Thanksgiving

As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

The season of Thanksgiving is here and we will be stuffed like a Butterball turkey with articles, commercials, cards and television specials reminding us to be thankful. We can take to our social websites to give daily updates of the things we are thankful for.

Most of us have reason to be thankful. We have our health. We have the blessing to be able to do something we love to do and be paid for it. We have the privilege of leading a group of dancers each week. We have families that support us in our endeavors.

The words of John F. Kennedy ring so true.

The most precious gifts of friendship I have found in my clogging journey are the ones that need no validation. The quiet and constant assurance is celebrated every time we take to the floor together.

I wish you all a great time of Thanksgiving as we continue on into the Holiday season.

Happy clogging!

Jeff Driggs

Nickel Goes Quarter

New York's Nickel City Clogging Festival Celebrates 25th Anniversary

by Elaine Brock

Western New York Cloggers Association

Almost 700 cloggers and family spectators arrived at the Holiday Inn Resort & Conference Center in Grand Island, NY, ready to join in the celebration of 25 years of the Nickel City Clogging Festival! Vendors were busy setting up with customers waiting, and the registration table was three deep and already very busy. The ice floating down our scenic Niagara River made a perfect backdrop for the many cloggers arriving and checking into the Grand Island Holiday Inn Resort and Conference Center on April 14th, ready to begin a long weekend of fun. The theme of this weekend was "It's Time to Celebrate," and celebrate we did! Visitors from all over the US, (over 14 states,) plus our very dear friends from Canada, arrived to celebrate our milestone. Memory slide shows and videos from festivals past, ran continually on monitors in the main hallway, plus over the hotel's registration desk.

Our 25th year milestone celebrated the end of an era and announced the start of a new chapter. In the end of an era, Ken Haley, one of the founders of the WNY Cloggers Association and Nickel City, retired from his position as Association President. Thank you Ken, for 30+ years of dedication to this organization. How can we ever begin to thank you for making the joy of clogging so dear to us all! We wouldn't be here without you! Ken won't be far away, but will be available as an advisor and our President emeritus.

The Western New York Cloggers Association gave a great big welcome to these featured national instructors: Scotty Bilz, Jeff Driggs, Shane Gruber, Joel Harrison, Morgan Hudson, Stacy McWethy, Jim Naylor, Naomi Pyle, Matt Sexton, Missy Shinoski, Chip Summey, Stan Webb and Barry Welch. What talent for our celebration! Lending their talents to this impressive group were guest and our local instructors: Herb Brock, Aliccia Clark, Adam Mowry, Heather Murphy, Andrew Perry, Jason Pflugh and Jolie Mowry, Tracy Rozewicz, Cheri Truax, Kim White and Colleen Zurbrigg. What a great selection of top notch instructors to choose from - - Nickel City strives to offer everyone a wide variety of clogging style choices - - from the very basic for "never been clogging before" to high advanced with everything else in between, plus many interesting seminars! Shane Gruber explained, "We all arrived a day early this year. All the dancers love this festival and there is such great support here. Thank you, Hanna (Healy) and your crew for putting together a great festival. It was an honor to be here to celebrate your 25th anniversary!" Naomi Fleetwood Pyle commented, "I just love this festival, the organization, the people, the ice flowing down the river, and the "office!"

Activities began Thursday evening with the ballroom packed for the trail-in dance with cloggers eager to begin their clogging weekend. A record number of attendees filled the hall with dancers spilling out of the room and dancing in the halls! Jim Naylor pointed out, "What a humongous Thursday night turn-out for the trail-in fun dance! I always look forward to a full weekend of dancing at Nickel City." Shane was really a-rocking with his cool "flashing blue lights" glasses, and I wish I knew where I could get a pair of glasses like that!! Jim Naylor, Matt Sexton, Naomi Pyle, Joel Harrison, Missy Shinoski, Stan Webb and Scotty Bilz all took turns keeping the energy

Mary Snyder 1932-2011

Mary Lake Ternosky Snyder, 79, of Glen Gardner, New Jersey, died September 29, 2011 at Hunterdon Medical Center in Raritan Twp., N.J.

Mary Snyder has had a love for dancing all her life, square dancing (traditional) three times a week as a teenager, and always trying to tap dance (as a member of the Happy Tappers, Hunterdon County's senior tap group).

In 1970 Mary formed a 4-H square dance club for her children and remained the leader for 14 years. As leader of The Hayshakers, she and the 4-H's learned Modern Western square dancing from Art Seele, father of Betsy Gotta. The Hayshakers entered two to four sets of square dancers in the 4-H Square Dance Competition at the Flemington Fair every year.

Mary first saw clogging, around 1976, and it was love at first sight, but the closest clogging group was one and one half hours away. She would have to wait until 1988 before she was able to travel to south Jersey to dance with the Rainbow Cloggers and then later with the Blue Ribbon Cloggers of Hillside, NJ. In the mean while, she found a book "Everything You Ever Wanted To Know About Clogging And Never Even Knew You Wanted To Ask, by Sheila Popwell and taught herself a few basic steps.

When she and another clogger danced a clogging demo at a square dance, people from Bachelor and Bachelorettes Square Dance Club in Bethlehem, PA, approached them to teach clogging in their area. A one-hour clogging teach was set up in January of 1990, between square dance classes. That was the beginning of The Lehigh Valley Cloggers, who celebrated their 16th anniversary in 2006.

Mary earned her CCI, (Certified Clogging Instructor) at the National Clogging Convention in Las Vegas in November of 2003. In addition to teaching twice a week for the Lehigh Valley

Cloggers, she has taught clogging at the Up and Rising Instructors at the National Clogging Convention, the Northeast Clogging Convention, five National Square Dance Conventions and New Jersey and West Virginia Square Dance

Conventions. She is also the layout artist for the official C.L.O.G. newsletter CLOGToday.

Surviving are six children, eight grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She was also preceded in death by her first husband, Peter Ternosky; second husband, Thomas Snyder; and a brother, Ray Lake Jr. Mary was an active member of St. Ann's Church in Hampton, N.J., where she served as a Eucharistic minister. Memorial donations may be made to St. Ann's Church, 6 Church St., Hampton, NJ 08827.

level at a high pace! Stan mentioned this is one of his favorite workshops and both he and Missy agreed that everyone here is so friendly and having so much fun. They both love to come back again! Joel Harrison, from the "All That" team that has performed on America's Got Talent and also appeared on our "On Wingin' It, Buffalo Style, Channel CW 23" TV show, said, "This is my favorite workshop of the whole year. Everyone dances from Thursday night to Saturday night - - the ending. Friendly people, incredible teaching staff!"

Workshops began bright and early Friday morning and what a choice - - 5 halls covering a wide variety of music, a great selection of instructors, plus some very interesting seminars on both Friday and Saturday. Kassandra Naylor, Jim's daughter, did a fantastic job assisting him with some of his teaches, and also on her own with "B-You", which she also choreographed. All that for a 12 year old!! Scotty Bilz really enjoyed dancing "On the Floor!" with the Fab Five, (Lynne Ogle, Naomi, Matt, Chip, and Scotty,) seeing Lynn Ogle smile, and adding another great Nickel City under his belt! Chip and Matt both commented they were lovin' it here, as always, and having a great time! Friday evening cloggers had their choice of the Ballroom for a fun dance highlighting our national instructors or the Settlement Hall staffed with our local and guest instructors for request dancing. Dale Burl did a great job running the adjacent Request Hall where songs from the past 25 years were

America's National Independence Day Parade

America's National Independence Day Parade takes place annually on July 4th at 11:45 am in Washington, D.C., on Constitution Avenue from 7th to 17th Street before a street audience of hundreds of thousands of spectators. The Parade consists of invited bands, fife and drum corps, floats, military and specialty units, giant balloons, equestrian, drill teams, VIP's, national dignitaries, and celebrity participants. We are proud to again welcome hundreds of cloggers and dancers in 2012! The Parade is a major national event which seeks to draw the attention of Americans to the real meaning for the holiday. It is a patriotic, flag-waving, red white and blue celebration of America's birthday!

The Parade is co-hosted by the National Park Service and produced by Diversified Events, which is under contract to the National Park Service. The clogging and dance expo is under the direction of Lee Froehle and Jeff Driggs, who have a long history of providing exciting opportunities for dance groups to perform, tour and travel, including the 2002 Clogging Expo and parade in Washington, D.C., the Hawaii Clogging Expo, dance cruises, the Florida Citrus Bowl halftime show and expo, and many more.

The Nation's Capital offers unlimited excitement on July 4th in addition to the parade. A National Folklife Festival on the Mall features different cultures in the Americas and a variety of ethnic groups. That evening, parade participants are all part of the audience of the PBS Concert at the Capitol Building featuring the National Symphony Orchestra and one of the country's largest fireworks displays. There is no greater location displaying greater excitement on America's birthday than in our nation's capital!

played. Our exclusive Pool Party for cloggers and families ended a very busy day. The fun never stopped!

Saturday morning brought us the hustle and bustle of cloggers (599 dancers registered dancers for the festival,) hurrying to one of the 6 halls available to take an interesting routine or see their favorite instructor. Our door decoration contest was back with brightly colored posters with 25th year anniversary themes. The "Beginner from Scratch Hall" was again a big hit with the new or not so new cloggers. Jeff Driggs stated that it was great to see Nickel City have another successful year, pay tribute to the classic routines (with flashbacks of the past 25 years,) which are a great intro to some of the newer cloggers! There is always something to do here at Nickel City - - make sure to take time to visit all our local scenic sights including Niagara Falls - - shop 'til you drop at all our malls - - try your luck at one of our many casinos - - and don't forget to take a stroll down memory lane and visit the historic photo displays of Nickel City festivals of the past, which is set up annually by our historian, Bonnie Linhardt. An added treat this year was the playbacks of past Nickel City show videos. Ah, memories!! As the Saturday evening workshops concluded, it was on to a delicious buffet. Also, throughout the weekend anyone feeling very lucky could take their choice of participating in the 50/50 daily drawings or take chances on the many beautiful wine and clogger baskets.

As the Saturday workshops and the buffet concluded for the evening, it was time to head to the Ballroom for a great evening of entertainment. The large audience was entertained with great exhibitions - - a delightful duet from Addie and Tanner Truax, and enjoyable performances from the Kickin' Rhythm Cloggers, the Combination Cloggers, the Backwoods Cloggers, Rhonda's Foot Stumpers, the Kickin' Rhythm Kids, the Shane Gang Cloggers, the Stompin' Em Cloggers, and the Tensation Cloggers. During the evening special recognition was given to Aislin Brown and Andrew Perry for receiving honors as the WNYCA scholarship recipients this year. Congratulations to these outstanding individuals and good luck with their future education! A special moment for the Nickel City Festival was the presentation Saturday evening of the WNYCA Hall of Fame Award, which purpose is to recognize individuals who have contributed significantly to the perpetuation of clogging in the Western New York region. This year we were proud to honor Shane Gruber and Aliccia Clark with our coveted Buffalo plaques. Sharon Pine was also inducted into the Hall of Honor for her past work in the formation of our festival, the WNYCA organization, and teaching clogging in the area. These individuals have made many contributions of their time and talent to Nickel City their home teams, and clogging in general. Congratulations to these outstanding and very deserving individuals. A fashion show of past clogging performance outfits was held which brought smiles and laughter to many as we took a step into the past! Finally, awards were handed out for the winners of the Door Decorating Contests and to Erica Lemke, Barb, and the Tensation girls for their memorable Fashion Show outfits. Morgan Hudson remarked, "An awesome festival - - it's #1 and at the top of my list - - of all the workshops this one gives everyone the best." Barry Welch's teach, "Tiger by the Tail," was choreographed in his van on a return trip to Arizona in September! And, both Barry & Stacy McWethy both agreed Nickel City is a well run festival with great, friendly people. Clogging fun continued well into the evening with more dancing in the Ballroom and lots of visiting between cloggers.

Very many special thanks go out to Ken and Linda Haley, Hanna Healy, and all their hard-working committee people, volunteers, and all the participants who did a fantastic job coordinating this year's festival. This event would not be a success without everyone's service and dedication. A big thank you goes out to all who attend and support our Nickel City Festival!

Next year's Nickel City Festival will feature a western-themed event, "Happy Trails ... Until We Meet Again" as we celebrate our last year at the Holiday Inn on Grand Island and look forward to the beginning of a new era of Nickel City Festivals at the Adam's Mark in downtown Buffalo in 2013. All the fun commences April 19 thru April 21, 2012, at another exciting Nickel City Festival weekend. We'll be looking for you!

Click Your Heels Three Times in Kansas

Adapted from a story by Annie Vangsnes
Miconews, Miami County, Kansas

Echoing from the Paola School of Dance in Paola, Kansas every Tuesday night is the click-clack of tap shoes, but it doesn't come from little girls in tutus, and it's not tap dancing.

The Miami County Cloggers have been around for 11 years, and although its members have changed over time, those involved are devoted dancers.

Some may think of clogging with wooden shoes, or gingham clad children high-stepping to bluegrass music, but that's not the norm anymore, instructor Karri Myers said. Cloggers wear jazz shoes with double taps that make more noise. The dance itself is a mix of tap and line dance, and is done to all styles of music, she added. The Miami County Cloggers practice weekly and perform occasionally at nursing homes, fairs and anywhere else they're asked.

Myers had never danced a day in her life before starting to clog 11 years ago, and five years ago, she took over for former instructor Nancy Kohl. "Anybody can do this if you are patient enough and break it down simply," she said.

She said although most of her students are women, in bigger cities, there are many men and children who also participate.

"They start off for exercise, but then they get hooked," she said.

Eleanor Manly of Osawatomie started clogging 11 years ago with Myers when the group first started and has been dancing ever since. When Manly was leaving practice last winter, she slipped on the ice and broke her hip.

Her doctor told her that it would take at least six months for her to begin walking normally and that she probably wouldn't dance again. Three months later, Manly was back at practice, clogging away, Myers said.

Manly said the doctor told her dancing and staying active helped her recover and also kept her bone from breaking worse than it did.

Manly started dancing when she was young and continued off and on throughout her life.

"I love it," she said. "I still have my dancing costumes from when I was 5 or 6."

When Pat Walker started the class three years ago, she had lost her husband a year prior.

"I was floundering, looking for something to fill that void," she said.

After she went to her granddaughter's recital with the studio and saw the cloggers perform, she knew she had to try it.

"It's just pure joy," she said — and it's visible in the wide grin on her face when she clogs.

When the cloggers practice, they hold cue sheets, which break down the dance step by step with abbreviations. Myers said because she was a beginner when she started, she understands that every dancer learns differently, so she'll count steps out several different ways to adjust to everyone's style. Regardless of whether someone has danced before, Myers encourages anyone interested to try clogging.

"Everybody says they have two left feet," she said. "Well, great, because we start with the left foot."
