion prize. Jeff and Jennifer Moore of Coweta were crowned overall male and female solo champions. Sara Bernhardt won the flatfoot championship. Pat Dennis of Missouri brought several hoedown teams and competed in all of the traditional categories, taking home a considerable amount of prize money for their old time expertise.

"I am proud of the commitment of this town and this festival to the art of clogging," said Lou Maiuri, coordinator of the clogging championships. The town of Grove, Oklahoma and the grand Lakes Festival are sponsors of the annual event. Maiuri said that he has a dedicated group of judges and workers that help make the event run smoothly each year. Judges for the competition were Ann Moore of Texas, Clyde "Bubba" Richardson of Tennessee, Lib Mills, Heather Barnhart, and Pam Collins of South Carolina. Pat and Kathie Aggus were in charge of logistics at the civic center and ACHF Officer Diane Loftin handled registration. Linn Loftin did team line-up and Ken Beach was the sound technician.
