To the Readers I Hope You Dance

Cloggers are some of the most generous and giving people I know. Every year at the Holidays, I am blessed with so many cards and well wishes and gifts from folks who have become an extended family.

Some dear friends sent me a children's book by Mark D. Sanders and Tia Sillers entitled "I Hope You Dance." and -- I must admit -- I was a little perplexed why someone would send a picture book to a nearly fifty year old that included passages such as:

*I hope you twist, I hope you shout.
I hope you wobble your goggles out!*

The more I read and enjoyed the whimsical drawings and nonsensical musings about the polka and the hokey pokey, I found a simple truth in the message. Of all of the things that we can hope and wish for the ones we love and care about, the wish for them to dance has to be one of the most precious. American poet William Stratford said that kids dance before they learn that there is anything that isn't music. That simple yet honest expression of joy that comes from a child who revels in the sheer ability to flit about is too soon bridled by the realization that others are watching.

Only after finishing the book did I thumb back to the front of it and found the part that made the greatest impression on me:

Foreword

*Some day, when you are older than you are,
but not nearly as old as the stars,
You'll understand why I hope what I hope for you.
Between that distant then and now,
if I look at you like you're the cat's meow, it's just because my heart is in my throat for you.*

I can't think of a greater wish for all of you this new year. In all you do and with all my heart, I hope you DANCE!

Happy Clogging, Jeff Driggs, Editor

NICKEL CITY FESTIVAL 2009

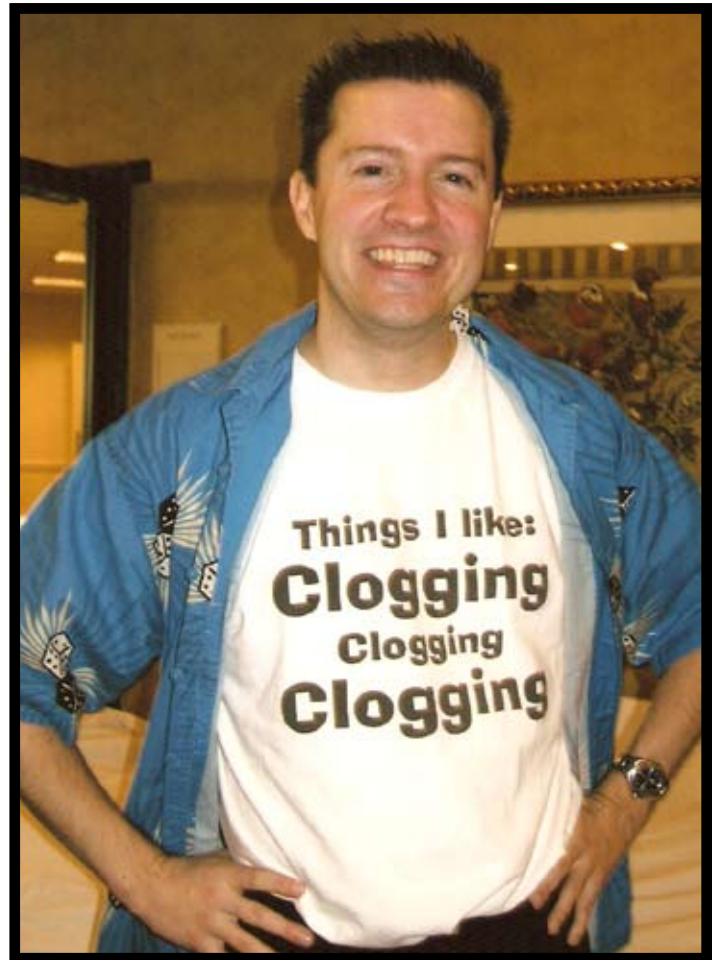

By Elaine Brock
Western New York Cloggers Association

Wow! The economy sure didn't slow any cloggers down as they, all 660 of them who broke our past attendance record, arrived at the Holiday Inn Resort & Conference Center in Grand Island, NY, for our 23 annual Nickel City Clogging Festival. April 30 heralded the beginning of three days of fantastic clogging teaches and seminars. The Festival's theme this year was "Puttin' on the Ritz". Visitors arrived from Alabama, Florida, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, as well as our many friends who traveled from all over Canada, in anticipation of another fun-filled Nickel City weekend. We didn't disappoint them!

The Western New York Cloggers Association gave a great big welcome to these featured national instructors; Scotty Bilz, Trevor & Stacy DeWitt, Jeff Driggs, Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle, Shane Gruber, Sallie James, Jim Naylor, Jason Pflugh, Missy Shinoski, Chip Summey, and Judy Waymouth. Lending their talents to this impressive group were guest instructors: Karen Elder, Joel Harrison, & Heather Murphy; plus our own regional instructors; Sara Barker & Sharon Pine, Herb Brock, Nick Gunner, Tricia Profic, Cheri Truax, & Kim White. Joel commented, "This is my first time teaching at Nickel City and it is so awesome - - the festival and the scenery. It is so cool to see so many cloggers attending a festival!" Jason Pflugh added, "Definitely the best organized festival & I've never had so much fun!" What a great selection of top notch instructors to choose from - - Nickel City strives to offer everyone a wide variety of clogging style choices, from the very basic for "never been clogging before" to high advanced, with everything in between!

Activities soon got underway in the Ballroom Thursday evening, which was packed with cloggers eager to start off a great clogging weekend! Shane, Naomi, Scotty, Missie, plus other instructors, kept all the dancers entertained with teaches and fun dances. Shane said '9 am very happy, and it means a lot, to be back on staff for my 10 year. It is always an honor to be a part of this festival - - I watched Nickel City grow. I am also excited to demo here for the first time (the Shane Gang.) If you have not taken the opportunity to journey here before, put it on your calendar for 2010 for a wonderful experience." The vendors were busy in hallways setting up their clogging wares while the registration desk was a buzz of energy. Sallie James, while busy working on clogging shoes, stated "The 'negative energy' must have been against me. I broke down 20 minutes from home and had to be towed and have the truck repaired. Five hours later I was back on the road again." (Isn't that a clogging tune, Sallie?) "I'm glad to be here doing what I do best - - tappin' shoes, tellin' jokes, and teachin' clogging." Workshops began bright and early Friday morning, and what a choice - - a wide variety of music, a large variety of instructors, plus some very interesting seminars. An "Adding Formations" seminar run by Missy Shinoski & a "Couples Work" seminar by Scotty Bilz, were very well attended. Missie said she was very excited to be back at Nickel City again - - she always looks forward to attending. And Scotty stated that Nickel City is his favorite workshop of the year because everyone is like family here - - it's like a big clogging family reunion. Cloggers were everywhere - - busy greeting each other in the hallways or reading instructor postings to help in the selection of their next class. Chip Summey was really "rollin' & rollin'" in the Ballroom with a large audience during his "Hauling One Thing" teach, and Joel Harrison had his dancers really working up a sweat during his Advanced Step class. Chip's famous words were "It's always 'electrifying' to come here on Grand Island & wouldn't miss it for anything." On Friday evening cloggers had their choice of the Ballroom for fun teaches or the Settlement Hall, run by Dale Burl, for requests. The hotel pool was also open to enjoy a "cloggers-only" pool party.

Saturday brought us 40 classes, in 6 different halls, to choose from during the day plus another seminar, "Editing Music" by Nick Gunner. With dogging you can dance to any type of music as Sallie James showed us with her "John Ryan's Polka." Jeff Driggs even ran an "Intro to Ballroom dancing" class, Jeff's "Sic em on a Chicken" dance was a huge hit with the dancers and he again entertained us with his comical Russian, duck walk, & chicken scoot steps, plus some steps that never made it into the cue sheet! Jeff commented on the festival "Great to see a workshop that flourishes in spite of the economy. Cloggers love to clog - they come out and support Nickel City a festival for cloggers put on by cloggers." Everyone also enjoyed Jim Naylor's 10 year old daughter, Cassandra, who cued songs for us on Friday & Saturday. Is this another national instructor in the making! This is the 3 year that Jim has taught at Nickel City - "a great festival !"

There's always something to do at Nickel City make sure to take time to visit all our local scenic sights including Niagara Falls shop 'til you drop at our malls - - try your luck at one of our many casinos and don't forget to take a stroll down memory lane & visit the history & photo displays of past Nickel City Festivals which is set up annually by our historian, Bonnie Linhardt. Naomi Pyle & also Trevor DeWitt both love the Nickel City Festival and the energy of the workshop." As the Saturday workshops concluded, it was on to a buffet followed by fun and relaxation with team exhibitions, and more clogging in the Ballroom. The large audience was entertained with performances by the Almost Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, Backwoods Cloggers, Canadian Country Cruisers, Judy's School of Dance (clogging). Special recognition was given to Michelle Cavagnaro from Kickin' Rhythm/Tensation, Rebecca Gunner of Backwoods/Tensation, & Melissa Gretzler of Kickin' Rhythm/Tensation for receiving honors as the Western New York daggers Association scholarship recipients this year. Congratulations to all of these outstanding individuals and good luck with your future education! A special moment for the Nickel City Festival was the presentation Saturday evening of the Western New York daggers Association Hall of Fame Award, which purpose is to recognize an individual who has contributed significantly to the perpetuation of dogging in the Western New York region. This year we were proud to honor Johanna Dash, who has made many contributions of her time and talents to Nickel City and has helped to keep things running smoothly over the years. Congratulations to an outstanding and very deserving individual!

Many, many special thanks go out to Ken and Linda Haley, Hanna Dash, and all their hard working committee people, volunteers, and all the participants who did a fantastic job coordinating this year's festival. This event would not be a success without their service and dedication. Thank you to all who attend and support our Nickel City Festival!

Practice Music & Cued Routines for Clogging

This CD contains 4 great old time bluegrass songs that will get your hands clappin' and your toes tappin'. Old Joe Clark is recorded with a starting temp that is very slow, then every 64 beats there is an 8 beat tempo change that speeds the music up just a little. This is a great track for teaching beginner classes, working on new steps or styling. Old Joe Clark is also included in a full tempo version.

The other tracks on this CD project are renditions and medleys of old time tunes with routines choreographed by Jeff Driggs of West Virginia and Naomi Pyle of Indiana. Cue sheets for these dances are included in this insert.

I Left My Heart in the Great Smoky Mountains

Seven Oregon Cloggers Find a Mountain Home in the Fontana Clogging Jamboree, North Carolina

by Lezlee Moultrie
Independent Clogging Reporter

You can't sell it. You can't bottle it. You can't explain it... You can only feel it way down deep in your heart and soul.

With everything that's going on in today's crazy world one pauses for thought and wonders how much of God, family, and country are still alive. I am here to tell you that for a group of seven cloggers from Oregon it is alive and well in the misty mountains of Fontana Village

Our group of dancers from Oregon traveled through Tennessee and North Carolina to attend the Fontana Clogging Workshop hosted by Jeff Driggs and Naomi Fleetwood-Pyle for the very first time.

Picture This...

Located way up in the heart of the Smoky Mountains of Western North Carolina, cabins are nestled in the woods on lush green grassy hillsides with rocking chairs on every porch. You automatically know this is going to be a truly meaningful and memorable experience... Oh my.

Everything at your finger tips: lodge, restaurant, store, air conditioning, and of course southern hospitality.

We had awesome instructors for the weekend in Chip Summey, Elliot Skeen, Barry Welch, Matt Sexton, plus Joe-Joe Barron and the Orr Family, teaching in three halls totally packed with dancers all day and all night. Kids and families lined the dance floors with energy and enthusiasm that was absolutely contagious. A Saturday night bluegrass concert featuring the Grass Stains Bluegrass Band and musician Drew Williams was a special treat! Following the concert, we enjoyed fantastic exhibitions with a special appearance by national hoedown champions Rhythm N Motion from Tennessee. The Fun Dance on Saturday night featured a sports memorabilia auction to benefit Pyle High Hopes Outreach. Pick up those feet! Yeehaw!

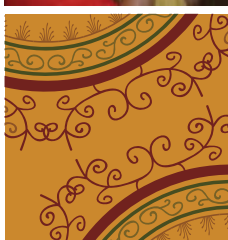

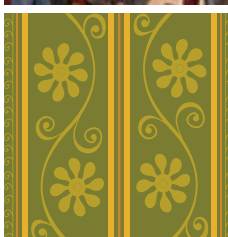

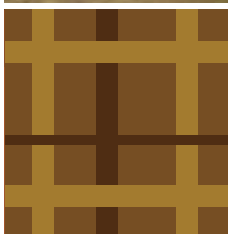

Automatically we felt part of the atmosphere of Fontana, walking around chatting, laughing, and -- even better -- wearing smiles on our faces (now permanent) what a great feeling. Oh my, time to have a little rest in our rocking chairs on the porch! But not for long... too much dancing to do... don't want to miss a thing!

So when the dart flies, choose Fontana. We will never forget our experience and will return where mountain music and clogging got their start. There was so much to see and do in the area, Dollywood, Dixieland Stampede, Gatlinburg, The Biltmore Estate, on and on.

The experience stole the hearts of seven Oregon cloggers who will always remember an American clogging treasure called the Fontana Clogging Jamboree, in North Carolina, a weekend full of spirit, fun, camaraderie and lots of great clogging!
