Food for Thought

I think one of the biggest factors in the decline of a society is the loss of the dinner table. Now, isn't that a weighty and profound way to start a clogging editorial?

I remember growing up in a fairly large family that one of the rules of the house was that you had to be home for supper. I remember hearing my mother yelling from the front porch as we played street ball or spot-light to get home right now for supper! As we grew older and the parents grew softer (as they usually do with younger siblings in large families) the dinner table began to nearly always have some of our neighborhood friends pulled up for a share in this week's spaghetti, beans and corn bread, salmon cakes or baked beans and homemade mac and cheese.

The reason I remember those meals is not only for the food but for the memories that were made there, the relationships that were cemented, and the sense of family that was shared.

As a young clogger, I would go to team practice or class a couple of nights a week for a couple of hours each time. Every weekend, we would go to a dance hall with live music and freestyle and square dance for hours. For the life of me, I can't really tell you much of anything about those times other than we clogged a lot!

What I do remember is that after each of these clogging times, the group of us would go to the local Shoney's Big Boy or Pizza Hut and sit till they ran us out. At our local Pizza Hut, we cloggers even rolled the salad bar against the wall and played clogging songs on the jukebox and danced right in the middle of the small restaurant. The store even began to order songs for the jukebox just for us!

Through the years I have danced with thousands of cloggers throughout the world, but I will always have a special place in my heart for that little group of dancers who closed down the joint after every clogging event.

Sometimes we focus so much on the work of clogging that we forget that a lot of the great bonds of friendship with cloggers comes from the time spent OFF the dance floor.

Happy Clogging!

Bluegrass to Teach With, Call Square Dances and Learn Fun Line Dances!

Music for Clogging by Jeff Driggs

This CD contains 4 great old time bluegrass songs that will get your hands clappin' and your toes tappin'. Old Joe Clark is recorded with a starting temp that is very slow, then every 64 beats there is an 8 beat tempo change that speeds the music up just a little. This is a great track for teaching beginner classes, working on new steps or styling. Old Joe Clark is also included in a full tempo version.

The other tracks on this CD project are renditions and medleys of old time tunes with routines choreographed by Jeff Driggs of West Virginia and Naomi Pyle of Indiana. Cue sheets for these dances are included in this insert.

Friends We Make Along the Way

By Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle

I recently did the Nickel City Workshop in Buffalo, New York and had a great time. By the way, The Nickel City Workshop is an awesome workshop and if you get a chance, go!!! Hannah Dash, Ken and Linda Haley and all of the WNYCA Committee do a superb job of organizing and putting that workshop together. It was at this workshop that I had the pleasure of meeting two young kids that I absolutely fell in love with, Timmy Smith and his sister, Annie Smith. What a delight it is to meet two young children who are so fun to be around, love clogging and have such a zest for life. We had a great time in Nickel City, but there was more to come.

As luck -- or Divine intervention -- would have it, the very next weekend I was doing a workshop in New Jersey and they were planning on attending as well. So, we made plans to meet up and clog together for another weekend. The New Jersey workshop (Garden State Stomp) was also wonderful and Debbie and Al Shinn and their children are like family to me. I got to meet their new Granddaughter, a living doll who already clogs! She literally stole the show at the Exhibitions on Saturday night. Now back to Timmy and Annie (and their mother Jennifer)... we hung out together again and had a blast!!!!

Timmy and Annie had learned one of my routines in New York, so I got them on stage with me in New Jersey when I taught the routine. At the exhibitions that evening, their group danced to "Testify", a routine that I wrote with Trevor DeWitt and a gaggle of other men and did a terrific job. Their mom said they had practiced a lot and wanted to do a good job. That kind of dedication sincerely warms my heart and gives me great pride in our future cloggers and hopeful instructors of tomorrow. We danced together all day and all evening and I even tried to worm my way into going to dinner with them but it didn't work out. We closed the dance with Cotton Eyed Joe and yes, I did it with Timmy and Annie.

We exchanged phone numbers, addresses, etc., did a lot of hugging and said our good-byes. I just know we'll meet up on the dance floor somewhere and if you know me, when I take a liking to someone, I'm pretty hard to get rid of. They were AWESOME! Needless to say, I'm hoping these kids will be a part of my life for many years to come.

I can already see myself travelling to New Jersey for graduations, weddings, etc.

LOVE YOU TIMMY AND ANNIE!!!!

"Bill" W. Tourtellotte

"Bill" W. Tourtellotte, 82, of Mattydale, New York died Saturday August 2, 2008 at the VA Medical Center in Syracuse, NY. Bill assisted his wife Julia in teaching the Adirondack Mountain Cloggers of Mattydale, and always had a quick wit and ready smile that he shared with his dancing friends. He is survived by Julia, a daughter and three sons, 11 grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren. Bill & Julie have been clogging for over 25 years. He will be missed.

NICKEL CITY FESTIVAL 2008

By Elanie Brock

Western New York Cloggers Association

Ebrock0319@roadrunner.com

Combine absolutely beautiful record breaking summer-like weather (unusual for spring-time in Buffalo!) and great record breaking attendance, and you have a spectacular Nickel City Festival for 2008. The Holiday Inn Resort & Conference Center in Grand Island, NY, overlooking the mighty Niagara River, hosted the 22nd annual Western New York Clogging Festival on April 17th through April 19th. What a picturesque sight it was to see sunbathers (after a dip in the hotel pool) relaxing and basking in the sun on the hotel's spacious lawn, and in the background, ice chunks were lazily flowing down our Niagara River on their journey towards the Falls. The Festival's theme this year was "Mystery," complete with a weekend long scavenger hunt which kept everyone very busy! Visitors arrived from 14 states, including the Dixie Cloggers who travelled 1,600 miles from New Orleans, as well as our many friends who travelled from all over Canada, in anticipation of another fun-filled Nickel City weekend.

The Western New York Cloggers Association gave a great big welcome to these featured national instructors; Scotty Bilz, Trevor & Stacy DeWitt, Jeff Driggs, Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle, Shane Gruber, Sallie James, Jason Pflugh, Matt Sexton, Missy Shinoski, Chip Summey, and Judy Waymouth. Lending their talents to this impressive group were guest instructors; Karen Elder, Fonda Hill, and Paul Puckrin, plus our own regional instructors; Herb Brock, Dale Burl, Sonya Gelster, Nick Gunner, Tricia Profic, Michelle Rohring, Lynda Vaadi, & Kim White. What a great selection of top notch instructors to choose from - - Nickel City strives to offer everyone a wide variety of clogging style choices, from the very basic to high advanced, with everything in between!

Activities soon got underway Thursday with a packed Ballroom. Shane, Missie, Naomi, plus other instructors, kept all the dancers entertained with teaches and fun dances. Missie Shinoski was very pleased with the great turnout of cloggers for the fun dance Thursday night. "The people are so friendly and it is always a good time here." Naomi Fleetwood Pyle added, "I love Nickel City and I want to come back!" Workshops began bright and early Friday morning, and what a choice - - 6 halls this year covering a wide variety of music, plus some very interesting seminars. The registration desk was a buzz of energy with cloggers excitedly signing in and looking forward to a great weekend ahead! Vendors were already set up and crowded with dancers purchasing many clogging related items. While busy putting taps on clogging shoes, Sallie James commented, "Nickel City is my very favorite place - - this is my 20th anniversary of attending the festival. It is the 'bestest' place to work at with the 'bestest' people to be around. I have been clogging for 20+ years and I hope to make it another 120- - years!" Shane had a full house with his rendition teach of "Firecracker," while Scotty and Chip collaborated with their teach, "Walk Away." Judy Waymouth switched from working with those wishing to try a few challenging Canadian step dance steps to teaching a country clogging tune, "She Rules the Roost." Judy stated, "This is our most favorite weekend. My 18 year old commented he could hardly wait to come to 'New York'. I brought over 100 people here this weekend, and we love coming to Nickel City!" And, Chip Summey heated up the packed dance floor with his teach, "French Jig," and he excitedly commented, "Nickel City is awesome and I am glad and so excited to be back. I have never been to Buffalo when it has been so hot, and yet the ice is flowing by in the Niagara River!"

Friday evening found the Ballroom open for a trail-in dance highlighting our national instructors and the Request hail staffed with our local instructors. A pool party was also held later exclusively for cloggers and their families to enjoy. Wait, what's going on in the lobby - - why it's some of our young cloggers happily making Smores using a small grill instead of a campfire! There is always something interesting happening at Nickel City and always so much to see and do! Malls, casinos, sightseeing (Niagara Falls), museums, great shopping, are all at hand for anyone wishing to take in our sights while in the area!

Saturday morning began with the bustling of busy cloggers, (620 dancers were registered for the festival), hurrying to the various halls to take an interesting routine or see their favorite instructor. The country tune, "Big Dog Daddy," taught by the comedy team of Scotty, Chip, and Naomi, was a big hit with the crowd. As always an audience pleaser, Jeff Driggs kept everyone laughing at his antics during his teaches. Jeff reflected, "Nickel City proves if you persevere and work hard, and present a quality workshop, they will find a way to come. While some workshops are having lower attendance this year, Nickel City is breaking attendance records." Day and night, scavenger hunt teams were seen scurrying around, busy finding answers on their questionnaires and locating items needed to fill their sheets in hopes of being the big winners! This year the addition of the Beginner from Scratch Hall was a big hit with first time cloggers and non-cloggers alike and were always jam packed! Trevor & Stacy DeWitt also taught "Better Get to Livin," a tune popular with beginner cloggers. Stacy stated, "We love it here at Nickel City and as we travel around the country we hear how much other people love it also!"

Our door decorating contest continued this year following the theme of "Mystery." The lucky winners this year were the Shane Gang from Michigan. Shane Gruber commented, "I am thrilled to be here once again, which is my 9th Nickel City Festival, and am having such a good time. If you ever have a chance to make the trip, this is the workshop that everyone should come and see. To see how the magic happens and to learn from this workshop - - this is where the clogging magic starts!" Congratulations for great ideas on door decorations to all who entered the contest and made our trips to our rooms so interesting! Our history and photo displays of past Nickel City Festivals, put together by our historian, Bonnie Lindhart, were also available for viewing. Cloggers were also observed chuckling over old photos from Nickel City Festivals past! Our local and guest instructors were again very pleased to be awarded the opportunity to teach at Nickel City. Fonda Hill stated that Nickel City is well worth it. It was her 2nd year attending and she wished she had been here for the other 20 years of Nickel City. Lynda Vaadi noted that she has missed only 3 of the workshops since she began attending the festival 22 years ago! Paul Puckrin commented he comes every year and brings as many cloggers as he can, and the variety and the caliber of clogging makes for a great workshop!

As the Saturday evening workshops concluded, it was on to a delicious buffet with bluegrass music supplied by a local popular band, "Creekbend," followed by fun and relaxation with team exhibitions, and more clogging in the Ballroom. The large audience was entertained with performances by the Almost Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Backwoods Cloggers, Erie Canal Cloggers, Judy's School of Dance Clogging, Judy's School of Dance Step Dancing, Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Kickin' Rhythm Kids Cloggers, Lehigh Valley Cloggers, Missy's Hoedown Seminar Cloggers, Simcoe County Cloggers, Stompin' Em Up Cloggers, and Tensation Cloggers. During the evening special recognition was given to Samantha Chapman from Tensation Cloggers and Barbara Henderson from Backwoods Cloggers for receiving honors as the Western New York Cloggers Association scholarship recipients this year. Congratulations to both of these outstanding individuals and good luck with their future education! A special moment for the Nickel City Festival was the presentation Saturday evening of the Western New York Cloggers Association Hall of Fame Awards, which purpose is to recognize individuals who have contributed significantly to the perpetuation of clogging in the Western New York region. This year we were proud to honor Diane Egressy, Carol Fose, and Kim White. They have all made many contributions of their time and talents to Nickel City and have helped to keep things running smoothly over the years. Congratulations to these outstanding and very deserving individuals! And, the Three Musketeers from Canada were awarded top prize in the weekend long Scavenger Hunt. A job well done, girls' Clogging fun continued well into the evening with more dancing in the Ballroom and also again in the Request hall.

Very special thanks go out to Ken and Linda Haley and all their hard-working committee people, volunteers, and all the participants who did a fantastic job coordinating this year's festival. This event would not be a success without their service and dedication. Thank you to all who attend and support our Nickel City Festival!

Next year's Nickel City Festival will feature "Puttin' on the Ritz" as its theme, which should prove to be a very interesting weekend. Be sure to mark your calendars for April 30, May 1, & May 2, 2009, and join us for another exciting weekend. We'll be looking for you!

Colorado Cloggers Give a “Sterling” Performance on America’s Got Talent

Sterling Silver Cloggers Go Far in Top Rated Televised Talent Competition

Sterling Silver, from High Country Conservatory of Dance in Fort Collins, Colorado, was recently shown on NBC’s reality T.V. show, “America’s Got Talent.” They made it through to the top 60 acts in Las Vegas when they were finally cut.

Despite the big competition background of Sterling Silver, “America’s Got Talent” was a whole new experience; it was an emotional roller coaster ride from the beginning to the end.

Sterling Silver initially auditioned in Dallas, Texas. They arrived amid a bustle of competitors and camera crews. After checking into the hotel, the first order of the day was to stand in line with the other 4,000 acts trying out. Each act was required to go through an initial audition, where most of the acts (all but 25) were sent home. Sterling Silver became one of the “25,” and then moved on to have their act televised and judged by Piers, Hasselhoff, and Osbourne. They ended up being the first act to go on! The group members still remember the tense atmosphere as they waited backstage. They all sat listening as the dreaded buzzers were tested, and the crowd was being coached. “Most of us are seasoned performers and don’t get a lot of stage fright,” Justin Meehleis said. “But that was scary!”

After Sterling Silver finished its 90 second routine, they were in for more suspense as the group waited for the judges to make a decision. Luckily, they were given the okay to pass through to the Las Vegas round. Those feelings at that moment were hard to describe. In the words of Jacey Sisneros, “It felt surreal.”

The weeks leading up to the Las Vegas competition were intense. Not only were the practices difficult, but routines needed to be cut down to 90 seconds and changed to fit the criteria of the “America’s Got Talent” producers. It was stressful when the music wasn’t passed through until the final week before the Las Vegas round. The Members of Sterling Silver remember practicing at 5:00 A.M. (before school) and at other times ending at midnight – it was crazy!

When the Las Vegas week finally came, Sterling Silver was in for an intense week; it was extremely emotional! They had to make it through two more “cuts” and then perform in front of the judges again.

When Sterling Silver performed their second routine, they were extremely nervous. They ran out on the stage, and gave it everything they had. Despite the fact that they received rave reviews from David Hasselhoff, and smiles from Piers Morgan and Sharon Osbourne, they were not passed through on the final day! They were later called to be an “alternate” for the show.

The whole experience was difficult and emotional! Some of the parents of the group have said that their children are still not the same since this experience. Looking back Sterling Silver feels it was a great learning experience. They were able to associate with some great talent and some “interesting” talent. They also felt they left in good company; there were many talented acts that did not pass on! It was an experience that cannot be equaled. All members agree they learned a lot.

The Sterling Silver Group Members are as follows: Meghan (Meehleis) Knighton, Justin Meehleis, Briar Meehleis, Ashlee Meehleis, Caitlynn Meehleis, Amberley Meehleis, Jacey Sisneros, Nick Hahn, Emily Splittgerber, Mariah Betros, Maureen Bailey.

Thanks to the Sterling Silver Cloggers and the Meehleis Family for sharing their team’s story.

Double Step Stamp Up!

Central Oregon has Talent!

The "HAPPY FEET PENGUINS" landed in Madras, OR to perform in Jefferson County's annual Fair & "Talent Show" Contest on July 23, 2008

Written by: Lezlee Moultrie, Independent Clogging Reporter

Just 'hot' off the press...we have it first folks...yes we do!

These Penguins really do know how to have "FUN"! Clogging to the music "Hit Me UP" by Gia Farrell from the motion picture "HAPPY FEET". Their unique dance style really shined on stage as they moved together as if "floating-on-ice" in a traditional penguin family formation. The crowd was wild with enthusiasm for this very energetic group.

Out of "Oh, I forget just how many" entries the "HAPPY FEET" Penguins were...here it comes are you ready...drum roll please...

The Penguins were "1 of 4 Finalists in the Adult Division" competing for 1st PLACE! Even better then that 2nd PLACE was just "2 points" away from winning the first place spot, gee wonder who it was?

The winners from each division go on to compete in the statewide talent show held in Salem, representing all of Oregon! Totally amazing...Wow!! Believe it, it's absolutely true! Yes, fellow cloggers it was intense, but not for long.

So in closing...

Even though at the end of the competition, 1st PLACE was not to be theirs, it really didn't matter because these penguins knew without a doubt they had won already, for these very simple reasons...

- They took the journey together as "FRIENDS"
- They had "FUN" together
- They "LAUGHED" together and...
- They met some really awesome & talented "PEOPLE" along the way

They will always share memories of a very special time. Camaraderie and teamwork puts this group at the top of the charts!

Are they glad they did it? You bet they are! Life comes at you pretty fast so just go for it!

Thanks everyone...it was a real BLAST with the "icing" on top!
