The Great Teacher

This month's Double Toe Times honors the memory of clogging instructor Marge Callahan, who passed away earlier this month at the age of 83. For nearly 30 years Marge touched the lives of countless dancers and friends with her spirit, determination and will to live life to the fullest.

I remember the first time I ever saw Marge Callahan teach clogging. Flanked on either side by dancers half her age who responded to her every command, Marge led the class through an hour long session that had more energy and purpose than any class I had every seen. Her ease on stage and sense of humor made all those around her immediately comfortable. All ages attended her classes to learn from this diminutive lady with the red suspenders and the contagious smile.

One of the things about Marge that made a huge impact on me as a young instructor who looked up to and studied so many teachers in clogging was her ability to truly "teach." As Marge endured a long-fought battle for her health, she often was too weak to dance and depended on others to help her on stage. Ever the innovator, she took cued clogging to another level by dubbing her cues to her routines and using them at workshops during her run-throughs. While the music played and her assistants danced, Marge would often face the dancers and cross her arms and grin from ear to ear, admiring her handiwork like a proud parent. She would gesture and point like a conductor and we responded to her every move with exuberance. Marge is one of the few teachers I have ever met who is able to instill in dancers a sense of performance in a routine that stays with them long after the workshop. It was a part of herself that she gave to her teaching that was so real and natural that she could stand apart from it and share the pure joy of clogging right along us.

American author and pastor William Arthur Ward said "The mediocre teacher tells. The good teacher explains. The superior teacher demonstrates. The great teacher inspires."

Marge Callahan could tell you a step, break it down and explain it, demonstrate it or have it demonstrated, then inspire us to dance it both for the fun of the dance and the moment and as a gift in return and in honor of the person who taught us.

I know that all of that may sound really weighty and profound, but to all of those who knew Marge it's a simple truth that they all will surely testify to. We honor you Marge for all of the ways you have inspired us and will continue to inspire us.

Happy Clogging!

Remembering Marge Callahan

Jeff Driggs, Double Toe Times

The clogging world lost a great friend on April 18, 2009 with the passing of Marge Callahan.

Her accomplishments in clogging are impressive, and she will continue to be one of the most beloved personalities to have ever graced the clogging floor. Marge shared the first Florida Clogging Council Hall of Fame award started by the council in 1997. Marge was a fixture at workshops throughout the United States and traveled to Canada to teach. She was a favorite at the C.L.O.G. Clogging Conventions.

Marge followed in her sister Jody Kersey's footsteps to begin clogging. Throughout the years, she taught and/or directed the Sugar Foot Family Cloggers in St. Augustine, the Fellowship Cloggers in Jacksonville, the Silver Dollar Cloggers and worked with teams and cloggers throughout Florida. Marge wrote countless routines throughout her clogging career, including The Boy From Tupelo, Smokin' The Hive, No Matter How High, The Fireman, Grandfather's Clock and White Lightnin' which is on the C.L.O.G. National Dance List of most requested clogging dances.

One of Marge's favorite events each year was the Pow Wow, held each April in Merritt Island, Florida and hosted by the Indiana River Cloggers. I had the privilege of teaching with Marge there many times and a highlight for me was seeing the public person who could make the crowd roar with her antics during the madcap "Instructor's Challenge" and then sharing a quiet moment with her in the stands and just catch up on life and happenings. Marge took a genuine interest in people and always made you feel special.

Her dear friend Anita McClure said that Marge wanted so desperately to attend this year's Pow Wow. Everyone at the event felt a very deep connection to her. It was somehow fitting that she passed on the Saturday morning of Pow Wow. A poster board of pictures of Marge gave people the opportunity to write her messages. This provided closure for some as they did not even know she was sick. The poster will be at FCC State Convention later in May so others can sign.

Marge will rest in her family's plot in Melbourne, Florida. Area dancers are planning a day to share Marge stories and dance her routines and honor the memory of a dear friend and fellow clogger.

My thanks to Anita for the information she provided for this article and to all of you who responded with your memories of Marge. I can think of no better way to honor her memory than to share with you – our readers – the comments, postings and emails that have been submitted about our dear friend Marge.

Ann Hubbard, Florida

Shortly after 5 a.m. this morning (Saturday April 18, 2009) our Beloved Marge Callahan passed away, very peacefully at the home of JoAnne O'Grady, her very dear friend for many years. She was so fortunate to have had the love and care of such a wonderful friend.

The clogging world has lost a great treasure. The legacy Marge leaves behind reaches all corners of the clogging world and all ages of cloggers. Anyone who has ever met or taken classes from Marge has truly been touched by the best. So many of us have been so blessed to have been taken under her wing and been privileged to her guidance and expertise. She has watched so many young cloggers grow and become not only gifts to the clogging world but to society as well. They are giving back to all of us the talents that they have learned over the years and she was very proud of each and everyone.

We have been so privileged to have known Marge. She is one who stands alone with the wonders of all who have been left behind and you can be sure there is a smile on her face and her feet are moving to every beat of the music. We should all rejoice in the knowledge that clogging and all who graced the dance floor with Marge, that we will forever be with her.

JoAnne O'Grady

Marge was a very good friend to me and I was her chauffer to many workshops for years. Being with her, I met so many wonderful people over the years that I would not have met otherwise. We went to many workshops in Florida, Texas, North Carolina, Tennessee, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia where she was an instructor. She also taught in Canada.

We had so many late nights in the hotel room with friends

Marjorie A. Callahan, 83, of Jacksonville, Florida passed away April 18, 2009. She retired from the United States Navy after several years of faithful service. She was a member of the Florida Clogging Council and was the first member of the Florida Clogging Hall of Fame. She was preceded in death by her parents, Merrill R. and Effie Callahan. She is survived by her brother, Mike Callahan; sister, Jody Kersey; nephew, Ken Kersey; nephew, Kevin Callahan.

She missed being able to teach when she became ill. The clogging world has lost a good friend and a great instructor. She was quite a character and I have lost a very good friend.

Anita McClure, Cocoa, Florida

The first time Marge ever spoke to me was in Jacksonville at the Jamboree the very first year I started to clog - 1984. I knew who SHE was. I was doing my thing, dancing what few songs I knew at that time. The next thing I knew I was tapped on the shoulder by none other than Marge and her sister Jody. She said they had been watching me and just wanted me to know that they thought I was a very good dancer. I couldn't believe that Marge actually spoke to me. I was so excited.

Over the years we have become great friends. I was privileged to spend from Friday to Monday with Marge, Joanne and Patsy just before she passed away. She received love and care from these very two dear friends. I would call Marge every night at 6:00 pm to talk about her day. I miss those calls. She wanted to go to the Indiana River Cloggers POW WOW workshop so much. It is only fitting that she passed away on the Saturday of POW WOW. I cannot imagine what clogging is going to be without Marge. I will continue to feel her presence whenever we are together. There were many good times and memories that I have to cherish.

Kathy Lehmann, West Palm Beach, Florida

A life well lived! Marge has touched so many others. She will never be forgotten.

Our clogging workshops will not be the same without her wonderful smile and great sense of humor. I feel privileged to have had the opportunity to know Marge Callahan.

The Foley Family, Marlene, Lisa, Charity, Boca Raton, Florida

Marge was a fine and funny woman. She was always there for us new beginners at teaching others her passion. She will truly be missed.

Mary Jean (Wright) Copeland, Mt. Prospect, Illinois

To everyone who ever had the privilege of learning from Marge or was privileged to be her friend, Marge will truly be missed but remembered for so many wonderful gifts she shared with all of us. I send my deepest sympathy to her family and all of her extended family. I know Marge is in a good place, out of pain, and surrounded by love. On behalf of all my former club members (The Sea Turtle Tappers) may you rest in peace.

Scott & Laine Wall, Jacksonville, Florida

Marge was a very special lady and a large part of our lives many years ago. We met Marge back in the 80s and spent many years clogging at her side. The years have flown by, but we think of her often. I know the clogging world will be a much lonelier place without her. Rest in peace, Marge.

Walter Millis, Orlando, Florida

Miss Marge was and always will be a legend in all of are hearts. She is only one of a few instructors I would actually put my shoes on to learn a routine. She will be missed but her legacy will live on forever in are thoughts and are dance routines. We Love you Miss Marge!

Andy Howard, Orlando, Florida

My earliest clogging (and childhood) memories include Marge. In clogging, so many of the great instructors I grew up watching "from the floor" had brilliant personalities --Marge was the brightest of the bright. She was clever and funny, while also caring and giving. In my last memory of Marge, we joked of our eternal love for one another. But, I really do have a big love for Marge.

The American Racket Cloggers performed "Soldier's Joy" -- a Marge routine -- in her honor this past Saturday at the Great American Pie Festival in Celebration, Florida. She will be sorely missed. I think it would be a great honor for Florida cloggers to strive to revive the Florida clogging community to the size it once enjoyed -- in honor of our friend Marge. Start teaching, cloggers! Keep it alive...

Debbie, Jamie, Becky, & Kaley Conn, Riverview, Florida

How we will all miss Miss Marge. We have been friends for over 20 plus years. I'll always remember Marge's first words every time we were together. First how is everyone and second what gossip did I know and then she told me hers. We will all miss that great smile and upbeat attitude. I'm sure she's looking down to make sure we do it right.

Roxanne Riddle, Naples, Florida

Marge brought such a light to any workshop she attended. Even though I only saw her a few times a year, she always made me feel special and welcome. Her sense of humor made learning her awesome clogging routines a blast, whether you really got the steps or not.

The clogging world will never be the same, the workshops will all be a little dimmer without her smile and jokes. You will be greatly missed, Marge, but I'm sure you're showing the angels a step or two by now.

Dale Kaminer, Jacksonville, Florida

Although, I only started clogging a little over a year ago, Marge would be there to add kind words of encouragement and insisted that my feet would be able to move that fast; even though, I had my doubts.

I only got to experience one workshop with Marge and that was POW WOW 2008. I had a small glimpse of her impact on the clogging world and how much she will be missed. Marge was a sweet and kind lady, who touched the hearts of many. I will miss her.

Debby Claxton, Fleming Island, Florida

When I walked into Marge's clogging class as a beginner a little over 10 years ago, I had no idea how much it would change my life. She took me under her wing and gently guided me with a little bit of pushing and a whole lot of encouragement. My commitment to and love of clogging come from her and I feel so fortunate to have learned from the very best. I was Marge's chauffeur and her "feet" for almost 10 years and will always have the memories of the time we spent together. We will all miss her, especially that wonderful sense of humor.

Farewell Miss Marge...my friend and my "other Mother". You touched my life and will live in my heart forever.

Linda Miller

What a privilege to have been able to clog with Marge for several years. We looked forward to Thursday nights. She was a great instructor with a wonderful sense of humor. She will be truly missed.

Kenny & Gloria Williamson, Jacksonville, Florida

I would like to have a nickel for every time Marge Callahan pulled a practical joke on me and succeeded! The one we most laughed about was the one about the salted grits. Unbeknownst to me, Marge poured the whole salt shaker into my tiny order of grits. I took a spoonful and choked them down and announced to everyone that whatever they did, DO NOT salt their grits. Marge could hold back the laughter no longer. I have to say that was the best joke ever....we had tears running down our faces! Marge loved laughter more than anything. We both loved clogging but laughter was our favorite thing! We will all miss Marge terribly.

Marge's Silver Dollar Cloggers were a family and we all loved her and each other. We had so very many good times. Marge was a joy to be around. Thanks to JoAnn O'Grady, Marge always had a good friend close at hand. JoAnn made sure Marge was where she was supposed to be and was Marge's traveling buddy for years. JoAnn made sure Marge was not alone during her last weeks here on earth. JoAnn invited Marge to come into her home for the last few weeks of her life and took care of her 24/7.

Not everyone is lucky enough to have a wonderful friend like JoAnn, but Marge sure was. In turn, Marge thought the world of JoAnn and her family. What fun times they always had. Marge has now earned her wings after a wonderful life on here on earth. She has left tap prints on many hearts. Her clogging legacy will live on.

Ellen Lane, Fayetteville, Georgia

When I danced with Country Fever Cloggers in Naples, Florida we always looked forward to workshops where Marge was teaching. She remembered us even though she might only see us once or twice a year. What a great lady! She will be missed by many. Godspeed, Marge.

Gina Zaragoza & Jean Beatson, Perth, Western Australia

The KANGAROO KLOGGERS KLUB from Perth, Western Australia sends its heartfelt sympathies to Marge Callahan's family. We know you are now in that happy clogging ground in the sky! She was a lovely person!

Harmony Tordonato, Labelle, Florida

The clogging world as lost a great lady. She will be missed but never forgotten!

Anne Sentell, Huntsville, Alabama

Clogging brings special people into all of our lives. Marge Callahan has been and always will be one of the most outstanding instructors on the national scene. Sadly, we grieve the loss of our friend and fellow dancer. We cloggers have lost one of our very best; her spirit remains to warm our hearts and keep our feet dancing.

Bobbi Truskin, The Villages, Florida

in my heart. You were such an inspiration to me as a clogger and instructor. Your Appalachian style of dance is what I've strived to emulate, and you were always there with a helpful and encouraging hand to so many of us.

Denise Miller, Port St. Lucie, Florida

Clogging workshops will never be the same without our beloved Marge. Her teachings were the most animated and most fun. She will be in my heart forever and always!

Bonnie & Clyde Hamilton, Lady Lake, Florida

Marge will be missed by all of us who knew her. Cloggers have lost a great friend.

Shelly Fordham, Jacksonville, Florida

Sweet Marge! You have touched many lives, mine was one of them. You taught me and my brother Cass how to clog when we were very young. I loved it which is one of the reasons I got my daughter Courtney Stack into clogging, who made the Junior All American team in 2007. You were an asset to this world and I know that your feet will be tapping all the way to the pearly gates! Show 'em how it's done!

Patsy (Provost) Harris, Baltimore, Maryland

"Marjorie Alice Garbagecan" is what that funny, funny woman would call herself years ago. I never knew a person with more personality than she. No one could tell a joke the way Marge could. She was always willing to try something new. Her computer skills proved that. I know she's having a good time in Heaven with Toby, Robbie, Kelly, and the rest of the gang. What a reunion! Jacksonville won't be the same without you, Marge. I love you!

Dolly Hamblin-Vinton

I'm so very sorry to hear we have lost Marge. I go back many years attending conventions and workshops where Marge was part of the instructor leadership and remember thinking at the time that she had a military fashion about her teaching that set her apart as a 'take charge person'. So many wonderful memories in my career of teaching clogging and enjoying all the great personalities I've met along the way. My cup runneth over to have been a part of the world of clog dancing.

Dell Anderson, Zephyrhills, Florida

I first met Marge in '83 and have always respected her and admired her. I traveled to workshops just to be able to have her instruct me and a few of my cloggers. I also visited her whenever I was in Jacksonville and always wished I had lived closer to be able to attend her classes. I will miss her and will keep her with me in my thoughts and prayers. (Taterhill Cloggers)

Ray Edenfield, Jacksonville, Florida

Miss Margie, The sweet lady I had the privilege of knowing 40 plus years, you had so many friends and people that loved you. You were my next door neighbor, you gave me my first dog and helped me name him. You showed me the way to mow a yard the right way, and the fishing trip was not over until the boat was clean. We will miss you and always love you. Godspeed, my friend.

Helen Adams, CCI

I have enjoyed her workshops in the past and will remember her as a great instructor, her sense of humor when teaching and a very likable person. The routine that was special to our group was "High and Mighty".

Ron Hodge, Houston, Texas

Marge set a standard for all to seek. She taught often at the Texas Rally and she was a crowd favorite. She will be missed.

Anna Ruth Wells, Virginia

I am so sorry to hear of Marge Callahan's passing. I remember her well, especially, teaching at Fontana, North Carolina. I began attending Fontana in 1980 and along the way, I recall that she was always there. I recall that our team, the Virginia Sugarcane Cloggers learned a couple of routines from her there that we never forgot and performed them for a number of years. One was "The Fireman" and the other "Grandfather's Clock". She was one special lady.

Elaine Enfield, Rhythm "N" Motion, Florida

I am so sadden by Marge Callahan's passing. What a wonderful inspiration she was to so many cloggers in Florida and all over the states. Her quick wit and funny personality was the best. I strived to make the cloggers I taught have fun and enjoy learning like she did. Marge always was such a hoot. What a great loss to the clogging community.
