"America's Got Talent," NBC's hit summer series from "American Idol" producers FremantleMedia North America and Simon Cowell's SYCO Television, returns this summer with the hottest performers from across the country ready to compete in the blockbuster reality show's third season.

With the talent search open to acts of all ages, "America's Got Talent," hosted by Jerry Springer and presided over by celebrity judges David Hasselhoff, Piers Morgan and Sharon Osbourne, has brought the variety format back to the forefront of American culture by showcasing performers from across the country. Each week, the show features a colorful array of hopeful stars, including singers, dancers, comedians, contortionists, impressionists, jugglers, magicians and ventriloquists, all vying for their chance to strut and perform on stage in the hopes they'll win the viewing audiences' votes.

The third season kicks off with audition episodes shot on location in theaters across the nation, including a "virtual audition city" on MySpace, with the judges selecting the best acts who will advance to the Vegas Callbacks. The acts that make it through the Vegas Callbacks will then move on to the live semi-final performance episodes where the American viewing audience will vote for their favorites each week. The series culminates with a live finale where one act will walk away with a million-dollar prize.

This season, not one... not two... but THREE clogging groups have made it through the audition process to the Las Vegas round. EDFX (Extreme Dance FX) from California, the Southern Belles of Georgia and Sterling Silver from Colorado. The next issue of the Double Toe Times will feature exclusive interviews and photos from the contestants with news about the experience. Be sure to watch and cheer the cloggers on to victory!

TO THE READERS

Saving Face

The last two years have been incredibly trying ones for magazines in general and especially for the Double Toe Times. We have had delivery delays and publishing delays and have been working hard to get back on track and get the clogging news and events to people as quickly as possible. I have to say that I am truly blessed with wonderful clogging friends who have stepped in to help with printing and fulfillment and work to get us moving in the right direction.

The first weekend of April of this year, I woke up one morning (after a weekend of splitting headaches) to realize half of my face wasn't working. The shampoo going right into my eye in the morning shower was my first indication that something wasn't quite right. Moments after showing up at work, my coworkers sent me to the hospital, where tests confirmed that it was Bell's Palsy, a compression of the #7 facial nerve. I recognized it myself by the end of the first day. My father had this same ailment in his 30's and I heard my grandfather also suffered from bouts of it. It's not a debilitating disorder, but face can't move and your eye cannot blink and has to be taped shut to sleep, your taste buds on that side don't work and part of your hearing mechanisms are disabled so sounds in the ear are sharp and "tinny."

After 25 years of teaching workshops almost every weekend, I have begun to slow down quite a bit and my first string of free weekends really were a blessing when it happened. The workshops I have done in California, New York, Ohio and elsewhere have been good experiences and people have been so understanding and supportive while I teach with one hand holding my cheek so I can say words that begin with B, P or F.

I've never felt that I was much to look at, but losing all expression in half of your face is very humbling. Abe Lincoln said "If people say I am two-faced, why am I wearing this one!?" I concur.

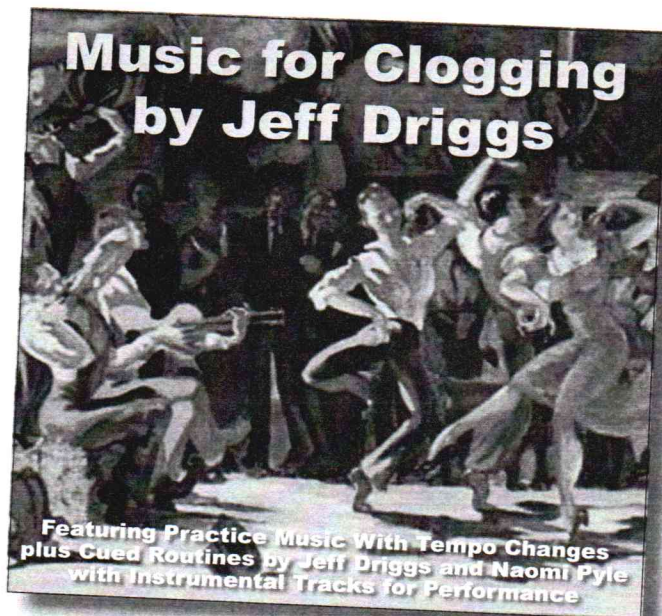

When I think of our soldiers who are unflinching in the sacrifices they make, and those who live daily with true obstacles I am lucky. Knowing that so many friends have stepped up to send articles and photos and content and that June, July and August magazines are all in the process is an answer to prayer. Thanks to you for helping me to save face!

Happy Clogging!

Bluegrass to Teach With, Call Square Dances and Learn Fun Line Dances!

Music for Clogging by Jeff Driggs

This CD contains 4 great old time bluegrass songs that will get your hands clappin' and your toes tappin'. Old Joe Clark is recorded with a starting temp that is very slow, then every 64 beats there is an 8 beat tempo change that speeds the music up just a little. This is a great track for teaching beginner classes, working on new steps or styling. Old Joe Clark is also included in a full tempo version.

The other tracks on this CD project are renditions and medleys of old time tunes with routines choreographed by Jeff Driggs of West Virginia and Naomi Pyle of Indiana. Cue sheets for these dances are included in this insert.

Giving Thanks

Hi there. I really would just like to show my appreciation for clogging. I have just recently started clogging again. I haven't danced since I was 18 years old. I am now 32. I was a clogger from the age of 6 until I graduated high school and moved out on my own. I missed it dearly and always wanted to get back into what I loved for so many years. I just never had the means to do so.

I was a great clogger before I quit. 12 years of pure dedication pouring my heart and soul into it. I competed, I did shows, I taught, most of all I loved what I did. My heart was really torn when I had to quit and move on with my life. Being forced onto the workforce and having to make ends meet.

I had my daughter when I was 22. Once she got old enough I always told her about clogging, what it did for me as a child, and how much I really loved it. I explained to her how clogging made me confident in who I was, kept me off the streets in my early teenage years and allowed me to express myself as a person. I never had to be ashamed of who I was or what I did for fun. Clogging put me in such a comfortable state of mind. My daughter has seen all the pictures of me that I have as a young clogger, she knows just how dear to me those pictures are and what they represent.

My little girl just turned 10 years old. The week of her birthday, I came across an add in the paper offering free clogging lessons. I thought to myself, "How perfect, I can get my daughter started in clogging lessons for her birthday." Well we are both dancing now. As mother and daughter. What an awesome feeling. My baby girl is getting to experience what I held so dear to my heart as a child. Still to this day I can't say enough about clogging.

I just thought I would give back a little to what made me who I am today. Thanks so much!

Cloggers Steal the Show

This past summer I put together a clogging show that we did in our little town. I teach all adult dancers with the average age being 55. Can you imagine? We put on 3 shows and they all sold out, in advance. This is unheard of for the 20 years of theater performance they have had here in town. I think the key to our success is that we danced to all types of music including County, Traditional clogging, 60s, Cajun Swing, Latin, Rock N Roll, R&B and Disco. The entire audience was dancing with us to our closing number Y.M.C.A. Several dances were quite humorous, including a dance off with the local belly dancing instructor to Dueling Banjos. Both dance teams (clogging and belly dancing) danced a Latin number together and the audience just loved it. I don't think these 2 styles of dance have been put together anywhere else. We also did a tambourine number that was a huge crowd pleaser. I plan to upload some video to Youtube soon. I am working on preparing the troops for another 3 shows the summer of 2009. WE ARE HAVING FUN!!!

From a little seed of kindness a workshop formed

Well, it didn't go exactly that way. What was actually written was "from a little seed of kindness a friendship grew." The year was 1992 - our first trip west. Find the Double Toe and see if there were any clogging groups in South Dakota. Well, there was one. But the question was? Where was Spearfish and was it close to Rapid City? It turned out to be 40 miles from where we were staying. So that was a good thing.

The year being 1992 I did not have a computer. Didn't need one, didn't want one. (How naïve we can sometimes be.) I wrote this lady a note and asked if I could visit her clogging class while I was on vacation. What a delightful note I got back. I was more than welcome to come to their class. I was given directions and time of the class. (By the way, I still have the note.)

What a beautiful area !!! The forty miles from Rapid City to Spearfish took no time at all. The speed limit was 75 mph so we were there in a flash. We arrived at the senior center in Spearfish to find no one home. We called from a pay phone( yes this before a cell phone which I can't do without now). We were told to get back in our car and drive to her house. I told my husband we were in trouble-she thinks we are in a car-when actually we were on a motorcycle. (

You see in 1992 bikers weren't accepted everywhere as normal people.)

Well, as we pulled up in front of the house the granddaughter came out met us. (Not at all taken back by our transportation.) She took us to her grandmother's studio-motorcycle gear and all. I have never been more welcomed by a group of people than by the Lookout Mountain Cloggers of Spearfish, South Dakota and their director/instructor Lois Heinis( pronounced highness as in her royal). We had such a great time dancing and socializing that night.

That was 1992. Lois has been east to visit us twice since then. We have been to visit her every year. Because of that little seed of kindness- Lois and I are hosting a workshop in August 23, 2008 in Whitewood, South Dakota.( A stone's throw from Spearfish). Actually Lois and the Lookout Mountain Cloggers are hosting the event. Lois said she always wanted to have a workshop with Jeff Driggs and I said "let's do it." Since I live in Maryland my contribution has been why don't you do this or try that. So far Lois has put up with me. She is doing a wonderful job pulling this workshop together with the help of her group. Patty Vollan from North Dakota is going to help us by teaching so Jeff can have a break or two.

All of us involved are so excited about this venture. Please join us on August 23rd in Whitewood. There is so much to see in the area- Mt. Rushmore, Devil's Tower, Badlands just to name a few places. There is no where prettier on Earth than the Black Hills of South Dakota. Just remember-you never know what that little seed may grow into.

North Dakota Dancers Share the Art of Clogging

Here is a picture taken after our performance at "Live Art In Motion" sponsored by Dakota West Arts Council (DWAC) at Kirkwood Mall, Bismarck ND.

This is an annual event at the mall featuring approximately 80 member artists and art groups of DWAC by either having a booth and/or performing. This is free to the public and a wonderful exposure, displaying the talents of the art world. Dakota West Arts Council is an "umbrella" arts organization established in 1979, and Capitol City Cloggers has been a member since 1983 when I founded the clogging club.

It really is a wonderful experience for clogging to be "an art" and to be recognized as an "artist". Our style of clogging is precision step dance in line formation. I never thought when I started the club in 1983 that 25 years later it would still be going strong — for North Dakota. We do 20 to 25 performances a year and especially enjoy going to the care centers in Bismarck/Mandan. In fact, we were voted the "Best Entertainment" by the residents at Missouri Slope Care Center and found out recently that if the gals are not wearing skirts when performing, some of the male residents go back to their rooms (we think this is funny).

String Band Uncle Earl has Good Fortune with Video featuring Old Time Music and Clogging

Picture this. A Kung Fu clogging battle breaks out in the Chinese restaurant where touring stringband Uncle Earl has decided to stop for dinner. Uncle Earl pal -- and rock music legend -- John Paul Jones happens to be hanging out at this restaurant "noodling" on the piano. Sensing impending dance madness, the Uncle Earl "g'Earls" leap for their instruments and play a rousing tune (with original Chinese lyrics) to spur the action (with JPJ backing them up). A spirited duel between cloggers and Irish dancers ensues, and when the fighting gets dirty, Uncle Earl intervenes. They show off their fancy triple-axle wagonwheels (yes, the whole band can clog), and they unite the two warring tribes in a dance of joy and cooperation.

Just another day at the clogging studio? No... this is the latest video to Streak o' Lean, Streak o' Fat by traditional music's rising stars Uncle Earl from their project Waterloo, Tennessee on Rounder Records.

And, yes, those are real cloggers in the video and the ladies of Uncle Earl are cloggers themselves. The video has been receiving a great number of views on youtube and around the internet and has been a mainstay of CMT all Spring.

The band tells the story of the video on their website at www.uncleearl.net. Uncle Earl stops for dinner at a roadside Chinese restaurant. They order up some "hong shao ro" (braised fatty pork, the famed favorite dish of Mao Tse Tung). The food is delivered by a bungling waiter on roller skates (Nate Cooper). Before they can sink their chopsticks into the meal, the place is invaded by a notorious gang of cloggers called The Braised Meats. The Meats have traveled from the mountains of eastern North Carolina for a surprise attack on a newly formed alliance of dancers operating under the name of The Wasted Fats.

When The Braised Meats captain (Heidi Kulas) brags on her team's "quadruple double doubles" (a rarely attempted advanced clogging maneuver), Wasted Fats captain Maureen Berry conures the special costume transformation that signifies her team is ready for battle.

The Uncle Earl g'Earls leap for their instruments and rip into a Georgia fiddle tune. Coincidentally, the g'Earls' friend and producer of their last album John Paul Jones (of Led Zeppelin) happens to be at the piano "noodling" on chopsticks. He joins the rhythm section and banjoist Abigail Washburn sings in Chinese about food, drink and of course, about dancing.

The feet are flying fast until one of The Fats (Jason Nious) land a ferocious flip, and the Meats are all out of fancy steps. Infuriated, the Meats' captain throws out the rule book and uses her special dance-o-kinetic superpowers to levitate the innocent skater-waiter onto a table. He struggles to maintain balance, simultaneously scaring and impressing the crowd with his roller-clog technique.

Uncle Earl must acts to defend the innocent civilian. Guitarist Kristin Andreassen, who is herself a veteran of a Kung Fu clogging gang by the name of Footworks Percussive Dance Ensemble, takes the floor to counsel Meats and Fats team leaders. They find a dance step in common.

And suddenly, Kristin is joined by Rayna, KC & Abigail; all of Uncle Earl takes the floor in matching magic silver tap shoes, revealing their clogging moves which they have been practicing in a secret cave somewhere in the vicinity of Waterloo, Tennessee! The g'Earls wow both teams with their triple-axle-wagonwheel technique and successfully unite Meats, Fats and even the restaurant chef in a dance of joy and mutual appreciation.

The cloggers who participated in the video are dancers from the Bailey Mountain Cloggers of Mars Hill College in North Carolina. They include captain Heidi Kulas, Harrison Barnes, Danielle Buice, Gary Giles, Tyler Mercereau and Cheryl Renfro.

Heidi Kulas (pigtailed captain of The Braised Meats) is an actress and percussive dancer living in Asheville, NC. She grew up in Michigan clogging on a team with her mom and grandma, then started touring with Maryland's Footworks Percussive Dance Ensemble as a teenager. In college she danced with the fourteen-time national champion Bailey Mountain Cloggers (of North Carolina's Mars Hill College). Heidi is currently director and choreographer for the Lodge Cloggers. www.mountainflavor.com.

Harrison Barnes (back row... Braised Meats) is an 18-year-old student at Coastal Carolina University. He has been clogging for eighteen years and now performs nightly at the Carolina Opry in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Braised Meats captain Heidi Kulas) is from the small town of Pickens, South Carolina, and has been dancing/performing since the age of three. She is currently the Managing Director of the Bailey Mountain Cloggers. www.myspace.com/dnyell84

Cheryl Renfro (front row at the left hand of Braised Meats captain Heidi Kulas) is a Grand Champion Soloist performing nationally and internationally to share her love for dance. She is also the Co-Director/Choreographer and a dancer with the Lodge Cloggers at Scenic Wolf Resort in North Carolina. www.mountainflavor.com.

Uncle Earl's Kristin Andreassen is no stranger to clogging. Andreassen got her start as a touring musician with Maryland's Footworks Percussive Dance Ensemble. She joined Uncle Earl in December of 2003, and quickly became the "utility g'Earl" in the band -- playing guitar, second fiddle, and harmonica as well as singing and clogging.

Andreassen, along with Uncle Earl veterans Abigail Washburn, KC Groves and Rayna Gellert, came up with the idea for the Kung Foo clogging video as they recorded their second full length music project called Waterloo, Tennessee.

"We come together to do this from very different solo careers and talents and from five different states," explains guitarist and vocalist Kristin Andreassen. "This makes every time we convene a special event in our lives." Banjoist Abigail Washburn, who sang with soul, gospel, and reggae bands before discovering old-time music through the recordings of Doc Watson, writes original songs in both English and Chinese. Bassist Sharon Gilchrist is an accomplished mandolin player and can be seen performing with the Peter Rowan and Tony Rice Quartet. Rayna Gellert, an accomplished second-generation old-time fiddler, has released two well-received CDs. KC Groves also has two CDs to her credit, documenting her compelling songwriting and understated, elegant singing. Their fiddle led sound is infused with banjo flecks and is deeply grounded in the distinct sounds of Americana music. This new project not only continues to showcase the ladies way with traditional music with its Scotch-Irish, Celtic and blues roots, but also breathes a fun, spirited feel to new original tunes as well as takes on traditional tunes.

Dancing With the G'Earls Pennsylvania Cloggers Share the Stage with Uncle Earl

by Liz DiFilippo

Keystone Kloggers, Mechanicsburg, PA

Thanks to one of our students, the Keystone Kloggers were invited by the Susquehanna Folk Music Society to do a promotional demonstration of clogging on January 17, 2008 at the Whitaker Center in Harrisburg, PA. This was arranged in conjunction with an old-time band, Uncle Earl, coming to the city to perform. Susquehanna Folk graciously offered us performance time slots for pre-show and intermission.

Having met new clogger friends on the bluegrass festival trails, I knew some of them would be traveling to the Harrisburg area to see this awesome band. The Keystone Kloggers invited a few guests to clog at the event as well. Our guests represented the Horseshoe Cloggers of Altoona, PA and The Cloverleaf Cloggers of Winfield, PA. We used the national dance list as a backbone from which to draw from some of our dance selections.

As we were setting up our portable stage in the lobby of the Whitaker Center, two of the "g'Earls" from Uncle Earl came out to chat with us. They invited us to come up onto the theatre stage for their final number....talk about excitement! We couldn't believe it. What an incredible opportunity!

Time was ticking away, the patrons began to stream in and it was time for pre-show. We kicked it off for approximately 30 minutes and all was over before we knew it.

Time for the show. Wow, are these ladies, (I mean, g'Earls) ever brilliant! You can't help but tap your feet along to the catchy drivin' tunes. Kristin Andreassen played "feet percussion" (clogged) while the other band members played. We were amazed at the range of talent these ladies portrayed.

During intermission, we stomped it up once more. The lobby was full of spectators. Again, time escaped us as our tapping rhythms filled the

"Clog-a-Day Away" Workshop in Mesa, Arizona

by Lezlee Moultrie

Sunshine Exchange Cloggers, Redmond, Oregon

Just one powerful word describes this year's clogging workshop in Mesa, Arizona... FUN...FUN... FUN! There was so much energy generated among the cloggers who attended, the dance floor actually shook with fun and laughter.

Steve Smith from Lexington, KY and Anne Mills from Bremerton, WA are a perfect match for promoting clogging camaraderie among their attendees.

The clogging teaches (easy, intermediate, & advanced) were well written and lots of fun to dance. Steve Smith is an amazing man. His talent and compassion for people are clearly evident in everything he does on and off the dance floor.

This year's entertainment was especially exciting. It included:

- The "Feet-on-Fire Cloggers" from Yuma, AZ performing a couples routine entitled "Istanbul" (Constantinople), very colorful and well done.

- The "Tucson Mountain Cloggers" from Arizona performed "Banjo Boy" with several different formations, great job girls!

- A solo by Steve Smith demonstrating "Free Style" clogging...absolutely wonderful!

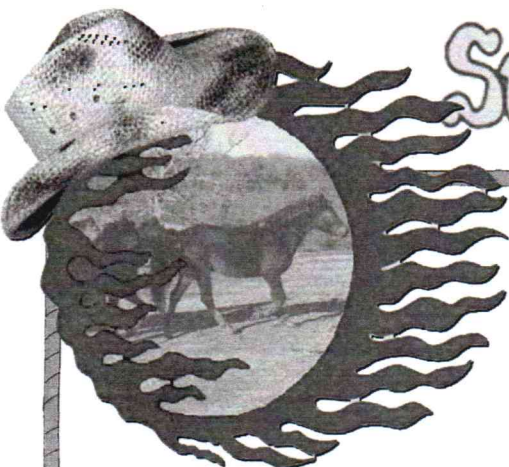

He brought the house down with a standing ovation of course! People could not stop cheering and clapping. For a minute I thought I was at the Super Bowl! Yahoo!

And finally, the "Happy Feet Penguins" performing their routine "Hit Me Up" (the group included dancers from Arizona, Oregon, & Washington). This particular routine was special because Steve Smith participated. He was the male penguin in charge of the "sacred egg". Way to go Steve! Thank You so very much! The "Penguins" love you!

Steve truly depicts the spirit of what clogging is all about. The audience loved it! This team's happiness and camaraderie really shine through. It was too much FUN and it doesn't get any better than that!

Circle 8 Tradition

by Lezlee Moultrie, Independent Clogging Reporter!

Anne Mills has been a "Featured Clogging Instructor" at Circle 8 for 19 years! This takes some serious concentration but it sure is FUN! What that means is Anne -- and only Anne -- does every single teach for 4 solid days of non-stop clogging extravaganza which starts on Friday night and ends at high noon on Monday! Yes, folks that's what I said, she's totally amazing. If you are new to the clogging scene this is a great workshop for "first timers" to attend. Once you are there, you are "hooked" forever. The floor vibrates with excitement and energy!

This particular workshop is rich in style and format and is all about "TRADITION". The minute you walk in the door your arms go up in the air and you yell out instinctively "Honey, I'm Home!"

Cloggers from all directions come running to greet you. The dance hall is wonderful, the floor fantastic! The environment cozy and warm nestled in farm country and wooded hills with an RV park and cabins on site.

It starts with the "Trail-In" dance on Friday night. Saturday & Sunday are a full day of clogging workshops starting at 9am-4:30pm ending each evening with cued dances from 7:30pm-10pm.

This year Circle 8 welcomed Maryl Metheany to the program as the featured Western Line Dance Instructor.

Saturday night is "Pot Luck Dinner" with a gigantic long table set up to accommodate all the food. Ending the evening is Otto's huge "BONFIRE" down by the lake with singing, story telling, and of course "S'MORES". Sunday includes "Pancake Breakfast" at 8am before the workshop starts at 9am for yet another full day of clogging. The really fun thing about Sunday night is the.. "PAJAMA PARTY CLOG DANCE"! Everybody comes dressed in some absolutely outrageous nighttime attire.

This year we played "Clogging BINGO" which was too much fun. You had to keep dancing while trying to 'X' out your bingo card! Karen Gross told the funniest skit/story entitled "Hi, My Name is JOE" and had the clogger's roaring with laughter. I think this comes under TRADITION for the next Circle 8 Workshop!

Monday does finally arrive with a review and the "Trail-Out" dance from 9am - 12 noon. All this reporter can say is "We don't know how you do it Anne, but please don't ever stop movin'!"

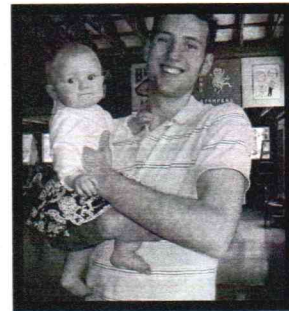

Clogging Instructor, Kay Velmire of WA is a great asset to Circle 8's friendly workshop environment and is right there to assist Anne and even brings back coffee Latte's on request! Thank you, Kay.

In closing... This is a very "special" intimate workshop with Anne Mills whose passion for people and clogging camaraderie truly shines through.

CHOREOGRAPHY CONTEST

Do you write your own routines and want to share them with your fellow cloggers? The Double Toe Times magazine of clogging is the place to have your choreographer seen by hundreds of clogging teachers!

To showcase choreographers, the Double Toe Times magazine is sponsoring another choreography contest during the months of June and July, 2008. The winner will be announced in the August issue of the Double Toe Times and will receive a wireless handheld microphone to use in your classes. Entering is easy. Send your cuesheets to us at doubletoetimes@aol.com or mail them to us at P. O. Box 1352, St. Albans, WV 25177 postmarked by July 31, 2008.

Rules: 1. Cuesheets you send must be choreography you have written yourself or have co-written. It cannot be from another choreographer.
2. Routines sent cannot have been printed in the Double Toe Times magazine in the past.
3. You may enter as many routines as you like. Each routine sent is another chance to win.
4. Emailed cuesheets must be in Word format or PDF

Janet Kingery of the Horseshoe Cloggers of Indiana was the winner of the 2007 Choreography Contest and received a wireless microphone for her clogging classes. This is your year to win! Send in your choreography today and look to future issues for more news, cues, contests and great clogging info!

LIBERTY BELL TAPS

Toe & Heel Sets now available!
Call to order today!

It's a true double toe!

- It's made of steel and has a double flange of metal over the toe and the heel for maximum sound!
- No sharp edges to damage the dance floor.
- No sharp edge holes on the floor plate.
- Easy to Install.

Designed and patented by Dale Isackson of Bell Taps and Carl Blanton of Carl's Clogging Supply, Liberty Bells are a buck dancers delight. The toe plate hangs down in front in true "Bell" style!
